JUMPED FROM THE WINDOW.

Frightened by Her Visitor, a Woman Seeks to Escape.

Oscar Beesee for some time has been in the habit of calling on Mrs. Maria Fitzpatrick at No. 1413 Third street northwest. He went there last night about 8:30 o'clock and knocked repeatedly on the door, but could receive no response. Thereupon he broke in the door and entered the house. The woman was in the back room in company with a man drinking. Hearing the disturbance in the front part of the house and recognizing Beesee's voice she rushed upstairs and Flinn ran out the back way.

Finding that the intoxicated man was following her upstairs, Mrs. Fitzpatrick pushed up a window and jumped to the pavement. Officers Dean and Herde appeared upon the scene and picked up the unconscious form lying upon the walk. She was taken to the station in the patrol wagon and Dr. Howard summoned. He found that her left leg had been broken. Oscar Beesee was arrested, charged with destroying private property. The trial has been continued until Mrs. Fitzpatrick can appear in court.

Forty Hours of Prayer.

The altar of St. Aloysius Church presented a pretty scene yesterday at 11 a. m., at the beginning of the forty hours' devotion. It was opened by the solemn high mass of the most blessed sacrament. This forty hours' prayer was instituted to last forever by Pope Clement VIII. for the whole course of the year in regular continuous procession from one church to another, commencing on the first Sunday in Advent with the chapel in the Apostolical Palace November 25, 1592. The devotion was established owing to the troubles of the Church. This is the programme for to-day and to-morrow: 8:30 a. m., Missa pro Pace; 8 p. m., reposition of the most blessed sacrament, without benediction. Tuesday—10 a. m., mass of the most blessed sacrament, "Litany of the Saints," procession of the most blessed sacrament, "Pange Lingua," and "Tantum Ergo" by the choir; benediction and reposition of the most blessed sacrament.

Welcoming a New Pastor.

Metropolitan Baptist Church, corner of Sixth and A streets northeast, was filled yesterday morning with a congregation that heard their new pastor, Rev. Dr. Smith, preach an eloquent sermon from Rom. xi. 36, "Of him, and through him, and to him are all things: to whom be glory forever." Dr. Smith is the only minister in Washington who enjoys the rank of brigadier-general. He is the famous Kentuckian, General Green Clay Smith, soldier, politician, prohibitionist and preacher. His sermon was a gem of oratorical power, and delivered in a style that impressed his hearers greatly.

License Applications Considered.

The different saloon keepers in Lieutenant Amiss' precinct who have not yet procured their licenses will know their fate in a short time. Commissioner Douglass has been busy all this evening examining the applications.

"The four-on-a-block" rule will be observed in his recommendations to a great extent. The papers will be referred to the board Monday or the next day for their final decision.

So far only one application has merited a rejection, barring the rule limiting the number of restaurants on a square.

The Guy Case.

Colonel Robert said this morning in regard to the case of Lieutenant Guy that more important affairs depending on Congressional legislation occupied the attention of the Commissioners at present, and until they were disposed of there would be no attention paid to the Guy matter.

Commissioner Ross, however, says he will call the matter up the first time there is a board meeting.

Commissioner Douglass is non-committal and awaits the action of his colleagues.

Week of Prayer.

Rev. Dr. Wightman conducted the services yesterday at the opening meeting of the week of prayer of the evangelical churches of this District, held at Mount Vernon Place Methodist Church. To-day at noon Rev. A. F. Steele had charge of the services at the same church, while the union meeting at Grace Reformed Church was conducted by Bishop Hunt of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Anniversary of a State's Birth.

Captain Richard W. Tyler, Judge B. A. Harlen and Calvin G. Townsend of the Michigan State Association have been appointed a committee to make all necessary arrangements for the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the admission of that State to the Union. A dance and supper will be given at the National Hotel on the evening of the 26th.

An Incendiary Fire.

An effort was made by some unknown person to burn the unoccupied house, 741 Fourth street southeast, yesterday afternoon. A fire was started at the foot of the stairway in the basement, but it was discovered before the flames had gained much headway. The property is owned by John Stranahan, and the damages sustained estimated at $50.

Try Berkeley.

The Last Sad Rites.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral services of Charles Bradshaw were held from the Fifth Baptist Church, the Sons of Jonadab and Junior Order United American Mechanics having charge of the exercises. The deceased lost his life by an accidental shot while firing a salute New Year's night.

Berkeley is pure.

Bishop Keane's Discourse.

Right Rev. J. J. Keane, D. D., rector of the Catholic University, yesterday delivered the first of a series of sermons to be given during vespers. His text was the ninth verse of the tenth chapter of St. Luke, and was an able discourse.

Berkeley pure rye whisky.

Proposed Monument to Gen. Spinner.

The Interior Department clerks are now agitating the question of raising a fund for the purpose of erecting a monument to the memory of General Spinner, who is said first employed females in the Treasury Department.

Death of Major Ferrar.

Major A. E. Ferrar, formerly of Indianapolis, and a brother-in-law of the late Major Gordon of that city, died in this city this morning of paralysis. Major Ferrar was about 48 years old and was employed in the Patent Office.

Dr. Corey's Interesting Topic.

"A Happy New Year: How to Make it so," was the subject of an interesting address delivered at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon by Rev. Dr. George Corey.

Tharp, 818 F street northwest.

TIRED OF LIFE.

A Woman Takes a Dose of Rough on Rats.

Mrs. Frances G. Gibson committed suicide at her home, 1014 South Capitol street, Saturday afternoon, by taking a dose of "Rough on Rats." About 5 o'clock one of Mrs. Gibson's neighbors heard loud groans coming from the house in which she lived and immediately went to her assistance. The woman was found in the utmost agony and soon lapsed into unconsciousness.

When her husband reached home at 6 o'clock he found the neighboring woman still striving to restore his wife to consciousness. As they picked Mrs. Gibson up to transfer her from the floor to the bed a box of "Rough on Rats" fell from her clothing. The deceased has on several occasions attempted to commit suicide. Only a short time ago she tried to hang herself, but the rope broke and discouraged her from resorting to that method a second time.

EIGHT TICKETS FOR A QUARTER.

A Demand Made by the School Board on the Commissioners.

Mr. John T. Mitchell, president of the School Board, has written to the Commissioners requesting that the different street railroads be compelled to furnish school children with eight tickets for twenty-five cents.

Mr. Mitchell says in his letter that car lines in other cities make this allowance to the students of the public schools, and in view of the unusual advantages that these corporations command in Washington they should be willing to comply with the Board's request.

Mr. Mitchell quotes specially the case of High School pupils, many of whom are obliged to travel over two different lines in reaching the building.

The Commissioners will correspond with other cities and ascertain how the matter is treated by them.

An Eloquent Sermon.

Rev. Dr. S. S. Mitchell of Buffalo, formerly of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church of this city, preached at the Church of the Covenant last night on the text from Romans viii, 28, "All things work together for good for them that love God." He made three limitations. "Hence the first limitation in the interpretation of the text is this: The good which it speaks of and which it promises may not be the good which the human life places first and which it most desires. A second limitation or caution is necessary. The good which is opined in the text is not present ease and comfort. Pain is sorrow, sorrow is sorrow and suffering is suffering in itself, and necessarily suffering not only has no joy in it, but has in it nothing of good or benefit either." He believed a third limitation should not be forgotten. The text, he said, stands true, although we may not be able to understand how all things shall work together for good.

Death of a Well-Known Man.

Mr. John A. Ruff, cashier of the Central National Bank, died yestesday morning at his residence, No. 2033 P street. Mr. Ruff was born in Harford County, Md., sixty-nine years ago, and when quite a young man came to Washington and engaged in the banking business. In the great panic of '73 he was president of the Washington City Savings Bank, when that institution experienced a run on its deposits, every cent of which was paid by the bank. Mr. Ruff using his private fortune to meet the claims of the depositors. He afterwards organized the Central National Bank. Mr. Ruff was one of the founders of the Metropolitan M. E. Church, and was one of the trustees at the time of his death. He leaves a daughter and two sons. One of the latter has been his father's assistant in the bank and the other son is a lawyer. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Metropolitan Church.

He Wanted to Shoot a Man.

John H. Williams, a colored man, was charged in the Police Court to-day with carrying concealed weapons. Ever since Thanksgiving Day he has been carrying an ugly 38-calibre bull-dog revolver. On two occasions he went to the house of Anthony Brooks, on L street, between New Jersey avenue and Third street, and threatened to shoot Mr. Brooks. Mrs. Thomas and Mary Chapman testified to having seen the revolver in the defendant's possession. Williams is the colored man who some time ago took a large dose of laudanum and afterward attempted to hang himself in a cell at the Eighth Precinct Station. The case was continued until to-morrow and the defendant required to furnish a bond of $500.

The Demurrer Overruled.

Another phase of the case against Charles Thompson, jr., who is charged with selling lottery tickets, came up in the Criminal Court this morning. Judge Wilson appeared before Chief Justice Bingham and made a persuasive argument that the indictment should be quashed for the reason that the sole charge in the indictment was that the defendant knowingly aided in the sale of the lottery tickets, and that without express words to that effect Congress cannot be presumed to have made the act a crime which was then protected and authorized by the law of a State as well as legal at common law. Chief Justice Bingham, however, overruled the motion.

Will be Fed for Sixty Days.

Saturday night Michael Angelo, who had just come to town from Baltimore, walked into Lincoln's restaurant, corner First and H streets southeast, and ordered a supper. He ordered two loaves of rye bread, two mince pies, two pig's feet and a beef's tongue. He consumed everything that was set in front of him and then got up and walked out of the place without settling with the cashier. Officer Kramer saw Angelo running away and placed him under arrest. In the Police Court this morning he was sent to the farm for sixty days.

Broke His Leg.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon James Reese and a number of other boys were playing on the dump at the foot of Nineteenth street, when the former fell and broke his leg. The officers notified the police, and the injured boy was taken to the station and attended by Dr. Gardner. He was afterward taken to the Freedman's Hospital.

WHAT CAPTAIN ROSSELL WANTS.

He Would Like to Have Street Inspectors Employed by the Year.

"There is one thing I would like to see incorporated in the District Appropriation bill," said Captain Rossell to a Critic reporter to-day.

"What is that?"

"The creation of two more positions for street inspectors," he replied, "and a clause providing for their retention during the entire year.

"The present law only admits of payment during the period of actual street improvement, which may last two months in the year, or six, everything depending on the weather. Under the present circumstances it is difficult to obtain good, steady men for so uncertain a position that has many responsibilities. The consequence is when we need these people it is difficult to obtain them. Whenever I get good men, after the season of improvement ceases I endeavor to obtain positions for them where I can put my hand on them when they are needed here."

Fighting the Saloon.

A mass-meeting under the auspices of the Womens' Christian Temperance Union was held yesterday afternoon at Foundry M. E. Church. Mrs. S. D. La Fetra presided, and in opening the meeting made a short address, which was followed by Rev. Dr. Leonard who reviewed the work of the association in the crusade in 1873. The women had said the saloon must go, and go it would.

Dr. Leonard said he believed the time was coming when the saloons would be closed. Congressman Pickler of South Dakota, Rev. Anna Shaw and others made short addresses.

Death from a Fall.

Edward Engle Thorne of New York died on Friday at Shelter Island from an injury to his head, received while falling down the steps to the wash-room of the Riggs House in this city. He was well known in local Republican politics. He was a friend of Secretary Blaine, and was about to visit him when he met with the fatal accident. He was a heavy man, and the force of the fall is supposed to have injured his brain.

Mr. Thorne was born in Philadelphia October 2, 1831, and had attained the highest honors in Masonry.

Fined for Keeping a Disorderly House.

Warren Johnson, a colored man who lives in East Market Space, Georgetown, was charged in the Police Court this morning with keeping a disorderly house. Officers Greeley and Cotter, who arrested him, told Judge Miller that the defendant did not sell any liquor, but his house was the resort for the worst characters in Georgetown, and that they had arrested thirty people in and about the place. Johnson was defended by two attorneys, but they could not convince the Court but that he was guilty. The fine imposed was $25.
