ST. CHARLES HOTEL,
PORTLAND, KY.

THE undersigned, Lessee of this newly erected and admirably adapted Hotel, takes pleasure in announcing to the public generally, and especially to passengers driving on Jefferson street, the Portland Wharf, that this house is now completely furnished and ready for the accommodation of Guests.

Every item of Furniture, bedding, and indeed, the building throughout, is fitted up with articles expressly manufactured for the house.

Situated as the St. Charles is, immediately at the landing of the principal shipping point for Louisville, where nearly all her stranger guests first arrive, and from whence they depart for the West and South, this house affords a convenience that cannot be to the traveler heretofore not experienced at this point.

It shall be the earnest endeavor of the Proprietor of this Establishment to command a liberal share of public patronage, because he intends to deserve it. The House, with its extensive grounds, cool, shady groves, and general conveniences, is unsurpassed as a transient house. It shall be kept as a first-class Hotel—lacking no one of the essentials of such an establishment.

Mr. J. W. Redding, well known to the traveling public, from his long connection with Hotels in Louisville, is engaged, and will assist in the general management of the house. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

AMBROTYPES
SUN BEAM!

HAVING gone to a very heavy expense in learning the process and in fitting up my rooms for taking Ambrotypes, I am now prepared to put up in the finest style any sized Ambrotype, from a one-sixteenth to one-half size. The Ambrotype is far superior to the Daguerreotype in tone and beauty, having none of the glare of the Daguerreotype plate, and can be seen in any light. We also take two pictures at one sitting, a positive and a negative picture, and when held to the light it is perfectly transparent. The Ambrotypes are durable, being, when finished, entirely air and water tight, and can be taken in all kinds of weather

Time for adults for sitting, from 10 to 30 seconds; children from 3 to 4. Please call and see specimens.

P. S.—Daguerreotypes taken in the different styles.
