With Maui's Girl Scouts

Wailuku:

Fifteen scouts met with Miss Seibert in the Kindergarten. More tenderfoot tests passed off, one new member colors changed to navy blue and silver gray: plans for picnic at the beach two weeks hence, then a grand finale of long Ball, and the meeting was over. The director is mighty proud of this new troop and commends each scout.

Kula (Keokea)

Friday is not the regular meeting day for the "Calla Lillies", but they very graciously changed the time to suit the director. Then a very nice surprise came. Each scout presented Miss Seibert with a bunch of exquisite white violets all massed in dampened lily leaves and placed in a raffia basket made by Miss Elliott. It was a gorgeous valentine and made the recipient very happy. These scouts planned a picnic to Makawao on February 22nd. They will no doubt tell us all about it next week.

Haiku

The Daisy troop has chosen yellow and white for its colors. A good meeting was held last Monday afternoon at the school. Scout Eileen told the director all about the fine hike they had last Saturday to Maliko Gulch. Captain Parker and Lieutenant Johnson promised to keep us informed of all the activities of these wide-awake scouts—Good!

Puukolii

Mrs Ralph Shaw and the American Beauty Rose troop celebrated George's Birthday. We want to hear everything you did, girls.

Maunaolu Seminary

Wednesday (February 22nd) about 11:30 A. M. director and the Ford were traveling full steam ahead for Makawao. As we reached the tracks at Paia the road in front seemed to be swarming with girls, in middies and bloomers. Then with much pride and interest the Pakalana scouts with Captain Vincent and the Cup of Gold girls with Captain Collins were recognized. A salute, an inquiry as to their destination, a picture taken and then?—more next week.

Makawao and Kahului

Wednesday being a holiday, these two troops spent Washington's Birthday together, the occasion being a return party given to the Makawao scouts by the Kahului girls. Eight Makawao girls and their captain and Lieutenant, Miss Yap and Miss Miller, arrived about noon, and with the 12 Roselani scouts, their captain, Miss Gardner, and Miss Seibert there was a grand total of 24. The refreshment committee had prepared some good eats, and lunch was eaten at the Community House, followed by a walk to the beach and a good swim. Next week the scouts themselves will tell us more details of the party.

The girls are very grateful to Mrs. H. P. Baldwin who very kindly provided transportation for the Makawao girls; also to Mrs. Mountcastle of Kahului, aunt of one of the Roselani scouts, who helped the refreshment committee out with a generous gift of materials for the refreshments.

The January "American Girl" Magazine has an article on the uses of the neckerchief. For the benefit of those girls who do not receive the magazine, the following uses are enumerated:

Bougainvillea

Pack up your dinner in your brown knapsack and hike, hike, hike.

That's what 14 scouts did on Saturday morning. A three and a half mile hike to a small gulch back of the Seminary was the line of march. After our arrival it was evident that everyone had come prepared for soon extra bags were uncovered and all were busy gathering guavas to take home for jelly making. Later we dug a pit for a fireplace and then, gathering wood, started a fire which heated the ground thoroughly for the baking of potatoes. Such excitement! We could hardly wait for them to finish roasting.

One scout had very thoughtfully brought along bandaging and tape which came in very handy at wrapping up scratched legs.

Such fun as was had! Games of all discriptions were played. At 1:30 the girls started for home, all brilliantly bedecked and laden with guavas. We were hailed by the seminary scouts as we passed by and joined them in a game of dodge ball, then, singing our scout song, we again started our march homeward.

The bags of fruit grew mighty heavy before the long miles were travelled but not a single grumble could be heard and each girl reached her home tired but happy.

Theaters

The feature attraction for next week's program is George Fitzmaurice's magnificent production "Experience" the film version of the play by George V. Hobart which created a profound impression during the season of 1914-15 in New York. Richard Barthelmess who plays the leading role of Youth in "Experience," is popular with Paramount audiences, having played the leading roles for D. W. Griffith in "Broken Blossoms" "Scarlet Days," "The Girl Who Stayed at Home," "The Idol Dancer" and "Way Down East." Mr. Barthelmess is supported by Rita Kaldi as "Temptation" and Miss Edna Wheaton as "Beauty". Miss Wheaton competed with 6000 other Gotham beauties for the honor of appearing in "Experience". The beauty contest conducted by The Daily News of New York for Mr. Fitzmaurice resulted in this beautiful 18 year old Edna Wheaton being the lucky contestant to play "Beauty" in this elaborate production. "Experience" is the story of a youth that takes his fling; drinks all the joy of life and finds—the dregs, then stumbles, falls, and sinks so deep that only Love can find him, a story of all you've ever known of human experience. Moving through scenes of vivid beauty and pulsing with adventure. The picture that has thrilled every audience by the rich and colorful settings.

"From Now On"

Big Star. Big Director. Big Author. Big Story—That's the combination in "From Now On" a William Fox production starring George Walsh. In a thrilling story of the half world that is said to offer the athletic Fox star immense opportunities for his best work. It is the pictureization of the successful story by Frank L. Packard author of "The Miracle Man," and from advance reports young Walsh will surprise even his most devoted Fans.

"Dangerous Lies"

On Saturday the next week's program opens with a Famous Players-Lasky British Producers Ltd., production featuring the ever popular star David Powell in "Dangerous Lies."

Mr. Powell is supported in the lead by Mary Glynne in one of Phillips Oppenheim best stories, adapted for the screen by Mary O'Connor. "Dangerous Lies" is the story of a modern marriage that began with one false step ,one little unspoken lie that grew and grew until the truth that first would have been easy, became impossible, rather than spoil the rest of the story.

We invite you to come and see for yourself the heart stirring events that put two stumbling lives on the way to happiness. This Paramount Picture is one that will hold the interest of all that enjoy family life, and for those that are contemplating matrimony there is not only a moral, but a peep into the future of what might happen, when tempted to use just a "little lie" for an excuse.

"The American Way"

"The American Way" is a clever little picture that will be offered to patrons of the Hip next Tuesday. Arthur Ashley and Dorothy Green co-star have ample opportunity for some very clever work in a very clever picture. The story is that of an aristocratic young Englishman who is sent to America to visit his relative because he is painting old London too red, however, when he reaches the Van Allens at their Long Island estate things begin to happen.

The story is filled with plenty of action, and it is not long before Dick Farrington son of Lord Farrington through many exciting and thrilling adventures in which romance plays a leading part with Cupid the prompter, before he learns to do things the American way. It is a good story well acted and the leads are well supported by an excellent cast. The World Film Co., released a winner and Director Frank Reicher turned out a picture that will please the patrons of the Hip better than anything yet shown since Japanese Pictures were discontinued at this popular theater.

California Would Vote to Legalize Horse Racing

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22—(Associated Press)—Circulation of a petition asking that an initiative measure be put on the ballot next November in California legalizing horse racing with pari-mutuel betting, is being planned, it was announced here recently by Ed R. Smith of Ocean Park, near Los Angeles, secretary of the Pacific Coast Breeders' Association.

The proposed act would create a state racing commission of five members to be appointed by the governor. On April 1, Smith announced, an attempt will be made to obtain 55,000 signatures to the petition.

Smith said he had conferred with scores of horsemen as to the wisdom of submitting the question and the great majority of them favored the move. Among those back of the move, according to Smith, are Tom Hughes, Los Angeles oil man; Mrs. Anita Baldwin, daughter of the late E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin, pioneer breeder of thoroughbreds; I. L. Borden, San Francisco; George Giannini, San Francisco and Charles Silva and George Ruhstahler of Sacramento.

If the law is passed, 50 percent of the commissions from the betting will be used for purses for the races, 25 percent will go to the upkeep of the race course and the remaining 25 percent to the county in which the races are held for the building and maintenance of roads in the county.

San Francisco men who are planning to revive horse racing without betting at Tanforan, near here, are not in favor of the move, Smith declared. He talked to Rudolph Spreckels, one of the leaders of the Tanforan project, and said Spreckels refused to back the plan, thinking that the sport can be conducted without betting.

Six Millions Chinese Facing Starvation

SHANGHAI, Jan. 15—(Associated Press Mail)—More than 6,000,000 persons will be facing starvation soon in Kiangsu province, in which Shanghai is situated and in the neighboring provinces of Chekiang and Anhwei, it was estimated today. This comes upon the great famine of 1921 in northern China in which whole populations perished. Unprecedented floods have reduced the rice crop to 30 percent of normal and the China International Famine Relief commission has been formed to obtain funds for the assistance of the suffering.

The commission recently appealed for funds concluding with these words:

"It is not going to be easy to secure funds now. For one famine to follow another in the same country, even though in different provinces, seems to be rather overdoing it and we are inclined to resent further appeals—especially when we know that several millions more were collected in government famine surtaxes than were expended by the government in famine relief."
