

"Resolved, That the Presbyteries be asked to repeat this urgent request to the Sessions."

The next meeting of Synod will be in Alexandria, Va., on October 23, 1917. The Presbyterian church of that city will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of its organization at that time, and the Synod is invited to join in the celebration.

There is but one thing to regret in connection with this very fine meeting of the Synod, and that is that no effort seemed to be made in any way to touch the students in the two institutions of learning situated in Lexington. There are nearly 900 of them, but there was nothing done to bring them and the Synod in contact with each other.

LECTURE COURSE BY THEOLOGICALS—MEMBERS OF COLUMBIA SEMINARY FACULTY WILL GIVE SERIES OF EXTENSIVE LECTURES.

To bring the Columbia Theological Seminary closer to the Presbyterian people of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Florida by giving them the results of the study and scholarship of the faculty, professors of the Seminary will give a series of five extension lectures before the congregations of several churches during the year. Instead of only one lecture being given at a single invitation, and instead of a series of lectures by one man, a series of five consecutive lectures will be given by as many professors, each selecting some theme connected with his chair and treating it in a popular way. While continuity of thought will not necessarily be maintained throughout the series, it is the thought of the professors that all lectures of the series shall be given at each church within the same week. Practical twentieth century questions will be given theological applications, and many of the more important theological questions will be given popular applications. As far as is known, no other theological seminary in the South is offering a course of extension lectures.

This series of lectures will be offered for the first time at the First Presbyterian church of Augusta, November 5th-9th. A list of the speakers and their subjects follows:

November 5th, the Rev. Thornton Whaling, D. D., LL. D., Lt. D., president and professor of Theology; subject, "The Atonement and the Modern Mind." November 6th, the Rev.

D. M. McPheeters, D. D., LL. D., professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis; subject, "Our Lord as an Interpreter of Scripture." November 7th, the Rev. H. A. White, D. D., Ph. D., LL. D., professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis; subject, "Teachings of the New Testament Concerning Heaven as a Definite Place." November 8th, the Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., LL. D., professor of Church History and Polity; subject, "The Apostolicity of Presbyterianism." November 9th, the Rev. J. O. Reavis, D. D., LL. D., professor of English Bible, Pastoral Theology and Homiletics; subject, "Fullness of Life Through the Revelation of the Presence of God."

The above constitute the series of extension lectures, which will be delivered at other places upon invitation. Sumter Presbyterians have requested that the course of lectures be given there at the earliest possible date. With the reputation which the men giving the lectures enjoy, it is quite probable that Dr. Whaling will be unable to accede to all of the requests for this series. This new departure of the Seminary promises to yield rich returns for the labor expended and the interest shown among Presbyterians of the State and the adjacent States.

CABLEGRAM FROM LORD BRYCE, FORMER BRITISH AMBASSADOR TO AMERICA.

All civilized nations able to assist Armenians today should know need still extremely urgent. Several hundred thousand exiles who survived horrors of deportation now perishing of exposure and starvation in Arabian desert.

Latest reports neutral eye-witnesses describe terrible conditions. Sick people throwing themselves into graves and begging grave-diggers to bury them; women going mad; eating grass, carrion; parents putting children out of misery, digging own graves and awaiting death. Future of Armenian nation depends on saving refugees in Russia, but this requires world-wide assistance for feeding, clothing, housing, repatriation. Book telling whole story just appearing here with fuller statement by me. Feel sure American generosity will again respond to call of humanity. Bryce.

One mistake many women make in buying coffee

You know how hard it is to get a coffee which really satisfies you. You know how seldom you can find a coffee which has the same fine taste and strength every morning! It can be done. You can do it if, when you buy coffee, you are careful not to make the mistakes so many women make. Read the experiences below—you yourself have undoubtedly had one or both of them.

Beware of loose coffee

Are you buying coffee which you get loose, coffee which hasn't been protected by a sealed package?

Are you afraid that it isn't clear? Has it lost its aroma? Are you often disappointed in its strength?

It isn't the grocer's fault. With loose coffee he can't be sure that it is the same kind he got before. You always run the risk of getting different coffee every time you buy.

And even if the coffee itself were the same, it can't be kept "loose" without losing its strength and flavor.

In packages—protected!

You can do away with every one of these disappointments by ordering the coffee which over one million other families drink.

Arbuckles' Coffee is such good coffee that way back in the sixties, when all other coffees on the market were loose and unprotected, Arbuckle Bros. protected theirs in sealed packages. This sealed package keeps the coffee's strength, and guards it from moisture and store odors. Most important of all, it makes it easy for you to be sure that you are getting the same good coffee every time you buy.

The second mistake women make Old coffee with new names

Are you continually being offered the same old coffee under new names? Under all sorts of new blends?

Did you ever stop to think of the hundreds of coffees which come and go on the market? And that all of these have tried to turn women away from Arbuckles' Coffee?

Arbuckles' is the coffee which has gone right out, always under its own name, never disguised, and held its users simply on the wonderful value it gave. You know what good value a coffee must be to do this against the competition of all the other coffees in America!

Used in a million homes

Settle, for all time, your coffee problem, by giving your family the only coffee which over a million families have proved to have the real coffee taste they want.

When you get Arbuckles' Coffee you get an entirely different coffee. No other coffee goes through the same process—in no other coffee can you get the same good flavor. The result of the care Arbuckle Brothers take in selecting it, in roasting and in packaging it, gives you an entirely different coffee from any other on the market.

Order it from your grocer today. He has it, in either the Whole Bean or the new Ground. Try it. See why it is by far the most popular coffee in America. Arbuckle Brothers, 71-U12 Water Street, New York.
