HARDWARE.

DOUBLE OVEN COOKING STOVE.

THE subscriber has just received a lot of the above stoves. They are decidedly superior to any stove ever invented. Having two ovens, different articles can be baked at the same time, which could not be well baked in a single oven. This tends to great economy in fuel. At the same time all other culinary operations can be as well or better performed than in any other stove in market. Those in want of such an article are invited to call and examine this before purchasing any other. This is all that is necessary to secure for it the preference; for seeing is believing.

A NEW AND VALUABLE LAW BOOK.

A TREATISE on the law relating to the powers and duties of Justices of the Peace and Constables, and on all actions cognizable in Justices' Courts in the State of Indiana; with practical forms, &c. by W. W. Wick and L. Barbour. Just published and for sale by

C. B. DAVIS and W. A. DAY & CO.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Feb. 17, 1846.

GENTLEMEN: I have looked through the volume you sent me, of a treatise on the law relative to the powers and duties of justices of the peace and constables, in actions cognizable in justices' courts in the State of Indiana, by W. W. Wick and L. Barbour; and am very forcibly impressed with its general correctness, and consequent value to the public, and especially with that portion of it that treats of the operation of our relief laws upon contracts, and the bearing of the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States upon that important question, in which I fully concur with the authors of the work. I shall place it in my library for reference, it being one of the best works of the kind yet published. Very truly,

Messrs. DAY & DAVIS, Publishers. O. H. SMITH.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 12th, 1846.

MESSRS. DAVIS & DAY—GENTLEMEN: I have cursorily looked through the treatise by Wick and Barbour, just published by you, in relation to the powers and duties of justices of the peace and constables, and embracing a variety of useful matter not falling within the ordinary scope of such a work. The law seems to be laid down with clearness and accuracy, the citations are numerous, and the order and method of the whole work are excellent. It cannot but prove a valuable instructor for all such officers, an economical guide to every man of business, and even the practical attorney will often find his labors abridged by giving it a place in his library. It richly deserves, and I hope it will receive, a liberal patronage.

Yours very truly, JAS. WHITCOMB.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 9th, 1846.

GENTLEMEN: Respecting the treatise of Messrs. Wick and Barbour, relating to the powers and duties of justices of the peace and constables, I am of the opinion that it is a most valuable work, and should be in the hands of every justice in Indiana, and that all classes of our citizens would be much benefited by a careful perusal of it. The utility of the book will be more apparent to magistrates, as well on account of the great number and variety of indispensable forms, as of the statutory and other references, (hardly elsewhere to be found,) indicating the whole law, in almost every class of action, coming before justices of the peace in Indiana. Yours truly, WM. SULLIVAN.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 1st, 1846.

GENTLEMEN: I have examined, at your request, the treatise respecting the powers and duties of justices of the peace, &c., written by Messrs. Wick and Barbour, and recently published by you. It is a work, I am confident, that will be found exceedingly useful in the transaction of business in justices' courts, and I hope it will be liberally patronized. Yours, &c., ISAAC BLACKFORD.

RECENTLY PUBLISHED,

INTRODUCTION TO AMERICAN LAW.

Designed as a first book for Students.

BY TIMOTHY WALKER.

(Second edition, enlarged and amended.)

From Judge Story and Professor Greenleaf.

WE have examined the "Introduction to American Law," by Professor Walker with as much care as we could consistently with our avocations, since we first received it in our hands. It appeared to us to be a work prepared with great judgment and ability, and contains the result of sound and discriminating learning. As a general outline of American Law, it is entitled to full public approbation, and cannot fail to be eminently useful to students in their first advances in professional knowledge. It supplies a want, which has been extensively felt, and is worthy the reputation of the distinguished author.
