Do You Want Gold.

Cripple Creek is not a health resort. It is a wealth resort. Quite a difference. Location, near Pike's Peak, in Colorado. Gold, bright, yellow gold, is found at grass roots and in the rock formation.

Reliable experts claim this is today the richest camp in Colorado. Assays average $100 per ton, and have run as high as $5,000. One hundred people a day are now rushing to Fremont, chief town of the district.

The chance of a lifetime, is worth looking after.

You can get there quickly and comfortably by taking the Santa Fe route. Only line with no change of cars from Chicago, Kansas City and other principal cities to Florissant, nearest railroad station, with daily stage to Fremont.

Inquire of local ticket agent, Santa Fe route, about rates and service. 83 tf

It's Coming Sure.

The Cheyenne and Arrapahoe country will open in April, and now is the time to get posted, and in order to do so send at once for a colored quarter sectional map, with land laws and guide combined, to the Southwestern Map Publishing Company, 114 North Main street, Wichita, Kansas. Price only 25 cents. Agents wanted immediately. 101-tf

A NEW FANGLED DANCE.

Loie Fuller Originated It, but Another Woman Copied It.

New York has a new dance and it has taken the town by storm. Loie Fuller, who has recently been involved in the airing in court of some very dirty domestic linen, was the originator of it, but she demanded more salary when she found what a hit she had made and was discharged. Then the management of the Casino hired another woman to copy Miss Fuller's clever work and the dance went on after Miss Fuller had gone off.

THE SERPENTINE FIGURE AND BUTTERFLY FINALE.

The dance is founded on that of the Nautch girls who appeared at the Paris exposition. It involves the use of a voluminous skirt of mysterious construction and airy fabric, which the dancer swirls about her as she whirls through her steps in a way that is bewildering. At one time it twists around her like a gauzy white serpent; at others it rises above her as sails over a ship, and at the end of still another figure it extends from her shoulder blades like the wings of a butterfly.

The skirt which Miss Fuller used in the dance was procured for her especially in India, and was much more effective than the one used by her imitator.

A State Occasion in India.

In India when a native chief goes out he is accompanied by a sowari—literally a "riding" of ministers, servants, guards and attendants of all sorts. Formerly all rode, but with good roads good carriages have been introduced, and usually in these days only the horsemen of the guard ride. But on state occasions, led horses, richly caparisoned, always form part of the show, and there are many animals in princely stables kept solely for processional purposes.

The animals most liked are the stallions of Marwar or Kathiawar. White horses with pink points, piebalds and leopard spotted beasts are much admired, especially when they have pink Roman noses and light colored eyes, with an uncanny expression. Their crippled, highly arched necks, curby hocks, rocking gait and paralytic prancing often proclaim them as triumphs of training.
