FASHIONABLE TAILORING.

James & E. A. Hall,

No 2, Palmer House.

This determination, they hope, will increase their business, as they know it will enable them to give greater satisfaction to their customers.

Those wishing to get

In the receipt of the quarterly report of the Paris, London, and New York fashions, they will be enabled to keep up with the different changes constantly going on in the fashionable world.

In every instance, where garments do not give satisfaction, at their loss, they will try it again. They will strictly adhere, in the transaction of their business to the following rules, viz: promptness and despatch, small profits, quick returns and ready pay.

BUCK'S PATENT COOKING STOVE.

The many persons using this stove, in this and other cities, declare themselves delighted with its operation and best testimony of its superiority over any other cooking stove ever offered to the public. It requires, also, much less fuel than is generally used in other cooking stoves, one half the ordinary quantity being amply sufficient for all purposes.

PROSPECTUS OF THE
New Library of Law and Equity.

UNDER THE EDITORSHIP OF
FRANCIS J. TROUBAT, Esq., of Philadelphia,
Hon. ELLIS LEWIS, of Lancaster,
WILSON M'CANDLESS, Esq., of Pittsburgh.

THIS work contains the best productions of English law authors, without regard to priority of claim on the part of any American publisher. Such books are notoriously too dear. The reason is that as fast as they appear they become monopolies in the hands of booksellers in the Atlantic cities. Under the plea of right acquired by the addition of notes of American decisions, the latter claim an undivided interest in the works, and extort a burdensome price on them. The publishers of the work now offered to the profession throughout the Union, will not respect such files, but will reprint the standard British law books as fast as they emanate from the London market. Should new editions of the works of such writers as Starkie, the Chittys, Stephen, and Archibold, appear, they will also be included; and Decisions of Equity and Law decisions—works which have been studiously kept out of the Law Library published at Philadelphia—shall have a place in the proposed new one, together with every new valuable English treatise on Chancery or Common Law.

☞ This work will be issued monthly in numbers of 160 pages, price $1 25. Where Law Reports are issued, the Law Library Price, seven dollars per annum, payable half yearly.
