DAY, TYLER & CO., wholesale and retail dealers and manufacturers of Blank Account Books, and dealers in Stationery, &c. &c. in the New Building on Washington Street, opposite the Palmer Hotel, Indianapolis, Indiana, where there can always be obtained, and will be found constantly on hand, the various articles in their line. Every description of Blank Books for County Auditors and Treasurers, school commissioners and magistrates, with or without printed heads.

In all their Blank Books they use the Improved Patent mode of sewing, which gives a ength with great flexibility. And is incomparably superior to any other method ever devised for blank books, and will keep the leaves firm and solid while the book lasts, instead of coming to pieces, as is often the case with all other methods. The method of sewing under the backs was worth double the old kind, though they cost no more. In elegance, durability, and superior style of finish, their account books are equal to the best Eastern work and no higher in price.

D. T. & Co. are also prepared to manufacture all descriptions of fancy articles, such as Ladies' and Gentlemen's Port Folios, Baskets, Card Cases, Albums, Spectacle Cases, Cigar Cases, Pocket Books and Note Books.

MUSIC PAPER always on hand, which can be bound in various sizes, and Bands supplied at the shortest notice. ☞ Music arranged and bound in the best style at reasonable prices and short notice.

The improved patent of a Binding Machine is just received. Books and paper ruled to any pattern.

They are prepared to do all kinds of Binding in French and English Calf and Morocco, Plain, Extra, and Super Extra Marble and Gilt edge Finish. All kinds of law and interleaved works and periodicals bound to order, to which personal attention will be given.

WOULD respectfully inform their old friends and the public that their new Cabinet Warehouse is just west of their old one; and that they are now prepared to furnish all articles in their line at the shortest notice and on the most accommodating terms. They are prepared to make Coffins on the shortest notice, day or night, and to attend funerals, having an excellent hearse, &c.

As heretofore, all orders will be thankfully received and attended to with punctuality and despatch.

Indianapolis, June 4, 1845. 50-tf

REMOVAL.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and old customers that he has removed his CARRIAGE SHOP one door south of the Palmer House, on Illinois street, where he will be happy to accommodate all those who may favor him with their custom; and what is of great importance these hard times, he sells extremely low for cash or approved country produce. Call and see. if JAMES GREER.

JOSEPH I. STRETCHER,
Undertaker and Coffin-Maker,

Washington Street, nearly Opposite the Post Office.

RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Indianapolis and its vicinity, that he will give his attention to the above business, with a view to relieve the friends of deceased persons from the indispensable trouble attending the death of a friend, and would state that he is prepared to undertake the whole business of funerals, if desired, or any part thereof, on reasonable terms: such as furnishing either a one or two horse hearse, built after the most approved style. Also, carriages, and every other requisite appertaining to the above business.

J. I. S. would further state that he will make his charges reasonable to persons in this country.

N. B.—Attendance at all hours. Should the subscriber fail in any of the above engagements no charge will be made.

35-tf J. I. STRETCHER.

SAVE YOUR MONEY!
And buy Saddles of J. J. Bugh.

J. J. BUGH respectfully informs his friends that he is prepared, at his New Store opposite the Post Office, to furnish them with Saddlery and Harness of all descriptions, at the lowest prices for cash or approved produce.

—ALSO, ON HAND—

Trunks, Portmanteaus, and Carpet and Saddle Bags. Any article in his line will be made to order at short notice and on low terms. He would take this occasion to tender his thanks for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, and solicits a continuance of the same. 47-tf

SADDLERY AND HARNESS MAKING.

THE undersigned, grateful for past patronage, would respectfully inform his old friends and the public, that he is prepared to manufacture all articles in his line,

Cheaper than ever!

He will warrant all work ordered, and will receive in payment thereof produce at the highest market prices. His shop is in the "Old Sentinel Office," on Washington street, southeast of the State House.

49-tf O. W. SWITSER.

WHOSE WATCH STOPS?

PERSONS whose watches are out of order, are informed that I have engaged Mr. John A. Stanfield, who is an experienced and an acknowledged superior workman; any kind of watch that may be broken or worn out in any particular, can be replaced with entire new works; watch cases repaired or made new; all kinds of watches, clocks or jewelry repaired in the very best style, and warranted to perform well or no pay. I am also prepared to make or sell any kind of jewelry or stone settings. Every possible pains will be taken to have work done well and neatly. The public are respectfully invited to call and give us a trial. Shop opposite the Washington Hall. 45 W. H. TALBOTT.

GREAT BARGAINS---Prices Reduced.

THE subscriber has concluded to make a further reduction in the prices of his Shoes and Boots. But while he does this, he promises that all his work shall be finished in the same neat and substantial manner which has heretofore characterized his establishment, and given it such a decided preference with the public. The subscriber is well aware that shoes and boots can be purchased at some stores at the same or less prices; but as he uses none of the ordinary or refuse stock, those of his manufacture will prove cheapest in the end. Country produce will be taken in exchange at fair prices. Call at his stand opposite Browning's. 9-tf A. KNODLE.

BOOT AND SHOE MANUFACTORY.
