SCHOOL FOR BAD BOYS.

What the District Reform School Did During Last Year.

The annual report of President A. J. Falls of the board of trustees of the District Reform School has been submitted to Attorney-General Miller. The school, organized twenty-three years ago, had received up to October 30 last 1,360 boys. During the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1889, there were 302 boys in the school. The average age of the boys was 12 years and 8 months. The number of boys discharged during the year was 98, by changes of sentence of court, 4. Two were absent without leave. The estimates for appropriations for the present fiscal year for salaries, support of inmates, etc., aggregates $51,192. The superintendent paid over to the treasurer during the last fiscal year $2,317.18 derived from the industries of the school. During the existence of the school only nine deaths have occurred. All the boys discharged are at work and doing well.

The report asks appropriations for the establishment of other industries and for more room at the school. The necessity of legislation giving the trustees power to recall a discharged boy during his minority is also urged.

BIG "INJUNS."

Buffalo Bill's Band of Warriors in the City.

Buffalo Bill's band of noble redmen arrived in this city yesterday under the charge of Major Burke and are now quartered at the Hotel Hanover. They are attired in the costumes of their native wilds and appear to be in the best of health and spirits. These are the Indians who have been entertaining the nobility and royalty of Europe as a part of Colonel Cody's Wild West show, and about whom numerous stories of cruel treatment have been circulated. The stories are denied by the managers and by the Indians themselves, who say that they had had plenty of good food, excellent quarters and were well treated by their employers. They are now on their way to the Sioux Reservation at Pine Ridge, Dakota, but before leaving this city will see the sights and visit President Harrison at the White House.

Afraid of the Little "Bantam."

Dixon, the champion bantam-weight at Kernan's Theatre, waited in vain last night for another victim, and was compelled to give a friendly exhibition with Jack Williams of London. But tonight he is assured another opportunity, as there is no probability of Albert Dyson, who weighs 125 pounds, failing to put in an appearance. Dyson is acknowledged to be a pretty plucky little fighter, and has a host of admirers, who feel confident that he will knock the champion bantam weight out. If Dixon survives, he will meet Morris tomorrow night, giving twenty-three pounds.

Negatived by Two Votes.

The members of Wesley Chapel voted unfavorably last evening on the proposition, "Shall women be eligible as lay delegates to the Electoral and General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church." The polls were open from 2 p. m. to 9:30 p. m., and the vote stood thirty-eight for and forty against the admission. Rev. Charles W. Baldwin, Charles W. Huguely and Charles F. Blackner were the supervisors of election.

A Vagrant sent Down.

Officer Dean had Alice Adams before Judge Miller this morning, charged with being a vagrant. Alice made a vigorous plea for liberty, but Judge Miller concluded that she was not entitled to any sympathy. He made the fine $20 or ninety days. As the woman was unable to pay the fine, she went to the farm. Her friends will make an effort to have her released.

Rev. Mr. Mueller Resigns.

Rev. John Mueller has resigned his position as pastor of the Concordia Lutheran Church to take effect January 1. It is understood that the resignation was on account of a difference of opinion between the pastor and members relative to certain parts of the construction of the church, but Mr. Mueller says that his action was entirely voluntary.

Stole a Watch.

Yesterday afternoon a man went into the store of J. H. Bramhall, No. 807 Fifteenth street, and represented that he was a dealer in gold and silver ware. He engaged the proprietor of the store in conversation, and was allowed to look at some of the stock. Shortly afterward a valuable gold watch was found missing. Mr Bramhall can identify the man.

Caught the Thieves.

A short time ago the wife of Commodore H. W. Meade had a card case snatched containing her watch. Yesterday afternoon Officer Trammell arrested two boys, Daniel Newton and William Smith, and charged them with the theft. He also recovered the card case and watch from a store where they had been sold for a small amount.

An Expensive Chair Cushion.

A young man was yesterday interested with a ten dollar bill to get changed for E. W. Whitaker, No. 1406 Pennsylvania avenue, and he has not been seen since. The boy told Mr. Whitaker a short cookies, the price of which was fifty cents, and was given the bill out of which to take his money.

City Postoffice Building Sold.

The City Postoffice building has been sold by its late owner, Alexander H. Frames, to Messrs. John P. V. Ritter and Michael Sulz, trustees for the Central Real Estate Investment Company. The property is held by the United States under a lease from its former owner, James L. Barbour.

Inculcating Patriotic Principles.

Messrs. W. E. Kurfer, Frank C. Just and J. C. Brown, a committee of Liberty Council, No. 2, of the O. U. A. M., will present an American flag to the Blake School Building next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

PUNTS AND KICKS.

SWARTHMORE AND GEORGETOWN MEET AT FOOTBALL TOMORROW.

Who the Players Are—The Last Game of the Intercollegiate Championship Series at New Haven.

The football game at Capitol Park tomorrow afternoon between the eleven representing the Swarthmore and Georgetown colleges is attracting general attention among those who delight in the favorite autumn sport of America. Of late years football has found its way to the front as the representative sport of the country during the fall and winter months, and in this climate the season is prolonged until Christmas, the last game usually being played that day.

Owing to internal dissensions it was impossible to form a football league in this city where there are so many good teams, and to a great extent the dog in the manger policy prevailed. Happily all that is now settled and hereafter there will not be any clash among District eleven.

The same management that had charge of the games last season, and were the pioneers in giving public exhibitions of the game in this city, have the sport in charge again this year, and have arranged an admirable schedule of exhibition games extending to Christmas. All the well-known eleven will come here and an effort is being made to get Yale here after its great game on Thanksgiving day with Princeton, which will determine the championship.

To-morrow's game will be unusually interesting. Georgetown has developed one of the best, if not the best, eleven in this locality, as has been evidenced by the numerous victories it has won, while Swarthmore has always held a high rank, and this season stands foremost among the Pennsylvania football league.

In addition to the great game the management have made arrangements to receive the returns from the great intercollegiate contest between Yale and the University of Pennsylvania, which will be played to-morrow at New Haven. This will be the last of the intercollegiate games for the championship of America, except that on Thanksgiving Day, and as both teams have many admirers in this city, this enterprise will doubtless be appreciated highly.

The teams will play as follows:

Swarthmore.	Positions.	Georgetown.
S. Bond	Full back	Fleming
E. Bond	Half back	Henchey
Gwin	Half back	J. Dyer
Murray	Quarter back	Keyes
Carr	Left end	McCoy
Walker	Left tackle	E. Dyer
E. Barr	Left guard	Daly
McFlynn	Centre	O'Donnell
C. Barr	Right guard	Smith
Temple	Right tackle	Sullivan
Coles	Right end	Cleary

GEORGETOWN'S EASY VICTORY.

The Georgetown College team went to Alexandria yesterday to play the Episcopal High school eleven, as a sort of preliminary practice to its game at Capitol Park to-morrow afternoon with Swarthmore. It was the easiest kind of a game for the college boys' hard-playing eleven, for they traveled over the field to the extent of forty-four points in forty minutes, and scoring just about as they pleased. Two twenty-minute halves were played. Georgetown led off with a twenty-yard run by Fleming, and on the sixth down Murphy made a touchdown from which Keyes kicked a goal.

During this half the Georgetown boys kept their opponents continually rushed, and at the end had 22 to their credit, while their opponents had a big goose egg. The second half was almost a repetition of the first, Sullivan picking up the ball on a fumble by the Alexandrians and made ten yards. Then Keys got the ball and making a run of twenty-five yards scored a touch-down. Again and again the centre was rushed by Georgetown and an invariable gain of five yards resulted. The score in this half was the same as in the first, making the total 44 to 0. The players were as follows:

Georgetown.	Positions.	E. H. S.
Cleary	Right end	Ingle
Smith	Right tackle	Hepburn
O'Neff	Right guard	Machen
O'Donnell	Center push	Kell
Daly	Left guard	Smith
Denver	Left tackle	R. Meredith
Sullivan	Left end	Rose
Henchey	Quarter back	G Greenway
Murphy	Right half back	Masey
Keyes	Left half back	J. Meredith
Fleming	Full back	Thomas

Referee—Arthur. Umpire—C. Tobin.

The touch-downs were made as follows: Fleming, 2; Murphy, 2; Henchey, 2, and Keyes, 2.

Assaulted a Woman.

John Johnson was this morning charged with an assault upon Sarah Jackson, and Judge Miller fined him $20. In imposing the fine Judge Miller said that there was no justification for a man to assault a woman in the manner in which he had done. Johnson paid the fine.

Liquor Case Continued.

William H. Zeh was arraigned to day charged by Officer Williams of keeping an unlicensed bar. There were a number of witnesses ready to testify, but the case was set over until November 24, the date on which all the liquor cases will be called up.

Unfurling of an American Flag.

A large flag, bought by contributions from teachers, pupils and janitors, was unfurled yesterday over the Joshua R. Giddings' building, G street near Third southeast.

At the To-Kalon Wine Company's,

614 Fourteenth street northwest, you will find the best California wines in port, sherry, catawba, muscat, California brandy and port. Call and be convinced.

All ice cold days do not come in winter.

Children always Enjoy It.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

of pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda is almost as palatable as milk. Children enjoy it rather than otherwise. A MARVELLOUS FLESH PRODUCER it is indeed, and the little lads and lassies who take cold easily, may be fortified against a cough that might prove serious, by taking Scott's Emulsion after their meals during the winter season.

Beware of substitutions and imitations.

TROUBLE IN THE CHURCH.

The Congregation of Shiloh Trying to Find a Pastor.

Shiloh Baptist Church is in a ferment over the selection of a pastor to succeed the late Rev. W. J. Walker. It was thought that the Rev. William Scott, who has acted as pastor, would be elected to fill the position permanently, but several of the deacons—the Revs. W. H. Scott, W. A. Credit and W. H. Phillips—entered as candidates. Some time ago at a meeting in the church it was suggested that Mr. Scott's name be dropped from the list of candidates. A vote was taken, which resulted in the retention of Mr. Scott's name upon the list.

Within the last month a number of lively meetings have been held by the congregation in which the candidates have been thoroughly discussed. At a meeting held on October 26 the members became very much excited over the question, and almost ended in a fight between a female member and Mr. Scott's sympathizers.

The election of the pastor will take place on next Monday, when it is predicted that Rev. J. A. Taylor will be peacably elected.

Knights of Pythias at a Fair.

The fair of the Marion Rifles at the Washington Light Infantry's Armory was enlivened last night by a visit from Washington Division, No. 1, Knights of Pythias, in command of Captain Harry Coggins, as also Columbia and Nelson Divisions, commanded respectively by Captains Smith and Fugit. They were escorted to the hall by the Rifles. The members of the Grand Lodge present were: Past Grand Chancellor William Brackhagen, Grand Vice Chancellor W. T. Mockbee, Past Grand Chancellor John W. Thompson and Supreme Outer Guard, Grand Prelate Henry Yenney, Grand Keeper of Records and Seals A. N. Medford, Grand Master-at-Arms Harry Coggins, Grand Representative Colonel G. J. L. Foxwell and Past Grand Chancellor John M. Kline. The drilling by the Knights was highly appreciated by the large number of persons at the fair.

Woman's Suffrage Meeting.

The Woman's Suffrage Association held their annual meeting last night at the Rigg's House and elected the following officers: President, Susan A. Edison, M. D.; vice president, Mrs. Mary E. McPherson; secretary, Mrs. Miller; treasurer, Miss E. J. Woodard; executive committee, Mrs. Jane H. Spofford, Mrs. Lucy S. Doolittle and Dr. Caroline B. Winslow. An invitation from the National American Woman's Suffrage Association was extended to the District Association to occupy their parlors at Wimodaughsis headquarters for future meetings. The Association accepted an invitation extended by Miss Desha to meet at the Wimodaughsis parlors on Tuesday evening next to meet Rev. Amie H. Shaw.

Fled from His Dupes.

William R. Wallace, a billiard and pool player, who came to Washington in October last, has skipped out, and there are a number of inquiries for him. For some time he has had charge of the Imperial Hotel billiard room, but on Saturday last he suddenly disappeared and took with him a good wardrobe and some articles of jewelry that had been obtained upon credit. It appears that while in his capacity as billiard room keeper at the hotel Wallace passed himself off as the proprietor of the house. It was ascertained that he had a bad record and he knew he would be discharged the day he left town.

Carroll Institute Entertainment.

At the regular weekly meeting last night of members of the Carroll Institute the following programme was given: Piano solo, Mr. George J. Becker; a narrative, "A Trip to Kansas," Mr. G. L. Johnson; an original poem, "Slavery, Freedom, Unity," Mr. J. B. Crowe; cornet solos, Mr. W. H. Lepley, accompanied by Mr. L. E. Gannon; narrative, "A Trip to Pike's Peak," Mr. Ed. J. Hannan; song, Mr. L. E. Gannon; piano solo, Mr. George J. Becker; reading, Mr. N. F. Taylor; cornet solo, Mr. W. H. Lepley.

Changes in Minor Places.

William S. Matthews has been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of M. L. Higgins in the District office, who has been assisting in the preparation of taxes in arrears. W. T. Myers was appointed to Mr. Matthews' place in the executive office.
