W. B. Hoeneck & Co.,

Rudden's New Fall Goods.

John Rudden, the pioneer installment man, centrally located at 434 and 436 Seventh street northwest, has just returned from the eastern markets with an immense supply of all kinds of housekeeping goods, carpets, stoves, rugs, etc. You can furnish your house from cellar to garret, at this store, with cash prices, on the installment plan.

Accident to a Newsboy.

Dan Hayes, one of the oldest and best-known newspaper carriers of Washington, met with another accident last night, which will confine him to the hospital for some time. About the middle of September he was run over by a street car and seriously injured. He was cared for at the Freedman's Hospital, but managed to get out on crutches the day before election, and since that time has been selling papers upon the street. Last night one of his crutches slipped and he fell to the pavement and broke his thigh bone. There is much sympathy for him, as he has been a newsboy about the streets of Washington for nearly twenty-five years. He will be well cared for at the Freedman's Hospital.

Yale Alumni Association.

At the annual meeting of the Yale Alumni Association last evening it was decided to hold the annual banquet during the month of January. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Senator E. O. Wolcott; first vice president, Justice David J. Brewer; second vice president, William A. Meloy; secretary and treasurer, J. P. Iddings; executive committee, William C. Whittemore, Alexander D. Anderson, H. W. Raymond, James Q. Rice and H. K. Willard; historian, L. Edwards Clarke.

Stock Exchange Officers.

The Washington Stock Exchange held its annual meeting yesterday and elected the following officers: President, C. C. Glover, fifth term; vice-president, John W. Corson, fourth term; secretary, Frank H. Pelouze; treasurer, A. K. Parris, seventh term, and for members of the governing committee, L. J. Davis, Charles J. Bell, William B. Gurley, John W. Macarteny, B. P. Snyder and James A. Bates.

Temperance Meeting To-Night.

The Father Mathew Temperance Society will hold a public temperance meeting this evening at Carroll Institute Hall. The principal speaker will be Dr. Garrigan, vice-rector of the Catholic University, and short addresses will be delivered by Rev. Father McGee and Milton E. Smith, editor of the Church News. An excellent musical programme has also been arranged for the meeting.

Suing for Damages.

Adolph Rowland and his wife, Annie M. Rowland, have brought suit against Dr. William A. Hammond for $20,000 damages. The plaintiffs charge that Dr. Hammond had Mrs Rowland arrested for embezzling $60 from him on July 30, 1889. She alleges that he was prompted by ill feeling against her to make the charge which was false, and of which she was acquitted.

Had to Pay for Their Fight.

Charles Williams, Thomas Coakley and David McNenamin were charged with affray before Judge Miller this morning. It was shown that Coakley acted as a peacemaker between the belligerents and the charge against him was dismissed. The others were fined $5 each.

Sent Down for Vagrancy.

Twenty dollars or sixty days was the judgment given by Judge Miller in each of several vagrancy cases to-day, and Charles Dave, David Jones, James Dobson, Joseph Wilkiner, Benjamin Miller and Thomas Ryan were all given a chance to go to the farm until after New Year's.

Fell from a Car Platform.

Edward Murphy fell from the platform of a Washington and Georgetown car last night, between Twenty first and Twenty second streets, and sustained serious injuries. He was taken to Duckett's drug store and attended by Dr. Rich, and afterward taken to his home in Georgetown.

Riflemen Rewarded.

The "Ordway Trophy" was presented last night to the rifle team of the District National Guard, at the second Regiment Armory in the presence of a large number of people. Brigadier General Ordway made the presentation speech and Major Richard O Belen received the trophy on behalf of the rifle team.

Disorderly With a Gun.

Edward Ware had two charges filed against him in the Police Court to-day, one of carrying concealed weapons and the other of disorderly conduct. There was conclusive evidence as to both charges and Judge Miller made the fine $20 for carrying a revolver and $5 for disorderly conduct.

Sergeant Duvall's Case.

The case of ex-Police Sergeant Duvall was yesterday presented to the President by a committee of the G. A. R. Commander Douglass said that the President was not likely to interfere, as Duvall had been dismissed on charges which had been fully established.

His Collateral Forfeited.

Last March Theodore Randolph was arrested for the theft of a pigeon valued at 25 cents from the Smithsonian Institute. The case was called up at the New Jersey avenue station this morning, but as the defendant did not appear the collateral was forfeited.

Death of an Old Resident.

Mr. John J. Kelley, formerly a well-known contractor of this city, died early this morning at his home, 909 Thirteenth street northwest. He was in his 80th year, and has been a resident of Washington for over thirty years.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. 25c. a bottle.

Masonic Visit.

The officers of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the District made their annual visitation last night to Columbia Royal Arch Chapter No. 1. Dr. Leach delivered an address, after which a musical programme was much enjoyed.

MANY MARRIAGES.

Loving Couples Who Will Travel Life's Highway Together.

Miss Florence Kalbfus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kalbfus and Mr. John B. Torbert were married last evening at St. Mark's Church, the pastor, Rev. A. Floridus Steele, officiating. The ushers were Messrs. Crenshaw, Torbert and Duncanson. Miss Bessie Barnett of Philadelphia was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Misses Nannie Torbert and May Howard. Master Harry Clapp and Miss Josie Foertsch were the pages. Mr. W. D. Porter, jr., was the groom's best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 222½ A street northeast. Mr. and Mrs. Torbert left at 10 o'clock on their bridal tour. Upon their return they will reside at 46 D street northeast. The happy couple were the recipients of numerous presents.

Last Tuesday evening at Dumbarton Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Miss Louise Blackford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Blackford, No. 3125 M street, West Washington, was married to Mr. James Somerville. The pastor, the Rev. M. F. B. Rice, officiated, and there was a large attendance of the friends of the happy couple at the church. Messrs Wallan Fisher, James Lee, Alexander W. Ward and C. M. Clark were the ushers. Mr. William Hauptman was the groom's best man, and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Addie Blackford. The bride's Sunday school class were present. Mr. and Mrs. Somerville on returning from their honeymoon trip will reside at 3422 N street.

Miss Nanny McCormick and Mr. Philip B. Sheriff of Benning's were married last Tuesday at All Saints' Chapel by the rector, Rev. Edward Wall. They will pass their honeymoon in Boston.

Mr. William K. Hill and Miss Clara L. Banon, the latter of 806 K street, were married Tuesday evening last at the Foundry Church by Rev. Reese Murray of the Central Church, assisted by Rev. Dr. George Elliott. Mr. and Mrs. Hill, upon their return from their wedding tour, will reside at 715 M street. The gift of the parents of the groom was a dwelling house.

Entertaining Concert.

The Washington Musical Club gave their first concert at the Universalist Church last evening. The numbers of the programme were well selected and were rendered in thoroughly enjoyable and delightful manner. The performance of Beethoven's "Kreutzer Sonata," played by Messrs. Xander, piano, and Rakeman, violin, was the event of the evening. Mr. Rakeman executed the difficult composition with ease and received the frequent applause of the audience. Mr. Xander ably supported Mr. Rakeman at the piano, and also won considerable attention by several piano solos. The aria from "Sampson and Delilah" was sung by Mrs. Julia E. Wyman, assisted by Mr. Miersch on the 'cello.

Associated Charities Meeting.

The Sixth Subdivision of Associated Charities, at their annual meeting last night at the Worth Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. Ramsdell, presiding, elected the following directors for the ensuing year: Dr. J. O. Adams, Rev. J. H. Bradford, J. Richards, Mr. Dodge, William H. Gunnison, James F. Hood, Mrs. Mary E. Hood, Miss Gertrude Jones, Mrs. L. C. Leonard, Mr. W. L. Perry, Rev. C. B. Ramsdell, Mrs. A. M. Purvis, Mrs. W. A. Snell, Mrs. E. Hyer, Miss Jennie Taylor and Judge Willoughby. Resolutions expressive of the high appreciation of the society of the services of the late Judge Snell, who, at the time of his death, filled the office of president, were adopted.

Dominica and His Girl.

Last evening Officer Pierson found Dominica Fandetta playing a piano organ on the Avenue. He had with him a 9-year-old girl who was flourishing the tambourine and collecting the pennies. When approached by the officer Fandetta stated that his license was $3 with a child accompaniment or $2 without. Mr. Pierson was not deceived by the story and put the Italian under arrest. In court this morning Judge Miller fined Dominica $5 and told him he could not have the girl play the tambourine any longer.

Will Have a Fine Gymnasium.

Officers at the Sixth Precinct station are taking steps to have their new gymnasium fitted up with the proper apparatus. Committees have been appointed to arrange for a ball, to be given a week or ten days before Christmas, the proceeds to be devoted to providing a billiard table, clubs, dumbbells, rowing machines, etc. The room in the new third story of the station is commodious, well lighted and especially adapted for a gymnasium. The officers propose to have the finest gymnasium in the department.

Only a Legal Difference.

Charles Dean, a young colored boy, was charged to-day with the larceny of money. He was in the employ of James Medley, and engaged on the street in the sale of produce. He appropriated a portion of the day's sales to his own use, and could not square up his accounts when he came home in the evening. Judge Miller concluded that it was embezzlement and not larceny, and dismissed the case.

The Deal Will be Glad He is Coming.

Mr. H. A. Wales of Bridgeport, Conn., whose invention for the relief of deafness has attracted such widespread attention in this country and Europe, will be at the National Hotel Saturday of this week.

Stole a Watch.

Georgie Fitzhugh complained the other day that she had lost a valuable gold watch and yesterday Officers Lyde and Williams arrested Frederick Boston, Charles Barnes and William Black. They were all convicted to-day in the Police Court on their own evidence and the former was given six months' imprisonment and the two latter three months each.

Ice per gallon, 8c; per quart, 50c; a pint.

A Costly Purchase.

George Strange purchased a new revolver yesterday, and Judge Miller said it is morning that he evidently intended to kill his wife. He was committed himself in a peculiar manner in an Avenue street car last night, and Officer Amass arrested him at the corner of Thirteenth street. The fine was $50 or ninety days.

Liver disease, biliousness, dyspepsia, or indigestion, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, or money paid for it returned.

Failed to Profit by Her Experience.

Only a few days ago Nancy Dancy, a colored woman, was released from the jail. Yesterday she was arrested, accused of the larceny of a gold watch from O. C. Leggil of 1206 L street northwest, and a charge of grand larceny has been entered against her.

EXCUSED FOR BEING HUNGRY.

How an Impecunious But Polite Old Man Paid for His Supper.

It is not often that politeness is used as legal tender and a means of defense at the same time, but it can be worked successfully in the hands of the proper persons, says the Tacoma Ledger.

Last night a weak, miserable looking old man with straggling gray hair, gaunt-eyed and hungry, wandered into the little restaurant at the corner of C and Eleventh streets, kept by "Billy" Robertson. The old man sat down at a table and swallowed four big bowls of strong soup in rapid succession and then tackled a robust layout of corned beef and cabbage, after which he topped off the load with a cut of pumpkin pie. When he had finished the waiter laid a check beside his plate. Taking his check the old fellow approached the counter and whispered to the proprietor:

"Say, will you excuse me?"

"Excuse you for what?"

"I haven't any money."

Billy put on a fierce front and made a movement as if to throw the pollite old man into the street.

"Please don't hit me," he exclaimed, in alarm. "I just got out of a hospital where I didn't get enough to eat, and I've been sick, too. I haven't any money to pay with, and I do hope you will excuse me."

The restaurant man could only comply with this modest request, and the polite old man was then and there excused.

WINTER WISDOM.

[Exchange.]

Don't be afraid of fresh air, but avoid draughts.

Don't go out of doors for a record without extra covering.

In selecting your winter underclothing, choose that which is warm and yet more or less open in texture.

Take off your overcoat when you enter a warm place, whether office or private dwelling, even if your visit is to last only three minutes.

If you catch cold or develop a cough, get rid of it at once. This is better than feeling "blue" and thinking that pneumonia or consumption has marked you as a victim.

The best remedy for a cough or cold (however stubborn), or a sudden chill is pure whiskey. A dose of whiskey in water will impart a generous warmth to the whole body and keep off the diseases of the season.

Don't forget that only pure whiskey should be taken. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has the strongest recommendations from the calling doctors as to its efficiency, and from the most prominent scientists as to its purity. It is the only standard medicinal whiskey. Take no other from your druggist.

Why He Was Proud.

From the Texas Siftings.

Two negro vagabonds, who have been up before the Justice innumerable times, happened to meet in the corridor of the Court House. One of them held up his nose high in the air, and put on a great deal of style. The other was in custody of a policeman. The prisoner said to his friend:

"What's de matter wid you, niggah? Has you won de big prize in de lottery dat yer hold yer head so high?"

"I doesn't want ter be familiar wid de criminal element. I don't know yer, sah."

"Well, den, what does yer blow yer self out so much for? We has been in jail for weeks and weeks togedder. We has stole chickens togedder more dan forty times."

"I wants yer ter understand dat for once I doesn't come inter this Court. He use in de capacity of a malefactor. On dis hear proud occasion I am here in de capacity ob a witness, an' I wants ter be respected accordin'."

Try Berkeley.

Artists Counted the Indians.

It was a picturesque idea of our Government officials to send artists out to the Western wilds to take the Indian census, says "The Lounger" of the Critic. "I don't know just who originated and carried out the plan, but I have heard that it was Mr. Tom Donaldson of Philadelphia. It was probably to show the artists that he bore them no ill will that he gave them this little treat at the Government's expense. Those chosen for the pleasant task were Walter Shirlaw, Peter Moran, H. R. Poore and Gilbert Gaul. There may have been others, but these are the names I have heard mentioned most prominently in the matter. I have no doubt but that the artists made a better count of the Indians in their wilds than has been made of the population of New York; at the same time they filled their sketch books with valuable sketches, and they saw sights that no census taker in the metropolis ever dreamed of."

Berkeley is pure.

Reckless Extravagance.

From the Detroit Free Press.

A Halifax man recently sold his family for $40 and the purchaser is accused of ill treating them. Any one who will abuse a $40 family is as reckless of expense as of propriety.

Berkeley pure rye whisky.

Women Lasso a Vicious Deer.

From the Fort Worth Gazette.

Farmer R. G. Lanham, who lives near Fletman, was badly gored the other day by a large buck deer from Batsell Park. Lanham's wife and daughter came to the rescue, lariated the animal and tied it up to a tree. This is the second man this pet has nearly killed with his immense antlers.

Tharp, 818 F street northwest.

Rough on the Dog.

From Harper's Bazar.

"I say, Mr. Hodge, your dog bit me in the leg last Monday."

"That! That ackounts for it. I knowed that thar dog didn't git sick on nothink."
