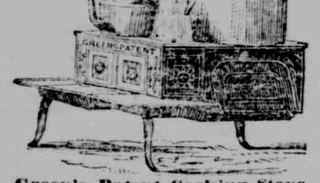
HARDWARE.

LATEST PATTERN OF 1846!



Green's Patent Cooking Stove.

THE subscriber has received, direct from the manufacturer in Cincinnati, a lot of Green's new patent Cooking Stoves, which he will sell at the smallest possible advance on the Cincinnati price. These Stoves are very highly recommended, and numbers who have used them in Cincinnati and elsewhere, give them a decided preference over any other stove in use. In point of convenience, despatch in cooking, weight of plates, and economy of fuel,—and especially in baking,—it is believed by many to have no equal. Let those in want of such an article, at least call at my store and look at Green's Patent, before purchasing any other.
S. WAINWRIGHT,
26-tf Main street, Indianapolis.

DOUBLE OVEN COOKING STOVE.

THE subscriber has just received a lot of the above stoves. They are decidedly superior to any stove ever invented. Having two ovens, different articles can be baked at the same time, which could not be well baked in a single oven. This tends to great economy in fuel. At the same time all other culinary operations can be as well or better performed than in any other stove in market. Those in want of such an article are invited to call and examine this before purchasing any other. This is all that is necessary to secure for it the preference, for seeing is believing.

A NEW AND VALUABLE LAW BOOK.

A TREATISE on the law relating to the powers and duties of Justices of the Peace and Constables, and on all actions cognizable in Justices' Courts in the State of Indiana; with practical forms, &c. By W. W. Wick and L. Barbour. Just published and for sale by
C. B DAVIS.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Feb. 17, 1846.

GENTLEMEN: I have looked through the volume you sent me, of a treatise on the law relative to the powers and duties of justices of the peace and constables, in actions cognizable in justices' courts in the State of Indiana, by W. W. Wick and L. Barbour; and am very forcibly impressed with its general correctness, and consequent value to the public, and especially with that portion of it that treats of the operation of our relief laws upon contracts, and the bearing of the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States upon that important question, in which I fully concur with the authors of the work. I shall place it in my library for reference, it being one of the very best works of the kind yet published. Very truly,
Messrs. DAY & DAVIS, Publishers. O. H. SMITH.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 19th, 1846.

MESSRS. DAVIS & DAY—GENTLEMEN: I have carefully looked through the treatise by Wick and Barbour, just published by you, in relation to the powers and duties of justices of the peace and constables, and embracing a variety of useful matter not falling within the ordinary scope of such a work. The law seems to be laid down with clearness and accuracy, the citations are numerous, and the order and method of the whole work are excellent. It cannot but prove a valuable instructor for all such officers, an economical guide to every man of business, and even the practical attorney will often find his labors abridged by giving it a place in his library. Briefly deserves, and I hope it will receive, a liberal patronage.
Yours very truly, JAS. WHITCOMB.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 9th, 1846.

GENTLEMEN: Respecting the treatise of Messrs. Wick and Barbour, relating to the powers and duties of justices of the peace and constables, I am of the opinion that it is a most valuable work, and should be in the hands of every justice in Indiana, and that all classes of our citizens would be much profited by a careful perusal of it. The utility of the book will be more apparent to the magistrates, as well on account of the great number and variety of indispensable forms, as of the statutory and other references, (hardly elsewhere to be found,) indicating the whole law, in almost every class of action, coming before justices of the peace in Indiana. Yours truly,
MESSRS. DAVIS & DAY. WM. SULLIVAN.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 1st, 1846.

GENTLEMEN: I have examined, at your request, the treatise respecting the powers and duties of justices of the peace, &c., written by Messrs. Wick and Barbour, and recently published by you. It is a work, I am confident, that will be found exceedingly useful in the transaction of business in justices' courts, and I hope it will be liberally patronized. Yours, &c., ISAAC BLACKFORD.

FOREIGN PERIODICALS.

REPUBLICATION OF

The London Quarterly Review,
The Edinburgh Review,
The Foreign Quarterly Review,
The Westminster Review, and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

THE above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.

The wide-spread fame of these 4 lendil Periodicals renders it needless to say much in their praise. As literary organs, they stand far in advance of any works of a similar stamp now published, while the political complexion of each is marked by a dignity, candor, and forbearance not often found in works of a party character.

They embrace the views of the three great parties in England—Whig, Tory, and Radical. "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review," Whig; and the "Westminster," Radical. The "Foreign Quarterly" is purely literary, being devoted principally to criticisms on foreign Continental Works.

The prices of the REPRINTS are less than one third of those of the foreign copies, and while they are equally well got up, they afford all that advantage to the American over the English reader.

TERMS.—PAYMENT TO BE MADE IN ADVANCE.

For any one of the four Reviews,	$3 00 per annum.
For any two of the Reviews,	5 00 per annum.
For any three of the Reviews,	7 00 per annum.
For all four of the Reviews,	8 00 per annum.
For Blackwood's Magazine,	3 00 per annum.
For Blackwood and the four Reviews,	10 00 per annum.

CLUBBING.

Four copies of any or all of the above works will be sent to one address on payment of the regular subscription for three—the fourth copy being gratis.

☞ Remittances and communications must be made in all cases without expense to the publishers. The former may always be done through a Postmaster, by handing him the amount to be remitted, taking his receipt and forwarding the receipt by mail, postpaid; or the money may be enclosed in a letter, post paid, directed to the publishers.

N. B. The Postage on all these Periodicals is reduced by the late Post Office law, to about one third the former rates, making a very important saving in the expense to mail subscribers.

 In all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States, in which there is a direct Railroad or Post communication from the city of New York, these periodicals will be delivered Free of Postage. LEONARD SCOTT & CO.,
