A New Motive Power.

The stockholders of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company have decided to substitute electricity for horse power as a motive power, and have authorized the directors to raise a sum not exceeding $500,000 to put the new system into operation. The company have decided to adopt the storage battery system as the new motive power, having reached this conclusion only after having carefully tested the system and found it eminently satisfactory. The work will be begun as soon as possible and will be pushed as rapidly as possible. The directors, under whose control the work will be, are: Messrs George W. Pearson, president; A. A. Wilson, vice-president, and Dr. Daniel B. Clark, John Cammack, A. A. Thomas, Robert Beall and Robert D. Weaver.

Will Not Need the Overcoat Now.

A lady went into Simon Buckner's store, No. 705 Four and a half street, yesterday afternoon, and told the proprietor that a colored man had stolen an overcoat from in front of the store. Buckner gave the man chase and overtook him at the corner of Maryland avenue and Four and a half street, where he turned him over to Officer Snowden. He had the stolen property on his arm. At the station James Townsell was the name that he gave, and in the Police Court to-day Judge Miller fined him $20.

SUFFERING OYSTER DREDGERS.

A Young Man Tells a Horrible Story of His Cruel Treatment.

Henry Wallace, a young man, who tells a very thrilling story of his experience on an oyster boat on the lower Potomac, is receiving treatment at the Emergency Hospital. A short time ago he came from St. Louis to Baltimore, and, being out of work, accepted a place on an oyster boat offered him by a man named Captain Bothall. No sooner had he started out from Baltimore than the captain began to abuse and beat him because he could not work as actively as others of the crew who were experienced sailors. The first night on the bay Martin says he was knocked down and kicked until he fainted.

Upon reaching the oyster beds he was set to work culling oysters. His hands became so lacerated that he told the captain that it was impossible for him to do the work any longer, whereupon he was ordered strapped to the mast and given twenty lashes by a brutal negro who belonged to the crew. On the following morning he was placed on shore in an almost dying condition. He succeeded in reaching one of the steamboat landings and came to this city on the Wakefield. As soon as he is able he proposes going to Baltimore and prosecuting Captain Bothall.

Y., the new pastor of the Universalist Church of Our Father, received a cordial welcome last night from the members of the congregation and friends of the church. The address of welcome was made by Mr. T. E. G. Pettingill, chairman of the board of trustees, followed by the Rev. Alexander Kent, the retiring pastor. Among the most prominent are Mrs. Walker, who is the leading soprano in Boston, Miss Gertrude Edmonds, Mr. Herbert Johnson, the first tenor of the celebrated Bingles Street Male Quartette, and Mr. Ivan Morowski, who is possessed of a deep bass voice of great flexibility.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites Of Lime and Soda.

There are emulsions and emulsions, and there is still much abominable stuff which manufacturers do persist in foisting upon the medical profession under the name of Cod Liver Oil. It is probably impossible to make the best Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil palatable to almost all patients, but this remains no doubt as far in front of the abominable preparations of the druggists as a Hippodrome Lorgnette glass would be in advance of

IN HONOR OF INVENTORS.

Preparations for the Approaching Centenary of the Patent System.

A meeting of the committee of seven appointed to confer with the Commissioner of Patents, Senators Platt and Teller, Representative Butterworth and a number of other prominent gentlemen interested in the coming patent centennial celebration, was held at the Board of Trade rooms. Colonel J. M. Babson, chief of the Issue Division of the Patent Office, presided. The meeting was a very enthusiastic one. The central committee was increased from seven to seventeen, and an executive committee of five was selected to attend to the details of the celebration.

Hon. C. F. Mitchell, Commissioner of Patents, made an eloquent address in favor of the proposed celebration. Professor Gorde of the Smithonian warmly indorsed the object of the meeting and said that the literature which could be secured from papers prepared by inventors and manufacturers would be a lasting monument to the inventive genius of our land. Enthusiastic speeches favoring the project were also delivered by Colonel Niven of Philadelphia, Mr. B. H. Warner, George C. Maynard of the Electrical Review and Mr. M. C. Stone.

A Christian Church.

A chapel is to be built at the corner of Ninth and D streets northeast for the accommodation of the Capitol Hill mission of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, and the work has already been begun. The building is to be of pressed brick, with stone trimmings, and will cost about $6,000. The committee in charge of the work consists of N. J. Hillman, C. Leslie Reynolds, J. L. Atkins, E. W. Knowles and Mrs. E. L. Bugbee.

The tendency now is to make presents that are useful and will be of some service to the recipient. A suit of clothes or an overcoat is just the thing, and the place to buy it is of R. Robinson & Co., the American outfitters, 909 Pennsylvania avenue northwest.

ONE OF LACE CURTAINS,

ONE OF KID GLOVES,

ONE OF CHINA SILKS

Fifteen dozen 8-button length swede Mousquetaires, the following sizes: 5½, 6, 6½, 6¾, 6¾, 7, 7½, 7½. This is the same glove that we sold over 900 dozen of at 1.50. They are really worth 1.50 per pair, but the 6½ size on one are gone, and we cannot get any more to fill in. The balance are to be sold at

The great demand for that china at twenty five cents induced us to get as many high colors as we could and place them with our lace on hand and sell them at the above price. If you are making up fancy work and want to use an all silk material, this will be your last and only chance to get these goods, for we will never be able to get them again.

Thirty pairs of Nottingham Lace Curtains. The reason we only offer 30 pairs is that we find these goods displeased in our windows, and the sunlight faded them out of their original folds, otherwise they are perfect. You can have the benefit of our loss to the tune of 25 per cent. less than marked price.

Lot 1565—2 pairs of Nottingham Curtains, at 50c., sold for $1.25.

Lot 500—8 pairs of Nottingham Curtains, at 65c., sold for 90c.
