Note—Operatic matinees are new, a fashionable feature in the New York musical season, are given in order to accommodate those who are unable to attend the evening performances. In order to render this matinee a popular entertainment the Director has fixed the rate of admission at One Dollar to all parts of the house. No secured seats.
To avoid the crowd at the Box Office tickets may be had at Grunewald's and at Blackmar's Music Stores, Canal street, on and after Wednesday next.
The second season will open on Monday, Jan. 15th, with Gounod's chef d'oeuvre FAUST.
