Arraigned Before Justice.

Gunnison, Nov. 20.—Sheriff Jensen brought Ed Nash before Justice Gledhill of this place yesterday, where he pleaded guilty to a criminal charging him with the crime of adultery. The case was set for hearing on Saturday. The woman is the wife of Niels Iverson, who has a homestead claim in Sanpete county.

REJOICING IN THE STORM.

Greatest in Five Years at Gunnison—Smiles for Ranchmen.

Gunnison, Nov. 20.—Gunnison is having the greatest snowstorm in the years to come this early in the season, which means much for the farmers and stockmen next season, as we had some trouble last year in the matter of water. Rain continues to the accompaniment of thunder and lightning, which put the ground in fine condition. The snow now lies in the valley in six inches deep, and it is still snowing and every one is rejoicing.

Mt. Pleasant, Nov. 19.—This morning has witnessed a fine fall of snow in this part of the country. There is about two inches on the ground, and it is still falling. Most of the people hope it will continue for a day or two and give us plenty.

Manti, Nov. 19.—Every farmer, gardener and other man who can carry a rake or hoe is in his field this fall, and remember any of their fall grain and a good deal of their spring grain. Everybody is being waited on right now by the men who have not been waited on for two years. At the time of writing this it is raining in torrents.

Death of John Olsen.

Mt. Pleasant, Nov. 19.—John Olsen, an aged pioneer resident of this city, passed peacefully away from this life at his home last Monday morning. He had not been quite well for some time, but was able to be around the house. He retired as usual the night before, and died in his sleep without any apparent struggle. Mr. Olsen was born October 11, 1818, in Sweden, and was married to Miss Christina Jensen, also a native of Sweden, in 1846. They came to America in the early fifties, and settled in Mt. Pleasant, where he has lived ever since. He was the father of eighteen children, twelve of whom survive him, namely, Mrs. Christian Jensen, Mrs. Ellen Olsen, Mrs. Christian Olsen, Mrs. William Olsen, Mrs. Mary Olsen, Mrs. Wilford Olsen, Mrs. Hyrum Olsen, Mrs. Wilford Olsen, Mrs. Hyrum Olsen, Mrs. Wilford Olsen, Mrs. Hyrum
