WASHINGTON, DECEMBER 21, 1888.

THE REPORT that the combination of Editors and Authors who appeared at Masonic Hall last night for the benefit of the Woman's Dispensary will go on a starring tour through the provinces is not justified by the facts. The gentlemen of the troupe are all too busy at their work to go away and have fun with their audiences.

THE OYSTER-DREDGERS are fixing themselves to be swiped out of business and into the hands of the law by their repeated kidnapping outrages.

STILL THE FIGHT goes on between the Commissioners and the rejected liquor dealers and their friends, and while it is a case of Nip and Tuck, so far Tuck is a little ahead of Nip, but the Nippers are powerful, and they are very respectable. The Commissioners are great only in the greatness of their opponents, and if they will stick it out on the strong ones, they can handle the weak ones without difficulty. The law makes all offenders of equal moral obliquity.

MRS. LUCY ANARCHIST PARSONS says she delivered twenty speeches abroad without being interrupted by the police, which does not speak very well for the foreign police.

THE Courier-Journal remarks en passant that the Angel Gabriel is doubtless a Democrat. We do not question such authority as our esteemed contemporary: we merely wish to state that if it be true, Gabriel has lost his last trump.

THE NEW YORK Times is so mad over the Senate Tariff bill that its editorial utterances on the subject are wholly unintelligible.

IF CONGRESS has any fear of the future before its eyes it will at once, or as early as possible, make an appropriation to meet the modest demands of the Volunteer Fire Department of Mount Pleasant. They don't want much, for they are already fairly well provided, but, what they do want, they want like a man wants a pistol in Texas. Mount Pleasant is a thriving and pleasant suburb, which should be encouraged.

The Scramble for Office.

"Did you ever, ever, ever,
In your life, life, life,
See the Devil, Devil, Devil,
And his wife, wife, wife,
On a ten-mile level,
A scratching up the gravel
With their big toe nails?"

No? Then wait patiently around until after March 4, 1889, and you will see a very excellent imitation of it.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

THE WHITE HOUSE PROGRAMME.

The official programme for the President's reception on New Year's day, 1889, is as follows:

At 11 a. m.—The President will receive the members of the Cabinet and the Diplomatic Corps.

At 11:15 a. m.—The Chief Justice and the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Judges of the United States Court of Claims and the Judges of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

At 11:25 a. m.—Senators and Representatives in Congress, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and the judicial officers of the District, and ex-members of the Cabinet and ex-ministers of the United States.

At 11:40 a. m.—The officers of the Army, the Navy and the Marine Corps.

At 12 m.—The Regents and the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institute, the Commissioner of Agriculture, the Civil Service Commission, the Assistant Secretaries of the Departments, the Assistant Postmasters-General, the Solicitor-General, the Assistant Attorney-General, the heads of the Bureaus of the several Departments and the president of the Columbian Institute for the Deaf and Dumb.

At 12:15 p. m.—The Associated Veterans of the war of 1846, the Grand Army of the Republic and the members of the Oldest Inhabitants' Association of the District of Columbia.

At 12:35 p. m.—Reception of the citizens, which will terminate at 2 p. m. Carriages will approach the Executive Mansion by the eastern gate and leave by the western. Pedestrians will approach the Mansion by the western gate and leave by the eastern.

The President will be assisted by Mrs. Cleveland and the ladies of the Cabinet.

GENERAL SOCIAL MENTION.

Mrs. Cleveland returned to-day from her visit to the home of Rev. Mr. Wood in Germantown, Pa. She thoroughly enjoyed her visit, and, during her stay, she was overwhelmed with invitations, all of which, with the exception of the one from Mrs. George W. Childs, were politely declined. Mrs. Cleveland gained two pounds while away.

Mrs. Waite, the widow of the late Chief Justice Waite, who has been seriously ill for the past few days, is improving and hopes are entertained of her recovery. Her son, Mr. C. C. Waite, has been telegraphed for and is expected to arrive to-day.

Baron Tavera, the Austrian Minister, entertained a party of friends at dinner on Wednesday.

Mrs. Padelford will make her debut in "The King's Fool," in Chicago on Christmas Eve.

Miss Agnes Carter, the daughter of the Hawaiian Minister, will be among the debutantes this season.

At the meeting of the Children's Christmas Club, which will be held at the Franklin School Building to-morrow, Miss Mollie Vilas, the president, and Miss Pauline Whitney will probably preside.

A few friends were entertained at luncheon yesterday by Mrs. Edmunds.

The Japanese Minister and Mme. Mutsu will entertain a party of twelve guests at dinner to-day.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Genevieve Sarjeo to Mr. Walter Cook of Philadelphia. The ceremony will be performed next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at St. John's Church.

A tea will be given by Colonel Hudson and his daughter, Miss Anna Hope Hudson, at their residence, 200 I street, on New Year's Eve, from 4 to 7 p. m.

A tea was given yesterday evening by Mrs. Isham Hornsby in honor of Miss Gussie Watson, daughter of Colonel John M. Wilson, Miss Heap, daughter of the late Arnold Harris Heap, former Minister to Constantinople, and Miss Kennedy, guest of Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnston, three young debutantes. The occasion will long be remembered as one of the most successful teas given this season.

Invitations have been issued by Miss Elsie Bliss for a dancing reception to-morrow evening.

Mr. Myers, secretary of the Diehl Fireworks Company of Cincinnati, is in the city to secure, if possible, the contract for the fireworks and of the Inaugural Ceremonies. The Diehl Company is the only Western firm competing, and as the President-elect is a Western man, he would probably feel more at home among the Western fireworks. Reference is made only to terrestrial fireworks, of course. In addition, Ohio is a great State.

A luncheon of twelve covers was given yesterday afternoon by Mme. J. de Romero in honor of Mrs. May, nee Draper.

Colonel and Mrs. H. L. Swords will be at 1302 K street this winter.

The daughter of State Senator McDonald of Virginia, Miss Mollie McDonald, was married yesterday morning to Mr. A. Wilder Kintz of Alexandria at the home of the bride's parents in Heathsville, Va. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kintz left for the North.

Mr. Frank Thomson, the first vice-president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, gave a dinner last evening at his country home "Corkerhill," near Philadelphia, to a large number of prominent men and newspaper correspondents. Among the guests representing official position and many important interests were ex-Governor Wise of Virginia, Senator Cameron of Pennsylvania, Senator Gray of Delaware, Representative William L. Scott, Samuel Carpenter of New York, Dr. William Thomson, William L. Elkins, Mayor Fitler, Charles F. Berwine, Henry D. Welsh, State Chairman Thomas V. Cooper, Colonel A. Loudon Snowden, Adjutant-General Hastings, Mayor Bent, Governor Biggs of Delaware, H. H. Carter of Wilmington, A. G. Hetherington, Colonel Thomas Potter, jr., Boies Penrose and Dr. J. William White.

The Bench and Bar were represented by Judges Arnold and Wilson, William Henry Lex, John B. Thayer, Samuel Gustine Thompson, David W. Sellers, J. H. Heverin, B. Frank Eshleman and Charles W. Brooke of New York. The array of railroad men included George B. Roberts, General W. J. Sewell, A. J. Cassatt, J. N. DuBarry, E. T. Postlethwaite, Arthur Guest of England, representing the Northwestern Railroad, in whose honor all present sang "God Save the Queen;" Charles E. Pugh, George W. Boyd, William A. Patton, Captain John P. Green, John A. Logan, Theodore N. Ely of Altoona, R. W. Downing, W. H. Joyce, C. A. Griscom, R. D. Barclay, H. F. Kenney, George C. Wilkins of Baltimore, R. E. Pettitt of Altoona, and George DeB. Keim and A. A. McLeod of the Reading road, John Hoey, president, and John A. Bigney, general manager of the Adams Express Company.

Among the many out-of-town newspaper representatives were T. C. Crawford of New York; General Felix Agnus, proprietor of the Baltimore American, and from Washington, Stilson Hutchins of the Post; R. M. Larner, E. G. Dunnell, O. O. Stealey, F. A. Richardson, Arthur F. Bowers, John M. Carson, W. E. Curtis, F. V. DeGraw, P. S. Heath, E. T. Howe, S. E. Johnson, H. B. F. Macfarland, W. E. O'Brien, C. M. Ogden, C. F. Towle, H. L. West, J. R. Young, C. T. Murray, M. G. Seckendorff, George H. Walker, DeB. R. Keim, W. D. Shaw, A. J. Halford, Hallet Kilbourn, James Morgan, Paul Wolff, F. A. G. Handy and Richard Nixon. M. P. Handy presided. Speeches were made by Mayor Fitler, A. K. McClure, Governor Biggs of Delaware and others.

To Be Wooed in Public.

From the New York Sun.

Two very pretty young women, who are noted in this section of the State as being first-class housekeepers, members of church, and of good character and manner, have consented, with a desire to making a Sons of America fair, shortly to be held, as profitable as possible, to be chosen in public to be the wives of any two young men who may prove acceptable to them and their parents. The young women will be at the fair every evening, and will have charge of booths. Any young man who is serious and honest in his intentions to marry will be required to say publicly in a loud voice in the hall, where the fair is held, "I am here." To this the young lady nearest will promptly answers "So am I." The wooing is to take place in the sight of all spectators, and if an agreement to marry is arrived at, it is to be publicly signed, the witnesses thereto to be selected from the audience.

"Alderney Dairy Wagons."
