IT ALWAYS CURES.

SMITH'S Tonic Syrup or Vegetable Febrifuge, for the speedy and radical cure of Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever. The proprietor in offering this remedy to the public, does so with full confidence that its results will sustain him in pronouncing it one of the most valuable medicines ever offered to the public as a speedy and effectual cure for the Ague and Fever or Chills and Fever.

It is composition is very simple, being entirely of Vegetables, and it does not contain anything which would render its use in the least unsafe as a popular medicine.

Combining with its powerful and general Tonic properties, a Cathartic and Sudorific action, it can be used with perfect safety without any preparation of the patient in the commencement of the attack. It corrects and prevents the febrile excitement which usually attends and so often defeats in its early use, Quinine and the other remedies, in the treatment of Ague and Fever or Chills and Fever. In the proper dose it acts as a mild Laxative, and encourages a natural and healthy action of the bowels, whilst at the same time it gives tone to the stomach and promotes a general healthy action of the digestive organs, and thus in morbidly weakened habits restores the system to strength and vigor. In Costive and Bilious habits, it sometimes acts as an Emetic and Cathartic (particularly when given in large doses) and thus cleanses at the same time both stomach and bowels—and promotes a profuse perspiration.

In fever, generally, it will be found a most valuable Tonic, for whilst it gives tone to the system, its Diaphoretic and Laxative properties guard the patient from the reproduction of Fever.

MUSIC—VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL.

MR. PEARSALL, returns his grateful acknowledgments for the very liberal patronage extended to him in his profession of teacher of music, since his location in Indianapolis.

The increase in the number of pupils obliges him to change his arrangements so as to give two lessons in each week, instead of three.

He has procured a superior piano for the accommodation of such as wish to make some proficiency, before purchasing one, or persons residing at a distance. This piano will be kept in good tune;—a consideration in the cultivation of a correct taste in music.

A class of young ladies in vocal music will meet at his dwelling at 4 o'clock, P. M., on Mondays and Thursdays; also, a class of young gentlemen on Tuesdays and Fridays, at the same time and place.

One of the objects in the formation of these juvenile classes is, to give a permanent opportunity for acquiring a correct knowledge of the principles of the science of music, as well as to learn to read music.

Particular pains will be taken to form a habit of distinct enunciation, which gives to vocal music its superiority.

No sentiment of a doubtful character will be allowed in the exercises in singing.

A senior class in vocal music will be formed; for terms apply to Mr. A. G. Willard.

A class of young ladies in the French language will meet at St. Mary's Seminary. Apply to the Rev. S. L. L. Johnson.
