LAKE CHARLES COMMERCIAL.

LAKE CHARLES, LA.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1881,

☞ Subscribers who fail to receive their paper, will please notify us of the fact.

Fresh oysters at King's restaurant.

A. H. Moss has good coffee at ten cents a pound.

Photograph Albums and Picture Frames, at Albert's gallery.

Go and price the best sewing machines, at Fassold's, the jeweller.

We are requested to say that there will be a "Social" to-night, at the residence of Dr. J. C. Munday. All are invited to attend.

See Wm. Meyer's advertisement of a new twelve-horse power steam engine for sale. The engine is warranted in good running order.

Parties desiring to purchase one or more town lots, will find it to their advantage by calling on W. H. Haskell. See advertisement.

The old P. O. boxes, formerly used for holding dunning letters, is soon to be filled with something more pleasing to the palate. Call and see.

Thanks to Messrs. J. A. Collins, D. Condon, and W. R. Bonnafon, representing E. Marqueze & Co., of New Orleans, for subscriptions to the COMMERCIAL.

Mr. G. Kaun, successor to Dr. J. C. Munday, is constantly receiving additions to his already large stock of drugs, medicines and fancy articles. Give him a call.

David Black, who was shot last Thursday night, the 27th ult., on the Sabine river by Wm. Parish died last Friday night, and Parish has left for parts unknown.

Mr. Peter Fassold, the enterprising jeweller on Ryan street, has fitted up his store in style. He is now prepared to accommodate his customers. Step in and see.

MR. CHARLES E. SMITH, agent for the New York, Texas and Mexican Rail Road, can be found at the Haskell House. Tie contractors and saw-mill men may find it to their advantage to give him a call.

BONES.—Notice the advertisement of S. B. Allison this week. Save your bones and take them to either of the agents, Capt. T. D. Reeves or Jas. A. Lyons, or to the traveling agent, Tom Isaacks, at Vermilionville, and get the cash for them.

The attention of the ladies is called to the advertisement of Miss L. Walsh. She has just received a large stock of Millinery and Fancy Dress Goods. Miss Walsh is also agent for Mme. Demorest's Magazine and Patterns. Stop and see her goods.

W. H. HASKELL begs to remind his old customers that he is on hand at his old stand, near the Haskell House, with a choice and complete assortment of Stationery, Blank Books, etc., etc., and a fine assortment of choice Cigars, Chewing and Smoking Tobaccos, Pipes, Tobacco Pouches, etc.

BOILER EXPLOSION.—Last Monday while the hands were at dinner the boiler of the saw mill of H. B. Jones, just above town, exploded and completely demolished the building and all the machinery. Large portions of the machinery were thrown clear across the river, while others blew several hundred yards in every direction. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt. One man got struck about the face and slightly hurt.

Remember that the entertainment by the Magnolia Club, comes off next Saturday night. "Toodles" and the "Mummy" will be represented with a very strong cast of other characters. The R. K. R. Cornet Band will discourse music for the occasion, and Prof. Carlos Clark and Miss Lizzie Hennington have kindly volunteered to perform the "Carnival of Venice" and "When the Bloom is on the Rye," arranged for the cornet and piano, by Prof. Greig.

PERSONAL.

A. J. Perkins, Esq., is back from Galveston.

J. P. Parsons, Esq., was in town during this week.

M. J. Rosteet went over to Opelousas yesterday morning. He will be back Sunday night.

Charlie Stith, representing the firm of Marx & Kempner, of Galveston, was in town this week.

Messrs. Slick Black and A. P. Pujo, who have been absent for some time, returned home a few days ago.

Messrs. W. W. Duson and Raymond Clark, from Plaquemine Brulee, St. Landry, visited our town this week.

Sheriff D. H. Lyons is on his plantation attending to his farming interests, and at the same to have a deer hunt.

Thad. Mayo, Esq., the genial clerk of our District Court, has gone up in the pine woods, to see about his timber interests.

Mr. David Bloch, of the firm of Bloch & Kaufman, went to Opelousas last Sunday morning, and returned Tuesday night.

Geo. H. Wells, Esq., who has been attending the session of the District Court at Orange, Texas, returned home Thursday.

Judge S. D. Read and District Attorney A. J. Kearney, left yesterday for Vernon parish. They go to hold a term of the District Court, for that parish.

Messrs. Diomel Durio and Fremont Fuselier, from St. Landry, are visiting our town. Mr. Durio is on a pleasure trip and Mr. Fuselier is in search of health.

Mrs. Maggie Crain, wife of Dr. C. D. Crain, arrived last Thursday morning from Galveston, where she has been for several months past. We welcome her back.

We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Charles E. Smith, agent for the New York, Texas and Mexican R. R., last Wednesday. Mr. Smith is here on business for his road.

Mrs. Charles Pitre, from St. Landry, is visiting Lake Charles. Mrs. Pitre came here for her health, and says that she feels considerably improved since her arrival here, last Sunday night.

Mr. W. R. Bonnafon, representing the reliable firm of E. Marqueze & Co., wholesale Boot and Shoe Dealers of New Orleans, was in town this week, and is fast introducing himself into the favor of our local merchants.

Old and defaced pictures enlarged and restored, at Albert's gallery.

Choice Prints, at A. H. Moss', sixteen yards for one dollar.
