Constable's Sale of REAL ESTATE.

BY virtue of one writ of Fieri Facias, issued to me by D. C. Hammett, a Justice of the Peace in and for St. Mary's county, Maryland, at the suit of A. Jack. Spalding, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of Aloysius Joseph and John Dillahay, I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title, interest and estate at law and in equity of the said Aloysius Joseph and John Dillahay in and to the following real estate, to wit:

One tract or parcel of land, located in the 3rd election district of St. Mary's county, called and known by the name of or by whatsoever name the same may be called or known, and containing

57 acres,

more or less.

The above land is assessed to Teresa Joseph and it is the life interest of Aloysius Joseph which will be offered for sale.

And I hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 4th day of March, 1873, at the Court House door, Leonardtown, between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock, p. m., I will expose to public auction the above described real estate, so seized and taken in execution to the highest bidder for cash—to satisfy said debt, interest and costs due and to become due thereon.

1873.—THE AGE.—1873.

A LEADING DAILY AND WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

The Firm Advocate of Democratic Principles, Its Reputation and Energy Spread to Every Nook & the Wide Limits of Journalism.

For the past ten years The Age has been the firm and earnest defender of the great principles enunciated by the founders of the Republic and incorporated in its institutions. Seeking no alliance with cliques or "Rings," it has been subject to no corrupt influence, but has always labored without fear or favor for the general good. It has, therefore, been the persistent and vigilant advocate of all reforms, general as well as sectional.

Receiving no aid from official patronage, The Age relies on the subscription and support of Democrats, and of fair and intelligent citizens who desire to see men and measures freely canvassed, knowing that free and fearless discussion by the press is now the best defence of all private rights and public interests.

In the varying fortunes of parties, the intelligent and patriotic will rally to sustain free, pure, civil government, for the people and by the people, to oppose corruption and usurpation, and to preserve and purify the American institutions that made our country the "Model Republic" of the world. Its administration, in the spirit in which it was formed, can only be conducted on what we claim as true Democratic principles, for which The Age will still continue with an abiding faith in their ultimate triumph.

THE DAILY AGE CONTAINS:

1 The latest intelligence from all parts of the world.
2 Articles on Government, Trade, Politics, Finance and all the current questions of the day.
3 Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence.
4 Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports and Book Notices.
5 Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music.
6 Agricultural Matters, and Discussions of all Subjects of General Interest and Importance.
7 Special Telegrams, and all the Dispatches of the Associated Press, from every part of the World.

☞ The Age is the only Democratic morning paper in Philadelphia in the English language, and is therefore of the best mediums for Advertising.

THE WEEKLY AGE

is a newspaper for those outside of the great cities who are without regular daily mail facilities, but desire to be kept informed of what is transpiring around them, combining home duties with domestic instruction and recreation.

Its columns are devoted to: Stories, original and selected by the best authors; Poetic Gems, from every available source; Choice Miscellany, Scientific, Amusing and Instructive; a column of Sunday Reading and Religious Intelligence; an conducted by a practical Agriculturist, Mr. Thomas J. Edge, now earning a living upon a rented farm in Chester county; in which all questions are considered which have an interest for the tillers of the soil; Weekly Contributions for the Children; Editorial Brevities; News Items, &c.; Able Editorials, and a carefully prepared compendium of Foreign and Domestic News; Washington, New York and Miscellaneous Correspondence; Financial and Commercial Statistics; Full Markets; Select Advertisements, to which a very limited space is appropriated, &c.

With all these advantages, the Weekly Age is acknowledged to be the best Family Journal printed in Philadelphia.

THE MOST ECONOMICAL, BEAUTIFUL AND DURABLE.

These paints are composed of PURE WHITE LEAD, ZINC and LINSEED OIL, with other materials which add greatly to the durability, elasticity, beauty and strength of the Paint. The whole are chemically combined, so that the pigments are held in permanent solution, then forming a new compound which dries upon the surface and adheres firmly to it, thus forming a smooth, glossy, firm, elastic and durable Paint.—The Oil, which is the real life of the Paint, cannot leave it and be absorbed by the substance to which it is applied, as is done in paints mixed in the ordinary way, and thus leave the pigment dead and brittle, to wash and rub off in a few months, or at farthest in three or four years. This PAINT is unaffected by changes of temperature, is perfectly impervious to the action of water, is well adapted to all classes of work, and is in every way a better Paint for either INSIDE OR OUTSIDE WORK OR BOAT PAINTING, than any other Paint known to the trade, and will last at least THREE TIMES AS LONG AS THE BEST LEAD AND OIL PAINT MIXED IN THE ORDINARY WAY.

Always Ready for use & Easily Applied. Sold by the Gallon.

ONE GALLON COVERS 20 SQUARE YARDS TWO COATS.

We especially call attention to the following testimonials of the Paint: The Catholic Mirror says:

A REVOLUTION IN HOUSE PAINTING.—The advertisement of the New Jersey Enamel Paint Company has been some time in our columns, and it may seem strange that it is only to-day we call special attention to it. Our reason for this is that we do not like to recommend a new thing unless we know it is good. We were pleased to find that the Agent, Mr C P Knight, was of our way of thinking, and wished above all, that the paint should be tested, so that the editor could give his conscientious opinion of its merits. Having had this test made in our household, we have no hesitancy in saying that the Enamel Paint comes up fully to all that is claimed for it.—In the country, especially, where it is difficult to procure the necessary ingredients for mixing paint, and skillful workmen to apply it, the Enamel Paint will prove invaluable, as it is already prepared, and can be applied by any one possessing ordinary judgment. For plain work in private dwellings, churches and school-houses it will prove very economical as well as beautiful.—One gallon of this paint will cover twenty square yards, giving two coats. Our friends may safely give it a trial without fear of disappointment.

BALTIMORE, September, 30, 1872.

C P KNIGHT, Esq—Dear Sir—I have had the Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, which I purchased from you, used inside and outside, both at my dwelling and store for two seasons. It gives me great pleasure to be able to say that it comes fully up to your recommendations in facility of use, economy, durability and beauty. Yours truly, THOS J IRVING, 160 W Balt Street.

FROM HON JOHN WETHERED.

MR C P KNIGHT:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent, "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor. Yours Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

The following letter is equally strong and valuable:

BALTIMORE, Dec 27, 1871.

C P Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir—The paint we purchased from you we will cheerfully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used, its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss, which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.
Very respectfully, ANMART & QUARTLEY, 176 W Baltimore St.,

MARYLAND LINE, BALTIMORE COUNTY, MD., Sept 24, 1872.

C P KNIGHT, Esq., Agnt. Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, Baltimore—Dear Sir:—The paint which I purchased from you has given entire satisfaction, so much so that all my neighbors intend to follow my example, and have their houses painted. It is not only durable and cheap, but it looks better after it is put on than any paint I ever saw. The Painter I have employed is delighted with it. He says that he can paint twice as fast, and at the same time do a better job, with the Enamel paint, than any other paint he ever used. I can therefore without hesitation recommend it to the public, as one of the very best articles of paint ever introduced.
Nov 7, 1872—6m. Yours, very truly, JAMES HALL.
