INDIANA STATE SENTINEL

Indianapolis, February 10, 1849.] SEMI-WEEKLY. [Volume IV—Number 79.

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES AND MEASURES.

A strict construction of the Constitution, and no assumption of doubtful powers.

A Diplomacy asking for nothing but what is clearly right and submitting to nothing wrong.

No connexion between the government and banks.

An ad valorem revenue tariff.

No public debt, either by the General Government or by the States, except for objects of urgent necessity.

No assumption by the General Government of the debts of the States, either directly or indirectly, by a distribution of the proceeds of the public lands.

No extensive system of Internal Improvement by the General Government or by the States.

A constitutional barrier against improvident State loans.

The honest payment of our debts and the sacred preservation of the public faith.

A gradual return from a paper credit system.

No grants of exclusive charters and privileges by special legislation to banks.

No swindling corporations.

No connexion between Church and State.

A preference for Democrats over Whigs for every office.

Acquiescence in the rule of the majority in all cases of party discipline.

No proscription for honest opinions.

Fostering aid to public education.

A "progressive" reformation of all abuses.

NEW ROUTES IN INDIANA.

Extract from the act of Congress of 3d March, 1845, Section 18.

"And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Post-master General, in all future lettings of contracts for the transportation of the mail, to let the same, in every case, to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guarantees for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty, and security of such transportation; nor shall any new contractor hereafter be required to purchase out, or take at a valuation, the stock or vehicles of any previous contractor for the same route."

☞Bidders will be careful to read the forms and instructions appended to this advertisement. They are requested to state in their proposals, the mode by which they intend to convey the mail. Where the size and weight of the mails, or the speed called for in the schedules shall require it, the contracts will be made for coach, steamboat, or railroad conveyance, as the case may be; and consequently, such routes will be let to those providing such mode of conveyance. In all other cases, the routes will be assigned to bids proposing the cheapest mode of transportation.

PROPOSALS for carrying the mails of the United States from the 1st day of July, 1849, to the 30th of June, 1853, inclusive, in Indiana, will be received at the contract office of the Post Office Department, in the city of Washington, until 9 a. m. of the 4th of April, 1849, (to be decided by the 24th day of April, 1849,) on the routes and in the manner and time herein specified, viz:

4096. From Evansville at 6 a m Monday by Albion and Fairfield to Salem, (Ill) by 6 p m next Wednesday, 106 miles and back between 6 a m Thursday and 6 p m Saturday.

Query: whether this route is necessary?

4097. From Fonome, (Ohio,) at 6 a m Thursday by Denmark, up the St. Joseph's river to Hamilton, and Biddle's Corners to Coldwater (Mich) by 12 m next day, 50 miles and back between 2 p m Friday, and 6 p m Saturday.

NOTES.

Each proposal shall be accompanied by a guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, in the following manner, viz:

"The undersigned guaranty that if his bid for carrying the mail from to be accepted by the Postmaster General, shall enter into an obligation prior to the first day of July next, with good and sufficient sureties, to perform the service proposed."

This should be accompanied by the certificate of a postmaster, or other equivalent testimony, that the guarantors are men of property, and able to make good their guarantees.

The proposal should be sent to the department sealed, endorsed "Proposals for route No. in ," and addressed to the First Assistant Postmaster General.

For the prohibition of bids resulting from combination, and the terms and conditions on which the contract is to be made, see the last annual advertisement.

INDIANAPOLIS MARBLE WORKS.

THE undersigned, thankful for past favors, would solicit a continuation of the patronage of the citizens of Indianapolis and vicinity, as they are prepared to execute all kinds of Monuments, Tombs, Gravestones and Mantles, of the best Egyptian, Italian and American marble, which in point of execution cannot be surpassed, and which they are enabled to sell at prices that will defy competition.

Plans of Monuments and Mantles can be seen by calling at the shop near the Railroad Depot. All work in Ohio freestone and Vernon limestone for building and other purposes, executed promptly and in superior style.

They have lately received an additional stock of Vermont marble, and are in daily expectation of a large quantity more, which is on the way. They have also made arrangements with an agent in Philadelphia, from whom they will receive any and every kind of marble that may be contracted for here, at short notice.

Indianapolis, Feb. 2, 1849. 77-y FALCONER & HIGHET.

NOTICE.

ALL persons are hereby notified and warned, that my wife, Rebecca, having left my bed and house without any just cause or provocation, I shall not be held responsible for the payment of any debts she may contract, nor will I from this date pay any debt of her contracting. ALEXANDER ROBINSON.
