THE DAILY CRITIC

CITY SPECIALS.

$30,000 Worth of New and Elegant Furniture.

Our stock of desirable furniture was never so complete in every department as it is at present. We have $30,000 invested in this line of goods, which has been recently purchased direct from the manufacturers, first hands, and thereby saving the profits of the middle men, which is a saving of at least 30 per cent., of which we propose to give our customers the advantage. For the next six days you can buy any quality or style of furniture at prices that has never before been reached in this city.

These prices are bottom rock rates, and we cannot afford to sell them at these figures unless we get the cash or gilt edged security. We are over crowded with as fine a stock of excellent furniture as ever has been exhibited in the National Capital, and it must be reduced. If low prices will accomplish the desired end. We make no discount of 15 per cent., but our prices are as low as our competitors, who propose to take off that percentage.

We have placed the figures so low on our goods that a discount would be utterly impossible. Our prices are less than ever other merchants in this line of goods after they have taken off that contemptuous 15 per cent.

Now is your time to purchase all your furniture at the unprecedented low prices at our magnificent furniture establishment.

Our stock is composed in part of 75 handsome Parlor Suites, 150 elegant Chamber Suites, 65 splendid Sideboards, 50 beautiful and serviceable Hat Racks, and 40 different styles of Decker's dining room chairs. Also 80 different patterns of lounges and couches, 60 superb parlor desks. Also an extensive assortment of china closets, book cases, secretaries, fancy rocking chairs, extension tables, and many other articles in our line that you need, but space forbids mention. A call is respectfully solicited at the great furniture emporium of fashion.

THE POTOMAC ATHLETIC CLUB.

This Popular Organization Enters Its New Winter Quarters.

The Potomac Athletic Club took possession of its new winter club house on Saturday evening. The opening was entirely informal and during the evening the guests were entertained with vocal and instrumental selections by members of the club. The building contains twelve large rooms and the interior arrangements are admirably adapted for the use of the club.

The main floor is occupied by the reception hall which is handsomely decorated with pictures and trophies won by the club in aquatic struggles. In the centre of the room is a large urn of Parian marble, presented by Mr. John Nash. Adjoining the reception room is a handsomely-furnished sitting room, in the rear of which is a well-stocked buffet. The upper floor is occupied by the pool, billiard and gymnasium rooms and the Governors' room. The whole house is furnished in a comfortable and convenient manner, and promises to be one of the most popular clubhouses in the city.

Convention of Christian Workers.

The annual convention of Christian Workers of the United States and Canada will hold sessions at Hartford, Conn., from November 6 to 12 inclusive. Washington will send a delegation. The subjects to be discussed will relate to matters connected with aggressive Christian and benevolent work, more especially to plans and methods of work for reaching the masses not reached by the ordinary ministrations of the gospel. A large number of earnest and well-known Christian workers, pastors, evangelists and city missionaries will be present, and a varied programme covering many important phases of practical Christian work has been prepared. The Gospel Wagon of the Central Union Mission was shipped by fast freight on Thursday to Hartford for exhibition and to enable the delegates of the Christian convention to experiment with it in actual street work.

Ryland M. E. Church Reopened.

Ryland Methodist Episcopal Church, at Tenth and D streets southwest, was reopened yesterday, after having undergone extensive improvements costing $6,000. Bishop Willard F. Mallalieu of New Orleans preached at the morning service from the text "God is Faithful." A liberal collection, amounting to $4,000, was raised, being $1,000 more than the pastor, Rev. J. A. Price, had asked for. The amounts contributed were from 50 cents to $250. The church is out of debt, and has $1,000 in the treasury.

Row on a Cable Car.

William H. Dietz and the conductor of cable car No. 9 had a dispute at the corner of Seventh street and Market Space last night over some change, and the passenger was put off the car. Dietz was somewhat injured in consequence of his falling and had to be taken to the Emergency Hospital and from there to his home, No. 402 First street. Dietz insists that he gave the conductor a quarter and that he failed to give him back any change.

James B. Peake's Funeral.

The funeral of James B. Peake, who committed suicide last Friday, took place from his late home, 223 Seventh street northeast, yesterday afternoon. Rev. W. M. Ferguson of the Fourth-Street M. E. Church conducted the ceremonies. Paragut Post, No. 16, and Union Lodge, I. O. O. F., were present and followed the remains to the Congressional Cemetery, where the interment took place.

Broke His Collar Bone.

Yesterday afternoon John E. Probey was locked up at the K street station charged with an assault upon Julia Walters, also with being drunk and disorderly. After he had been in the cell some time it was ascertained that Probey's collar bone was broken and he was sent to the Freedman's Hospital for treatment.

Our Baby Buffalo.

A baby buffalo was born at 5:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the National Museum. The sire and dam of the little stranger were captured in 1886 near the North Seattle River, Nebraska, and presented to the Museum authorities by E. V. Blackford of New York city.

Imprisoned for Begging.

Joseph Goldschmidt, William Gordon and Virginia Carrington, all charged with vagrancy, were given ninety days on the farm by Judge Miller this morning. They all have made a practice of begging upon the streets.

TWO CLEVER ARRESTS.

Detective Mahon's Nerve and Tact Unearths a Huge "Fence."

Detective Charles Mahon on Saturday night made two very clever arrests and recovered a large quantity of stolen plunder. In fact, he unearthed one of the largest "fences" ever discovered.

He started out to arrest Charles Scott, a colored man who has been wanted for some time for stealing from George I. Hill, and found him at his house, corner of Fourteenth and U streets. On the way down town Detective Mahon demanded of Scott that he take him to the place where he slept. He was somewhat surprised when the colored man lead him into the alley directly opposite headquarters and took him into an old house occupied for a number of years by an old ashman named Hiram Walker.

Upon entering the place Mahon released his hold on his prisoner and struck a match to see where he was, but a gust of wind blew it out. Before striking the second match Mr. Mahon concluded to draw his revolver, and it is very fortunate for him that he did so, for as he struck a second match Scott could be seen standing near the door with a large sledge hammer grasped in both hands and waiting a chance to strike the officer, but when he saw the barrel of the revolver glisten in the dim light he weakened. While still covering Scott with his gun Mr. Mahon managed to light a candle which stood on a rickety old table. Just at that time a man passed through the alley and the officer told him to go to Headquarters and summon Sergeant Perry. Upon going up stairs in the hovel they found quantities of silverware, clothing, silk handkerchieves and considerable money.

A watch was kept over the place, and a patrol wagon carried all the plunder to Police Headquarters. Money was found in many of the pockets and secreted in other places, and there was over $800 counted up at Headquarters. Later in the night Hiram Walker returned to his home and was also arrested. Some tools were found in the house, with which recent robberies have been committed.

Neither one of the men locked up was brought into court to-day. Colonel Jack Brown appeared in behalf of Hiram Walker and insisted that he should have an immediate hearing or be admitted to bail.

Judge Miller stated that no complaint had been made against Walker. Colonel Brown said that he had known Walker for eighteen years and he knew him to be an honest, hard-working man, never before accused of having committed any crime. It was on Mr. Brown's advice that Walker removed his money from the Riggs Bank and secreted it in the upper rooms of his home, where it was found on Saturday night. He had about $1,000 in the bank, which he had accumulated by buying and selling ashes. Everything found in the shanty Mr. Brown feels satisfied belongs to Walker. His attorney stated this afternoon that he would apply for a habeas corpus and have Walker released.

Messrs. Joseph Shillington and A. B. Williams appeared at the First Precinct station this morning. United States Attorney Molloney said he was not ready to go to a hearing, and a continuance was taken until Wednesday. Judge Miller placed the bond under which both Walker and Scott could be released at $500 each.

Funeral of Mr. Divine.

The funeral of Mr. Hugh Glover Divine took place from his late residence, 1622 Thirty-third street, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The funeral was largely attended by the friends of the deceased and by the various secret organizations of which he was a member. The pall bearers were Robert Butle and William Donaldson for the Odd-Fellows, J. R. Norton and Ezra Troth for Independent Order of American Mechanics and William Daugherty and William Kensinger for Knights of Pythias. The funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. Owens at Calvary Methodist Church, after which the remains were interred at Oak Hill Cemetery with the solemn rites of the societies present.

Dr. Godding's Unknown Patient.

The New York Herald yesterday published a story to the effect that the unknown woman at the St. Elizabeth Asylum was Miss Ruth Davenport, an actress. The description of Miss Davenport does not tally with that of the woman confined at the asylum. Dr. Godding does not think that the woman under his care is an actress. If his patient continues to improve he will be able in a few days, he thinks, to find out who she is and where she came from.

Fire at the Lenthall Home.

There was a slight fire last night at the Lenthall Home for Aged Women, at the corner of Nineteenth and G streets northwest, which caused a little excitement among the inmates. The wood-work in close proximity to an overheated stove on the second floor took fire. An immediate alarm was rent in from box 38, and the flames were very soon extinguished. The damage did not exceed $10 or $15.

WILL IT RETURN?

Much Speculation as to the Probable Reappearance of the Grip—What Certain Symptoms Mean.

There can be little doubt that the "grip" which played such sad havoc last year, has not only left its effects upon a great many, but seems to be returning in various localities. All physicians report that there is an alarming prevalence of heavy colds, accompanied by all grip symptoms. Many people take cold easier than before; others are troubled with weak eyes, headaches, etc. These things not only come to those who were laid low by the grip last year, but are also visiting many who escaped. Pains, neuralgia, lassitude, all the symptoms are present.

Every leading physician who treated the grip last season prescribed stimulants. The weakening, depressed state of the body demanded this, and there are numerous cases on record where pure whiskey saved the lives of men and women who were fast drifting toward the grave. As in all other things, however, the purity of an article determines its value, and to say that ordinary whiskey will assist is absurd. It is only pure whiskey, of a medicinal quality, which can be made available, and it is in this respect that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has shown itself to be immeasurably superior to any other known stimulant. The attention of the best physicians has been drawn to this truth, and the fact that they are prescribing this whiskey constantly, is the highest praise they could bestow. Professor Joseph Parrish says: "We know that whiskey will steady the heart, slow the pulse, calm excitement, and we ought to use it." Be very careful, however, that you secure only the genuine, and such as has, by years of popularity, been proven purest and best. In other words, use only Duffy's.

Pugilist Dixon at Kernan's.

George Dixon, the colored champion bantam-weight of the world, has been specially engaged to appear at Kernan's next week, beginning Monday night, in a series of scientific exhibitions of the manly art, open to all comers. The objection has been made heretofore that the champions anxious to meet all comers were heavy-weights, and Manager Kernan has at last secured a fighter against whom no objection can be raised. Dixon is one of the plucklest little fighters in the ring, and worsted Jack Kilrain's protege, Johnnie Murphy, won the championship of England in his late fight with Nunc Wallace and is now regarded as utterly invincible.
