to give him cheerful, earnest and hearty support."

The Alta (dem.) says: "There is present protentous and actual danger in supporting Harrison in this State. The republicans of this State have before them an opportunity to show that their anti-Chinese zeal has not been a pretense. If they wish to save their party in California from absolute destruction let them reject Harrison and refuse to put an electoral ticket in the field. The whole State will await the decision with interest. Upon the issue of silver coinage Harrison stands against every principle and profession of the party in these silver States, and his record is in direct opposition to the national platfrom upon which he is nomminated."

The San Francisco Post (republican) says: "Harrison was not the first choice of the voters of California. Gresham or Alger represent the attitude of the coast far more closely than Harrison, especially on the Chinese question, and California would have been far better satisfied had either of these men been chosen; but Harrison comes from a doubtful State and it is of the highest importance that the party should carry it in November. It is probable that his supporters have given assurance that his vote as Senator six years ago does not represent his present attitude on the Chinese question and that he is sound on the silver question. The California delegation voted for him, and it is hardly probable that they would vote for him otherwise."

The Examiner (dem.) says: "The platform demands protection—protection to what—to labor or capital? That was the question that remained to be settled, and it should be settled irrevocably by the nomination of Benjamin Harrison. We trust we shall be spared any personal scandals in this campaign. There will, however, certainly be no need of personal slanders when there is such a public record as Harrison's to discuss. California has never had an opertunity to show unmistakably her opinion of a pro-Chinese candidate. This year we shall have a square chance at one of the men whom California republicans in 1882 swore never to forget."

Mr. Watterson, in the Louisville Courier Journal, says: "The republicans will of course try to raise an 1840 furore and to make a log-cabin-and-hard-cider-Tippecanoe-and-Tyler-too campaign of it, but the old chicken won't fight. The present Harrison is not that sort of a man. He lives in a palace and drinks only champagne out of cut glass. He never wore home-spun in his life, and would not know a coonskin if he saw it. He is a cold, selfish, exclusive, arrogant and vain patrician. He hates a poor man worse than the devil hates holy water. There is nothing popular or magnetic about him. If he lived in the East he would be a drawling Anglomaniac. Living West, he is merely the grandson of his grandfather. With Morton for a yokemate, it is simply a rich man's ticket on a poor man's platform, and will poll only the party vote."

The Louisville Anzeiger says that "Cleveland and Harrison are now before the American people. Cleveland during his administration proved to be a competent, conscientious official. By his statesmanlike, conservative administration he has gained the unbounded confidence of the American people and will undoubtedly down Harrison next November. Harrison has many bitter enemies among Indiana republicans, and the friends of Gresham are not likely to forget the underground manipulations at Chicago. Harrison is a man of the aristocracy, not a man of the people in better sense, and his capacities as a statesman are of inferior rank."

The Chicago Staats Zeitung says: "Harrison's career in the Senate was not very prominent. He showed moral courage by his opposition to Chinese laws. His position in this respect will probably cost him the fourteen electoral votes of the Pacific States. In Indiana he has a certain strength, which is, however, based more on his ability as a political 'boss' than on his personal popularity. He has no magnetism at all. The Germans of Indiana, republicans as well as democrats, do not care for him, because under his influence the republican party of Indiana declared itself for submitting a constitutional amendment in favor of prohibition to the vote of the people. The republican party now stands as a temperance party, even if it has not the courage to pronunce itself openly for prohibition. It may by this neforious rick bring back a few of the prohibitionists who have fallen off, but how many German republicans will after this stay true to the party?"

A dispatch from Evansville, Indiana, to the New York Sun says: "The sense of disappointment among republicans of this city over Harrison's nomination cannot be concealed, and many are so impudent and outspoken as to declare their determination to remain away from the polls. This indignation, while not general, is nevertheless sufficiently positive to arouse some alarm among local leaders. The most prominent defections so far are two republican newspapers in this city—The Indiana Post (German) and the Daily Bulletin. The Post is a representative organ of the German people, and will antagonize Harrison on account of his temperance views. The Bulletin is the county organ of the republicans, and in an indignant leader this afternoon declares that Harrison's nomination was wholly unexpected and fell like a wet blanket upon republicans of Southern Indiana. It then says the probabilities are that he will be beaten in his own State by 10,000 votes. These defections are supplemented by many individual ones, some on account of the candidate and others on account of the unyielding tariff plank of the platform. At this writing Harrison could not carry sixty per cent. of the republican strength of his district. Some of these wounds can be healed, but many of them will be manifest at the November polls."

Springfield Republican, (rep.) "Gen. Harrison has never shown as much statesmanlike ability as Sherman or Allison, nor the conspicuous independence and strength of Gresham. But in view of the possibilities before the convention, we think the country may well be congratulated upon the result. It is late in the day to find out a man's ideas and powers after he has been put in nomination for the presidency, Cleveland has the advantage of having shown his quality by a term of actual service—but something of the uncertainty with which the country at large must regard Harrison at present may be cleared up by his own words. As to policy, the maintenance or reduction of the tariff—as to party organization, the republican against the democratic—as to men, Harrison against Cleveland—these are the issues, and upon these we ought to have a spirited and educating a clean and a good-tempered campaign." In regard to Mr. Morton, the republican vice-presidential nominee, the Republican says: "Mr. Morton has been 'mentioned' for the presidency itself; he had a chance at the nomination for the vice-presidency which finally fell to Arthur. But what has he done or what is he, that he should ever be thought of in this connection? The answer is brief. He is a very rich man in a doubtful State, where the sinews of war are most urgently needed. Mr. Morton has never occupied a place in the public eye because of any quality of his own. He has sat quietly in Congress; he has entertained generously as minister to Paris; he is a shrewd man of business; but for a trace of statesmanlike character his record may be searched in vain. Placed in contrast with Allen G. Thurman, he appears as he is, essentially insignificant. But he may be, in his way, of use to the republican party."

☞ Many a poor sufferer who submits to the surgeon's knife, in consequence of malignant sores and scrofulous swellings, might be cured, without an operation, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This remedy expels from the blood all the impurities by which disease is generated.

☞ Many a young girl shuts herself out from society because her face is covered with pimples and blotches. All disfiguring humors are removed by purifying the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This remedy is the safest and most reliable that can be used.

☞ Bishop (dining with the family)—"So you wouldn't like to be a bishop, Bobby, when you grow up?" Bobby—"I'd like to well enough, but as everybody says I take after ma's side of the family, I don't s'pose I'll be fat enough for a bishop."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup' for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents per bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Martyrs to Headache

Seek relief in vain, until they begin to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Then they regret the years of suffering they might have escaped had they tried this remedy earlier. The trouble was constitutional not local; and, until Ayer's Sarsaparilla did its effective work as an Alterative and Blood Purifier, they were compelled to suffer.

The wife of Samuel Page, 21 Austin st., Lowell, Mass., was, for a long time, subject to severe headaches, the result of stomach and liver disorders. A perfect cure has been effected by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Frank Roberts, 727 Washington st., Boston, says that he formerly had terrible headaches, and until he took Ayer's Sarsaparilla, never found any medicine that would give Permanent Relief.

"Every Spring, for years," writes Lizzie W. DeVean, 262 Fifteenth st., Brooklyn, N. Y., "I have had intolerable headaches. I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla last March, and have not had a headache since that time."

"I suffered from headache, indigestion, and debility, and was hardly able to drag myself about the house," writes Mrs. M. M. Lewis, of A st., Lowell, Mass. "Ayer's Sarsaparilla has worked a marvelous change in my case. I now feel strong and well as ever."

Jonas Garman, Esq., of Lykins, Pa., writes: "For years I have suffered dreadfully, every Spring, from headache, caused by impurity of the blood and bilousness. It seemed for days and weeks that my head would split open. Nothing relieved me till I took Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has cured me completely."

When Mrs. Genevra Belanger, of 24 Bridge st., Springfield, Mass., began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, she had suffered for some years from a serious affection of the kidneys. Every Spring, also, she was afflicted with headache, loss of appetite, and indigestion. A friend persuaded her to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which benefited her wonderfully. Her health is now perfect. Martyrs to headache should try Bone Phosphate, Dis. Bone Phosphate and Potash, White Hall Phosphate, Locust Point Compound, Farmers Standard Muriate Potash, Sulphate Potash, Ground Tanking, and all Fertilizing Materials.

Before purchasing your Fertilzers for wheat the coming season, it will be to your interest to give us a call. All the above brands are strictly reliable, besides we keep in stock all kinds of the best grade material from which we can make you any grade Fertilizer you may need. This House is an old-established one, and everything they sell you is as represented. As an evidence of the superiority of our goods, my sales have increased from 21 tons per annum, the first year, to 1,085 tons, this being my sales in Charles and St. Mary's counties the past year. I shall not be satisfied until I sell every responsible farmer in Southern Maryland, as it is not only for my own interest I wish to do so My greatest desire is to induce planters of Southern Maryland to use strictly first class goods and they can only do so by dealing with a first class house. Mr. W. I. Burch, of Brywantown, or Mr. C. B. Lloyd, our Collector and Selesman, will be glad to receive your orders, and I will devote as much time as I can in the two counties the coming season in order to induce the farmers of Southern Maryland to buy the best Fertilizers offered to the people of any State in the Union. All responsible orders sent direct to the Company will receive prompt attention. Yours very truly, JOHN M. LLOYD.

N. B.—What Mr. James F. Mattingly, a large and practical farmer of Chaptico District, St. Mary's county, says of our Tobacco Compound:—He says that he can grow as large Tobacco from other fertilizers as he can from Ober's, but while Ober's is just as good as to quality, it weighs from ¼ to ½ more than any other Fertilizer that he has used. I will here add that Mr. Mattingly is not only a very good and prosperous farmer but strictly reliable. Mr Mattingly has used our goods for several years and says he will use no others for both Wheat and Tobacco. JOHN M. LLOYD.
