PREVENTION BETTER PLAN

Henryetta Takes Steps to Avoid Possible Smallpox Visitation.

HENRYETTA, Dec. 11.—It Special to The World.

HENRYETTA, Dec. 11.—Although smallpox, which appears prevalent over the state, has not made its appearance in Henryetta, the city and school officials are taking every precaution to prevent a spread of the disease should it occur here. The mayor has asked everybody to be vaccinated, and physicians will attend the public schools for the purpose of vaccinating the pupils free of charge.

The Lions' club has issued a statement commending the mayor's proclamation in the interest of health and urging the public to safeguard against the disease as much as possible.

Why He Turned Away From Her

He turned away—and a sharp sense of pain and disappointment swept over her. No words were needed. Somehow she knew in her heart that all her feeling for him would come to nothing. Why had she ever hoped—? What right had she to have him a part of her dreams? And yet other girls dreamed. Yes, and even made their dreams come true!

She Never Saw Him Again.

He never called again—just seemed to drop out of her life. Now she knew the real reason—knew what was in his mind when at the theater one evening he had remarked about the "clear, milky whiteness" of another girl's complexion. At once she thought of her own—of the freckles at which she felt sure everyone was gazing, of her sallowness, of the little blackheads that so annoyed her.

At first he had appeared not to notice. But as time went on—well, each party, each dinner, each theater affair just seemed to show more that his ideal of personal appearance included a clear, smooth white skin. And the pity of it all was that she didn't know that she too could easily have the clear skin that he admired so much.

A Secret That You Should Know.

Do you know that a new discovery has been made by science that actually clears and whitens your skin in just a few days —and that you can see results even overnight? No longer is there any need of having freckles, pimples, tan, roughness, blackheads, liver splotches, tooth patches, or a "muddy" complexion. Now you can quickly and easily have the skin you've always longed for—clear, smooth and white.

Just apply this fragrant cream three minutes before bed time. Look in your mirror the next morning. Note how the freckles, blotches, or other skin imperfections have already begun to disappear. You see results almost over night!

Don't be satisfied with a poor complexion—there's no need of it! Today, get a jar of this new harmless scientific discovery—Golden Peacock Bleach Cream, at your nearest druggist's or by mail—P. EVERYDAY AD-VENTURES

That Changes Everything—

When your good friend, Mrs. Powell drops in for a little chat one of these afternoons, and in the course of her remarks asks how your Christmas shopping is getting along—and that question almost ruins the conversation—

Because your Christmas list is all "those"—so much so that the mere mention of it throws your nerves all out of gear—and so you explode to Mrs. Powell and tell her that you never—no, never—had such a time finding appropriate things to give to people.

And when you get through, she just smiles and tells you that her shopping is all completed, which makes you feel worse than ever—until she says that maybe her plan would help you out, too.

Whereupon she tells you about all the splendid ideas in the Christmas Gift Suggestions columns in The World's classified section.

And that changes everything!

Because when you take her hint, you find not only descriptions of just the sort of attractive and reasonable presents you want, but the names of the stores where you can get them, as well, and the next day you "go to it" and finish all your shopping—easily and economically.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MR. BAIRD—We must thank you for your tender, attentive service at the funeral of our dear girl. You certainly have the real human touch in your work. A number have remarked about everything being so nice. Such kindness is never forgotten. And it is such a relief to not be kept up. Our friends were surprised. They guessed our expense at about double what it was. We can honestly recommend you to our friends. Yours with appreciation. Mr. and Mrs. ——— (Mr. Baird, proprietor, Tulsa Undertaking Co., receives many similar letters.)
