THERE is considerable complaint among the men under Mr. Brown who are engaged in improving the public parks and reservations on account of the manner in which they are paid. They are compelled to lose a day's work to go after their money, which they say is a hardship.

ELY'S CREAM BALM was recommended to me by my druggist as a preventive to Hay Fever. Have been using it as directed since the 9th of August and have found it a specific for that much dreaded and loathsome disease. For ten years or more I have been a great sufferer each year, from August 9th till frost, and have tried many alleged remedies for its cure, but Ely's Cream Balm is the only preventive I have ever found. Hay Fever sufferers ought to know of its efficacy. F. B. AINSWORTH,

A Saw Mill Burned.

Fire was discovered in the saw mill attached to the wood and coal yard of Mr. J. Maury Dove on I street, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets, about 9:15 o'clock last night. A colored employe named Isaac Woodward discovered the flames and raised an alarm. Officers Green and Easby responded and sent out an alarm which was soon followed by a general alarm. The saw mill and a new $2,000 engine and a small stable adjoining the mill were burned. The stable contained three valuable horses and a cow all of which perished in the flames. The horses and the cow were valued at $875. Mr. Dove states that it is his custom to inspect the machinery and everything in the yard before closing up at night, and for the first time he was detained away on business last night. The Fire Department did good work in saving the surrounding property which was threatened by the flames. The loss is estimated at between $4,000 and $5,000.

A Chinaman's Cruelty.

Hop Long, a Chinese dude who wears tight pants and a diamond pin in his red necktie, appeared at the bar of Judge Snell's Court this morning on a charge of cruelty to animals. Agent Key of the Humane Society stated that he saw a dog howling and whining piteously near this man's laundry on the Avenue near Twelfth street. Several ladies saw the suffering animal and were wringing their hands in horror. It was learned that the dog had soiled some of the Chinaman's clothes and he held the dog up by the tail and poured a bottle of turpentine on him. Several boys testified to witnessing the act, but the defendant denied it. A fine of $5 was imposed.

MONEY IN REAL ESTATE.

Some Pertinent Remarks by an Old Citizen.

"There has been a surprisingly large amount of money invested in new buildings this season," remarked a citizen in the Building Inspector's office to-day, as he viewed the monthly report of that official. The cause of the vast amount of capital invested in building improvements was discussed and explained by several large dealers in real estate who were present. They said that of late years real estate offered the best inducements to capitalists. They said that while bonds remained at the present low rates of interest, there would be large amounts put into real estate, which, if judiciously expended, would realize to the owner at least six per cent.

"This boom in building has several good features," remarked an old gentleman, who has erected and sold many a block of houses. "Besides building up and beautifying the city it makes work for mechanics and laborers and spreads the money broadcast and helps out the merchant, increases the tax receipts and makes street improvements imperative."

The number of buildings erected last month, as shown by the monthly report of Building Inspector Thomas E. Entwisle, was more than during any previous September. The number was 246, and exceeded by 70 per cent. last September, which was also an exceptionally large month. The number of repairs to dwellings were 178.

Decorative Art.

John Wanamaker's curtain and furniture representative, Mr. F. Torchiana, from the Grand Depot, Philadelphia, will be at the National Hotel Thursday and Friday, October 1 and 2 inst., to make appointments to show the most complete line of new and tasteful styles in curtains, portieres and fine furniture designs.

A PEN PICTURE.

Friday and Saturday is always a great day in our Boys' and Children's Department. All day long the little fellows, accompanied by mother or sister, may be seen examining with critical eye, worthy of so important a matter, the different goods placed before them. The little man, who is for the first time dressed in long trousers, looks as if he felt the importance of the fact that he has taken one step nearer to manhood, and if it be true that "The child is father to the man," we can only wish that our little "father" may have many occasions in years to come that will give him as much happiness as his first long trousers.

We quote a few prices to give you an idea what we have in our department for the little folks.

Our Styles in

Children's Suits

are as various as they are beautiful. We have them at $2.50, $3.50, $4.00, $5.00 and so on up to $20.

In Boys'

Long Pant Suits

the prices range from $5 to $22; in Cutaway Suits, from $10 to $25. In odd Pants, both short and long, we have an immense variety from 50c. to $4.00.

In Children's

Kilt Suits

We have a large and beautiful assortment.

Owing to the immense sale our stock of 10-cent Polo Caps is exhausted. We will, therefore, for to-day and to-morrow, in order not to disappoint our customers, reduce our

25c. Caps to 10c.

In finer goods, as well as Boys' and Children's Furnishings, our stock is large and handsome.
