ENGLISH ROOFING FELT

Is found to stand well in all climates, being extensively used for Roofing Houses, Out-Building and Sheds; for Laying Flat Roofs, Gutters, Lining Granaries, Storehouses, or Walls, (either outside or inside), and for placing under Slates or Tiles. It is also a cheap and effective Ceiling on the underneath side of rafters of a Slated or Tiled Roof, and as a Ceiling to Iron Roofs, counteracting Heat, Frost, and Condensation of Moisture.

The English Felt is put up in rolls of 25 yards in length, by 32 inches in width, and containing a surface of 200 square feet.

Baltimore, Md.

THE above well known House has recently been opened by C. P. Barnard, formerly of the American Hotel, Washington, D. C., and has capacity to accommodate over a hundred people with lodging and has capacious and nicely furnished rooms for families. Connected with the House also is a ladies' dining room. The strictest order is maintained and accommodating servants always at call. The House is open at all hours. The advantage of our Hotel upon the plan of the Sherwood House is, that the guest can accommodate the price of his living to his own wishes, paying only for what he gets. The Sherwood House has recently been newly furnished and refitted, and, being in a central and business part of the city, offers unusual inducements to travellers. A fair trial is asked, and patronage from St. Mary's county solicited.

sive, may be formed between the Republicans and some democratic candidate for public office who may think they have gloomy prospects of an election, the candidates being, that you shall aid me and I shall help you? If we do not hold a Convention, will not the republicans be in a condition to dictate terms to almost every democratic candidate who has a democratic brother for an opponent?

But Conventions don't represent the wishes of democrats and are managed by a few wire-pullers! Let us look this action in the face. Under our present convention system, each of the six districts into which the county is divided is entitled to cast and casts ten votes in our county Conventions. Each district selects by ballot, after due notice given, the ten persons it wishes to represent it in the county Convention. Judges are appointed to receive and count the ballots, the polls are opened at 9 o'clock in the morning and are closed at a late hour in the evening, and every democrat, resident in the district, is eligible to vote at this election.—Can any party machinery be imagined fairer than this to obtain a true representation of democratic wishes? I think not. But the wire-pullers will combine, drag up their friends and secure the ten delegates they want? Unless they are concerted, what is to prevent the same people from electing their candidate by the same means at the election authorised by law, and is it not as easy to control them, so far as democrats are concerned, at the one election as at the other? The truth is, an active popular man who makes a study and a business of politics is always in a position to combine and drag up with effect, whether it be at a party election fixed by law. It is idle, therefore, to object to Conventions because they are in large measure controlled by politicians—politicians also control at other popular elections—and to the confidence and patronage of our people in all parts of the State. Its directors are men of known integrity and ability, to whom the public may look with confidence for a just and careful supervision of its affairs. It must be clear to every intelligent mind that, if we would secure the largest prosperity of our State and people individually, we must build up our institutions and keep our capital at home.

Had the five million dollars sent out of the State annually for insurance been invested at home, it would have told favorably upon our own wealth and commerce. This is emphatically OUR COMPANY—gotten up by our best merchants to afford the opportunity for all to insure without sending the money out of our own State. The affairs of the Company it managed with economy.

Such has been our marked success that we were able after the second year to declare and pay in CASH as large dividends as the oldest and LARGEST company in the United States. The Company feel greatly encouraged by the patronage and co-operation they have received, and solicit a continuance of the same. The laws of trade, self-respect and patriotism combine in making this the Company for us

Now, dear sirs, in view of all the advantages of Life Insurance as an investment—the uncertainty of life—the strong claims of wife and children upon husband and father—the uncertainty of business, and all the ordinary forms of investment—is it not the moral duty of every man to put something in a form that will prevent want and distress, or trouble on the part of those he loves?

By all means insure, and do it at once in the Maryland Company. The officers of this Company are:

GEO P THOMAS, President.
A K FORD, Secretary.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

Hamilton Easter,	Geo H Hilner,
Allen A Chapman,	Thomas Cassard,
Geo P Thomas,	William Devries,
Hugh Sisson,	Charles Webb,

A J MYERS, State Agent.

THE COMPANY REFER TO

Judge Magruder, Judge Ford, Judge Mason, Hon Fred Stone, Barnes Compton and Editor of Beacon.

☞ A J MYERS, the State Agent, will be in Leonardtown during the first week of Court to transact the business of the company, and will also insure property in Baltimore Companies
