Mr. T. W. Shepherd, secretary of the merchants' association, says that that association was only organized for the purpose of promoting local trade and was not intended to take the place of a board of trade. Some communications have been received by him, relative to the location of industries in this city, and have been promptly attended to.

Forty-four sailors of the United States navy in charge of a gunner, passed through the city this morning on their way to San Francisco, where they will be assigned to different war vessels. They were a draft from different ships, while some were apprentices who had never seen service. On the cap of one of the sailors was the name of Raleigh, while one colored tar had a cap band marked U. S. S. Texas. Some were from Franklin and some from the Panther. They are direct from the Norfolk navy yard.

A SLIGHT ERROR.

Once in awhile a slight error will occur in a newspaper and one crept or crept into the Daily Enterprise yesterday in the announcement by Rev. Pledger, that the M. E. choir would be organized. It should have read reorganized, for the article implied that the M. E. church had been without a choir, when such was not the case. John Sanders has been filling the very important position of leader of the choir for a long time, and he has done his duty well and Rev. Pledger regrets very much that Mr. Sanders' other duties prevents him from keeping the place he has held so long and filled so satisfactorily.
