What Happened in Des Moines

No. 3.

Twenty-four hours after street car service had been suspended in Des Moines, merchants began organizing a committee to get it restored.

Business, according to merchants, fell off from 10 to 25 per cent because shoppers could not get downtown in busses.

Bus men assured car riders, before the street car company was starved into stopping service, that they would furnish a ride at 5 cents.

Fares on many busses went to 10 cents and 25 cents when the cars stopped running.

Inadequate fares and unrestricted bus competition forced the Des Moines street railway to abandon all city service—over 92 miles of lines—on August 4, 1921.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912.

Of The Labor World, published weekly at Duluth, Minnesota, for October 1st, 1921.

STATE OF MINNESOTA,) COUNTY OF ST. LOUIS.)
ss.

Before me, a Notary Public, in and for the State and County aforesaid, personally appeared William E. McEwen who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the owner of The Labor World and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse side of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:

Publisher, William E. McEwen, Duluth, Minnesota.
Editor, William D. McEwen, Duluth, Minnesota.
Managing Editor, William E. McEwen, Duluth, Minnesota.
Business Manager, William Tunell, Duluth, Minnesota.

2. That the owners are: William E. McEwen, Duluth, Minnesota.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of toatl amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 3rd day of October, 1921.

WM. TUNELL,
My commission expires February 20, 1922.
