HARBOR NOTES

Saturday the Matson steamer Enterprise left San Francisco for Hilo.

The inter-Island steamer Claudine brought 18 cabin passengers from Kahului Saturday night. She carried a varied cargo.

Bound for a cruise around the islands of this group, the U. S. coast guard cutter Thetis left today. She will be gone 10 days.

The Tenyo Maru, sailing at 9 o'clock tonight, will take the next mail to San Francisco. Mails will close at 7:30 this evening at the postoffice.

Due off port at daybreak tomorrow is the U. S. army transport Sherman from San Francisco. She is expected to sail about noon Wednesday for Guam and Manila.

One of the largest sailing ships ever built in America, the Edward Sewall, will be converted into a steamship. She was built in 1899 at Bath, Maine, by Arthur Sewall & Company.

In the Inter-Island steamer Maui, in from Kauai Saturday night, were 9997 bags of sugar, of which 8765 were Grove Farm and 1232 Lihue. The steamer brought 22 cabin and 14 deck passengers.

At 7:30 this morning the Matson steamer Lurline returned from Kahului and Kaanapali, and tied up at Pier 10, where she is loading cargo. She will sail for San Francisco from Pier 19 at 4 tomorrow afternoon.

The Inter-Island steamer Kinau, in yesterday from Kauai, reports the following bags of sugar awaiting shipment there: Kekaha, 200; Hawaiian, 25,599; McBryde, 17,983; Koloa, 9629; Lihue, 5000; Makee, 35,000; Kilauea, 4900.

Getting an early start, the steam schooner George W. Fenwick, here yesterday for 3800 barrels of bunker oil, sailed at 3 o'clock this morning, resuming her voyage to Vladivostok with explosives, automobiles, machinery and general cargo.

Next mail from San Francisco, 516 bags, will arrive on the Wilhelmina tomorrow morning. Much of it is believed to be mail for Guam and Manila, to go forward on the U. S. army transport Sherman, due tomorrow morning from the mainland.

Bringing 34 cabin and 61 deck passengers, the Inter-Island steamer Kinau arrived yesterday morning from Kauai. Her inward freight included 6000 bags of K sugar, 4000 of VK, 200 sacks of rice, 713 of taro, 100 of molasses bran and other island produce.

Total cost of raising the Walkure, now the American steamer Republic, and delivering her into San Francisco, will not be more than $100,000. She left here Friday, having arrived from Papeete Tuesday for bunkers and repairs. At present prices, she is worth between $500,000 and $600,000.

San Francisco advices say W. R. Grace & Company and the American International Corporation will establish a steamer line between that city and Australia this summer. It will compete directly with the Oceanic, whose three liners, Sierra, Sonoma and Ventura, are now on the run, calling at this port both ways.

Two more mails for San Francisco will leave here this week after the Tenyo Maru sails tonight. The Matson steamer Lurline, sailing at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, will take a despatch, and the Hill liner Great Northern, sailing at 11 o'clock Thursday night, will have a full despatch sent by her.

TENYO'S CAPTAIN OPERATED ON SATURDAY

With her commander Capt. W. W. Greene lying critically ill in his cabin and her chief officer, Ken Ocasaki, acting as captain, the T. K. K. liner Tenyo Maru docked at Pier 7 about 8:45 this morning, from the Orient. Her sailing hour has been postponed from 9 o'clock tonight to 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Capt. Greene's illness is cervical cellulitis, an inflammation of the connective tissue of the neck, with infiltration, according to the ship's surgeon, Dr. N. P. Crooks, who said the disease has made the commander seriously ill.

Dr. E. C. Waterhouse, a well-known Honolulu physician, a passenger on board the Tenyo, performed an operation Saturday on Capt. Greene which materially improved his condition.

As soon as the liner docked this morning a consultation was held on board the ship by Dr. Waterhouse, Dr. Crooks and Dr. E. D. Kilbourne, and Capt. Greene was removed in an ambulance to Queen's Hospital, where another operation was to be performed later in the day.

Sunday, March 5, Capt. Greene was taken ill, according to Surgeon Crooks, and went to bed the same day, 24 hours after leaving Yokohama March 4. The illness started with an attack of the grippe, and the inflammation on his neck began last Monday night. He is admitted to be dangerously ill, although conscious and able to talk.

Capt. Greene had not been in command of a ship for about six months, and this was his first voyage on the Tenyo as commander. The Tenyo's former first officer, M. Jin, was recently promoted to a captaincy, and Mr. Ocasaki is first officer now. He will take the Tenyo on to San Francisco.

Capt. Greene this morning told the physicians that he hoped to improve sufficiently to sail with the ship tonight or tomorrow morning, but his condition is so serious that he will have to be left in the hospital here, Dr. Waterhouse said later in the day. Necrosis has further heightened the gravity of Capt. Greene's condition.

The well-known commander was formerly master of the Chiyo Maru, but Capt. Ernest Bent has had that vessel of late. Capt. Greene passed through here on the Shinyo in February, and relieved Capt. Togo at Yokohama.

STEAMER FARES AND RAILROAD EXPENSES SWELL FORBES' BILL

Steamer and railroad fare will be included in the expense account of Charles R. Forbes when it is sent back to the territorial auditor. These two items were lacking in the last account submitted because of a rebate expected on the unused portion of one of the tickets. Steamer fare amounted to $145, $80 over and $65 back, and the fare to Washington and back from San Francisco was $144.50. Fare for several side trips may still be added to the account.

Adding the $283.50 for railroad and steamer fares to the $1445.78 previously on the account, and with additional items for fare still to come, will bring the total expense of the Washington trip around $1800.

MANY NOTABLES COME ON BIG HILL LINER

Bringing 335 passengers from San Francisco, Los Angeles and Hilo, the Hill liner Great Northern, Capt. A. Ahman, docked at Pier 6 at 10 o'clock this morning, on time to the minute, as usual. She will make only one more call here, and April 4 will bid goodby to Honolulu until next winter.

Of the big liner's 335 passengers, 250 came from the mainland, and the remaining 85 from Hilo. The passengers from San Francisco and Los Angeles were 194 first cabin, 48 second, and nine steerage. From Honolulu came 38 first cabin, 4 second and 33 steerage. Mail for this port was 304 sacks. The four came from Hilo.

Although the palatial steamer brought a much smaller passenger list than last trip, her freight amounted to 1321 tons, the largest she has ever brought to Honolulu. Her best previous cargo was 1209 tons, which she had on her last call here, February 21.

The liner's passenger list was one long succession of notables, and included Cyrus H. K. Curtis, publisher of the Saturday Evening Post, Ladies' Home Journal and Country Gentleman; Dr. Charles H. Mayo, the famous surgeon, one of the Mayo brothers of Rochester, Minnesota; H. A. Gray of the Northern Pacific Railway, of St. Paul; C. W. Gates, a Los Angeles millionaire; Richard O'Neill, who owns the Santa Margarita Ranch, at Oceanside, said to be the largest ranch in Southern California; and others possessed of both time and money.

Steaming time from San Pedro to Hilo was four and a half days, and from Hilo to Honolulu, 8 hours and 42 minutes. The liner arrived at Hilo at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, an hour ahead of her schedule. Officers of the ship expressed regret that she is to be taken off the Honolulu run.

Capt. A. Ahman, Purser John S. Ford and other officials said this voyage was the most pleasant of any since the big liner was put on the Honolulu run, and that ideal weather was met every mile of the voyage.

Included in the liner's cargo for Honolulu were eight automobiles and 500 tons of tin plate for the American Can Company's local plant.

TENYO MARU WILL LEAVE AT 9 TOMORROW

The T. K. K. liner Tenyo Maru will not sail for San Francisco until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, Manager J. H. Drew of Castle & Cooke's shipping department announced at noon today. She was due to leave at 9 tonight, but the later hour was decided on as more desirable, Mr. Drew stated. Capt. W. W. Greene will remain in the hospital here owing to his severe illness.

Thirty cabin and 180 steerage passengers came to Honolulu this morning in the big liner. Of the Honolulu cabin list, 18 were first-cabin and 12 second. Through passengers are 153 first cabin, 65 second and 317 steerage.

Freight for Honolulu was heavy, 1206 tons, and the through cargo is also large, 4961 tons. The Tenyo will take the next mail for San Francisco, mails closing at 7:30 tomorrow morning at the postoffice, instead of 7:30 tonight, the hour previously announced.

Several prominent persons are through passengers on the steamer. G. Liebert, French consul general at Hongkong, who has been transferred to the New York consulate, is on board accompanied by his two daughters, the Misses M. and A. Liebert.

J. D. Bray, American consul general at Singapore, is on his way to the states, accompanied by Mrs. Bray, on leave of absence.

A big Yokohama hotel man, H. E. Manwaring, general manager of the Grand Hotel there, is another through passenger. Mrs. Manwaring is with him.

Other through passengers of more or less note include G. A. Kauffmann, proprietor of a big Manila firm which does a large business with the states; S. E. Heise, a Philippine mining man, who is a Honolulu passenger; J. E. Lane, a leading Montana flour magnate, and Mrs. Lane; R. C. Morton, former Pacific Mail agent in Hongkong; Dr. T. McClymonds, a prominent Lexington, Kentucky, physician; E. C. McCullough, a Manila print shop proprietor; J. C. Uhrlaub, a New York curio importer, and his family, and J. H. Pardee, a New York businessman who has been touring the Orient.
