HARDWARE.

DOUBLE OVEN COOKING STOVE.

THE subscriber has just received a lot of the above stoves. They are decidedly superior to any stove ever invented. Having two ovens, different articles can be baked at the same time, which could not be well baked in a single oven. This tends to great economy in fuel. At the same time all other culinary operations can be as well or better performed than in any other stove in market. Those in want of such an article are invited to call and examine this before purchasing any other. This is all that is necessary to secure for it the preference; for seeing is believing.

A NEW AND VALUABLE LAW BOOK.

A TREATISE on the law relating to the powers and duties of Justices of the Peace and Constables, and on all actions cognizable in Justices' Courts in the State of Indiana; with practical forms, &c. By W. W. Wick and L. Barbour. Just published and for sale by

C. B DAVIS and W. A. DAY & CO.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Feb. 17, 1846.

GENTLEMEN: I have looked through the volume you sent me, of a treatise on the law relative to the powers and duties of justices of the peace and constables, in actions cognizable in justices' courts in the State of Indiana, by W. W. Wick and L. Barbour; and am very forcibly impressed with its general correctness, and consequent value to the public, and especially with that portion of it that treats of the operation of our relief laws upon contracts, and the bearing of the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States upon that important question, in which I fully concur with the authors of the work. I shall place it in my library for reference, it being one of the very best works of the kind yet published. Very truly,

Messrs. DAY & DAVIS, Publishers. O. H. SMITH.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 16*th*, 1846.

MESSRS. DAVIS & DAY—GENTLEMEN: I have cursorily looked through the treatise by Wick and Barbour, just published by you, in relation to the powers and duties of justices of the peace and constables, and embracing a variety of useful matter not falling within the ordinary scope of such a work. The law seems to be laid down with clearness and accuracy, the citations are numerous, and the order and method of the whole work are excellent. It cannot but prove a valuable instructor for all such officers, an economical guide to every man of business, and even the practical attorney will often find his labors abridged by giving it a place in his library. It richly deserves, and I hope it will receive, a liberal patronage.

Yours very truly, JAS. WHITCOMB.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 9*th*, 1846.

GENTLEMEN: Respecting the treatise of Messrs. Wick and Barbour, relating to the powers and duties of justices of the peace and constables, I am of the opinion that it is a most valuable work, and should be in the hands of every justice in Indiana, and that all classes of our citizens would be much benefited by a careful perusal of it. The utility of the book will be more apparent to magistrates, as well on account of the great number and variety of indispensa le forms, as of the statutory and other references, (hardly elsewhere to be found,) indicating the whole law, in almost every class of action, coming before justices of the peace in Indiana. Yours truly,

MESSRS. DAVIS & DAY. WM. SULLIVAN.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 1*st*, 1846.

GENTLEMEN: I have examined, at your request, the treatise respecting the powers and duties of justices of the peace, &c., written by Messrs. Wick and Barbour, and recently published by you. It is a work, I am confident, that will be found exceedingly useful in the transaction of business in justices' courts, and I hope it will be liberally patronized. Yours, &c., ISAAC BLACKFORD.

RECENTLY PUBLISHED,

INTRODUCTION TO AMERICAN LAW.

Designed as a first book for Students.

BY TIMOTHY WALKER.

(Second edition, enlarged and amended.)

From Judge Story and Professor Greenleaf.

WE have examined the "Introduction to American Law," by Professor Walker with as much care as we could consistently with our avocation, since it first came to our hands. It appeared to us to be a work prepared with great judgment and ability and contains the result of sound and discriminating learning. As a general outline of American Law, it is entitled to full public approbation, and cannot fail to be eminently useful to students in their first advances in professional knowledge. It supplies a want, which has been extensively felt, and is worthy the reputation of the distinguished author.

JOSEPH STORY, Dean, Professor of Law.
SIMON GREENLEAF, Royal Professor of Law.
HARVARD UNIVERSITY, Cambridge.

From the North American Review.

This book is well adapted for the purpose indicated in its title page. It is an admirable First Book for students of Law. It is also thoroughly American. The young jurisprudent of our country, who is pursuing that "gladsome light" which his master, Lord Coke, has so earnestly commended, may here find a book especially written for himself, calculated to remove many of those difficulties which peculiarly beset the path, and to conduct him at once to the actual structure of American Law. * * * * Mr. Walker has presented a perspicuous and condensed view of the vast subject of American Law. His language has a simplicity bordering on plainness, but it is intelligible and expressive. With more of elegance it would be a happy model of scientific elementary writing, particularly for the bar. It is devoid alike of professional pedantry, and of careless refinement, but is direct, and to the purpose, and clearly conveys the author's meaning. The tone and spirit of the book are such as become our country; they are congenial with our free institutions and our expanding social character. Published by BERRY, BRADLEY & CO.,

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

Book Binding, and Account Book Manufactory.

THE subscribers having entered into partnership for the purpose of carrying on the Blank Book Manufacturing and Book Binding in all its various branches, under the firm and style of W. A. Day & Co., respectfully inform their friends and the public generally that they have made large additions of stock and tools from the east, and having made arrangements with the eastern manufacturers for a constant supply of blank book and record paper of the very best quality, they are prepared to supply county officers, banks, and merchants with and every description of Blank Books for Banks, County Clerks, Auditors, Treasurers, School Commissioners and Magistrates, with or without printed heads.

ALL KINDS OF STATIONERY

In all their blank books they use the Improved Patent mode of sewing, which gives strength with great flexibility, and is incomparably superior to any other method ever devised for blank books, and will keep the leaves firm and solid while the book lasts, instead of coming to pieces, as is often the case with all other methods. The new method of sewing render the books worth double the old kind, though they cost no more. In elegance, durability, and superior style of finish, their account books are equal to the best eastern work, and no higher in price.

W. A. D. & Co. are also prepared to manufacture a sorts of fancy articles, such as Ladies' and Gentlemen's Port Folios, Caskets, Card Cases, Albums, Spectacle Cases, Cigar Cases, Pocket Books, and Note Books.

MUSIC PAPER always on hand, which can be bound in various sizes, and Bands supplied at the shortest notice. ☞ Music arranged and bound in the best style at reasonable prices and short notice.

The most improved pattern of a Ruling Machine is just received. Books and paper ruled to any pattern.

They are prepared to do all kinds of Binding in French and English calf and morocco, plain calf, and super extra marble and gilt edge finish. All kinds of law and interleaved works and periodicals bound to match, to which personal attention will be given.

Dr McLANE'S VERMIFUGE

The American Worm Specific

Promptly Expels Worms to an almost incredible number!

TO substantiate the above fact many hundreds of testimonials could be adduced, out of which the following are selected, from individuals of standing and veracity. Indeed it is confidently affirmed that each new trial of the powers of this remedy will have an additional tendency to widen and confirm its fame, and that if it were universally known and diffused over the United States, it would not save less than many hundreds, if not thousands of lives annually.

CERTIFICATES.

I do certify that a vial of Mr. McLane's American Worm Specific expelled five hundred and two whole worms, and pieces that would have made sixty more, from a boy of John Lewel
