Late Sheriff's Sale of Real and PERSONAL PROPERTY.

BY virtue of one writ of Venditioni Exponas, issued out of the Circuit Court for St. Mary's county, at the suit of Charles Dent and Martha R. Garner, administrators d. b. n. of Edward Tubman, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of Thomas Wilkinson, and to me directed, I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title, interest, claim and demand, at law and in equity, of the said Thomas Wilkinson, in and to the following property, to wit:

One tract or parcel of land called "BACHELOR'S COMFORT" and OTHER LANDS, containing in all 216 acres, more or less. These lands are situated on or near the dividing line which separates the 6th from the 3rd election districts.

Also two BAY MARES and one COLT.

And I hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 11th of February, 1869, on the premises of the said Thomas Wilkinson, between the hours of 10 o'clock, a. m. and 4 o'clock, p. m., I will expose to public auction the above described property, so seized and taken in execution, to the highest bidder for cash—to satisfy said debt, interest and costs due and to become due thereon.

HARPER'S
New Monthly Magazine,

Critical Notices of the Press.

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American People, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the very monthly and the most philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Bentley's Gazette of American Literature, London.

We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

Mar 14, 1867.

A FEAST FOR THE READING WORLD.

THE LARGEST, THE CHEAPEST, AND THE BEST.

THE NEW YORK MERCURY FOR 1869.

The Thirty-first volume of this popular weekly will commence with the New Year, and the proprietors propose to make it the most brilliant, varied and entertaining budget of current literature that has ever been submitted to the American public in the form of a Family Newspaper.—Better original stories than are to be found in any of the magazines will grace its columns; and, already in advance of all cotemporaries of its class in size and amount of reading matter, it is intended that it shall eclipse them all in every department of literature included in the programe of a first-rate Household Journal.

The leading feature of the new volume will be a powerful story by author of "Oscar Bertrand," "Nobody's Daughter," "The Outcasts," "Three Times Dead," etc., etc., and one of the most popular novelists of the day, entitled,

MISS M. E. BRADDON,

THE FACTORY GIRL;
or
The Blossom and the Blight,

—the scenes of which are infinitely more graphic and striking than those embodied in any of the sensational street-dramas which now hold possession of the stage.

The "Factory Girl" will be almost immediately followed by a new story of surpassing interest, from the pen of J H Smith, Esq., author of "Minnigrey," "Stanfield Hall," "Milly Moyne," etc., written for the New York Mercury.

All the existing specialities of the New York Mercury will be retained, and new departments added from time to time during the progress of the year. It is due to a public that long ago adopted this time-honored weekly as its favorite sheet, to keep it at the head of its class by a liberal outlay for the very best literary matter (suitable for such a paper) procurable on either side of the Atlantic. This will be done. Romances, Novelettes, Satirical Sketches, Humorous Poems, Fancy Tales, articles on American Sports and Pastimes, and a weekly digest of all that is interesting in Theatrical and other popular Amusements and Recreations, will figure in the contents of the New York Mercury for the coming year. Through the department appropriated to the youthful authoresses of America, hundreds of lady-writers, now famous, first made the acquaintance of the public.

This channel of communication between young ladies of talent and genius and the reading world will continue open to the former; and such of their productions as are calculated to do them credit and give them prestige will be published with such critical comments as they seem to call for.

The object of the Proprietors of The New York Mercury is to render it the best family-newspaper in the United States; and if paying the highest premium for the best literary talent will secure that result, it will certainly be attained.

The New York Mercury, with its fifty-six columns of sterling, original matter, will continue to be issued at Eight Cents a copy, and sold by all Newsmen and Periodical Dealers in America.

To Mail Subscribers our terms for 1869 will be:

Cash in advance:—Single copies, $2 50 a year; three copies, $7; six copies, $13; nine copies, $20. The party who sends us $20 for a club of nine copies will receive an additional copy, free.—Six month's subscription received.

Write plainly the name of Post Office, County and State. Specimen copies sent free to all applicants. Address

White Men must rule America!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE

FOR THE

BEST NEW YORK WEEKLY PUBLISHED.

NEW YORK DAY BOOK
FOR 1869:

Devoted to White Supremacy, State Equality, and Federal Union.

THE PAPER OF THE PEOPLE.

A Political Newspaper—A Family Literary Paper, and an Agricultural Paper

NOW IS THE TIME TO FORM CLUBS.

The NEW YORK DAY-BOOK is an earnest, out-spoken and independent paper, devoted to the equality, fraternity and prosperity of the Democratic masses, and the defence of the grand American system of Federated States, on a White basis, established by Washington and the fathers of American liberty. It holds that this glorious American system of self-governing States and homogeneous citizenship, which, in seventy years of peace and prosperity, never shed one drop of American blood or convicted a single citizen of disloyalty, or directly taxed the people one dollar for its support, and might be safely extended over the whole "boundless continent," was the best government on earth, and must be restored "as it was" made by Washington, or the whole land must needs collapse into chaos, anarchy and ruin.

The Day-Book, therefore, demands the restoration of the White Republic, and as this must be and will be accomplished, either through their reason, or the blood and suffering of the people, it earnestly labors for the former, and by boldly grappling with the errors, lunacies and crimes of Mongrelism, it strives its utmost to save the country from the awful necessities of the latter.

The Day Book will, however, hereafter be more than ever devoted to all the varied purposes of a news paper.—Conscious that it reaches thousands of families who take no other journal, beyond, perhaps, their local paper, it will continue and improve its "News of the Week" Summary, so as to present a transcript of the World's events in each issue. Its "Family Department" will embrace the best original and selected stories. Its "Agricultural Department" will be fully sustained, and being the only paper of its class made up expressly for Country circulation, it is confident that it is worth double the price of a weekly hurriedly reprinted from a daily. It gives full and complete reports of the New York and Albany Cattle Markets, Grain, Provision and Cotton Markets, and a Weekly Review of Financial Matters, by Telegraph, from New Orleans, Chicago, Charleston, Philadelphia, &c., &c., up to time of going to press.
