STILL THEY COME!—A new arrival of Reesigneur's Patent Portable SPRING MATTRESSES, which are daily being introduced into use by all who study comfort and economy. One Mattress makes the bed complete—that's economy! They can be rolled up into a very small compass, and made convenient to handle; and they are given general satisfaction to all who use them, which is a proof that they are the most comfortable Mattress now in use.

These celebrated Mattresses can be seen, and are for sale during all business hours, at J. M. WEYMOUTH'S Furniture Sale Room, 167 St. Charles street, one door from Poydras.

The public are respectfully requested to call and examine this stock. m13 tf

IMPORTANT TO PROPERTY OWNERS!
Bridgewater Paint,
FOR WOOD, BRICK AND OTHER BUILDINGS, STEAMBOATS SHIPS, RAILROAD CARS, DEPOTS AND ALL OUT DOOR WORK, ALSO FOR ALL KINDS OF IRON WORK, ABOVE AND UNDER WATER.

The attention of the public is respectfully called to the following testimonials in favor of the celebrated BRIDGEWATER PAINT. It is unnecessary for the Agents to more than add, that after EIGHT MONTHS use in the South, the character of the Paint is firmly established, and it is now offered to the public as the best FIRE AND WEATHER PROTECTOR EVER DISCOVERED.

CERTIFICATE OF Jno. F. MILLER, OF ATTAKAPAS.

In July last I was induced to apply the Bridgewater Mineral Paint to my Sugar-house, and, in every respect, it has exceeded my expectations, and the representations made by the Agents, Messrs. G. C. BOGERT & CO. I cheerfully add my testimony to the numerous ones embraced in the Agents' circular, and recommend the same to planters and others as the best FIRE AND WEATHER PROTECTOR I have ever known. Where I have applied it, it has been exposed to the sun since last July, and has neither blistered nor cracked, and has formed a solid metallic surface, which has proved entirely impervious.

(Signed) JOHN F. MILLER.
NewIberia, Attakapas, March 16, 1852.

CERTIFICATE OF CAPTAIN ST. CLAIR THOMASSON, OF STEAMER MAGNOLIA.

Having painted the hurricane deck of the passenger steamer MAGNOLIA, under my command, with the BRIDGEWATER PAINT, I cheerfully recommend it for its IMPERVIOUS qualities, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it SUPERIOR, in my judgment, to any mineral paint before the public, and believe it to be a CERTAIN PROTECTION AGAINST THE EFFECTS OF SPARKS AND CINDERS. It has also proved ENTIRELY WATERPROOF on my decks, after three months use.

(Signed) ST. C. THOMASSON.
NewOrleans, December 9, 1851.

CERTIFICATE OF CAPTAIN WILLIAM BROWN, OF TOWBOAT PORPOISE.

I have used the BRIDGEWATER PAINT, for which Messrs. G. C. BOGERT & CO. are Agents, on the hurricane deck of the Towboat PORPOISE. The Paint has been on about three months, and SPARKS and CINDERS CONSTANTLY falling upon it has had NO EFFECT WHATEVER.

In about four weeks it became a PERFECT SLATE, and I am satisfied of its possessing all the qualities necessary to insure it a CERTAIN PROTECTION against the effects of SPARKS and CINDERS. I confidently recommend the BRIDGEWATER PAINT for the purpose set forth in the Agents' Circular.

(Signed) WM. BROWN, Captain of Towboat Porpoise.
NewOrleans, December 1, 1851.

CERTIFICATE OF THE MANAGERS AND AGENTS OF LOUISIANA DRY DOCK CO.

Having had the LOUISIANA DRY DOCK painted with the BRIDGEWATER PAINT, and its merits thoroughly tested, we fully concur in opinion with Captain Thomasson of the MAGNOLIA, and Captain Brown of the PORPOISE. We cheerfully recommend said PAINT as a SUPERIOR ARTICLE.

(Signed) HUGHES, VALLETT & THOMAS, Louisiana Dock Yard.
J. P. WHITNEY & CO., Agents Louisiana Dry Dock Co.
NewOrleans, February 4, 1852.

CERTIFICATE OF JOSEPH BENSON, PAINTER.

I have used the BRIDGEWATER PAINT, for the past five months, on brick and plastered buildings, and on tin, shingle and canvas roofs, and in every instance it has given the fullest satisfaction.

From tests and experiments made under my immediate direction, I can testify to its being PROOF AGAINST THE EFFECTS OF SPARKS AND CINDERS, and a protection against leaks. I consider it far superior to any Mineral Paint I have ever seen, and invaluable for all out-door purposes—possessing qualities that particularly recommend it for use in a Southern climate.

JOSEPH BENSON, Painter, 132 Camp street.
New Orleans, February 5, 1852.

UNDERWRITERS' CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, Underwriters, having confidence in the BRIDGEWATER PAINT, for the covering of shingle roofs and frame buildings, will at all times give those fire risks a preference where the Bridgewater Paint is used.

SAM'S OYSTER SALOON.—This NEW AND EXTENSIVE SALOON, which is on a scale greatly superior to any other establishment of the kind in the South, is just opened at 101 ST. CHARLES STREET.

Mr. WEIR, better known as "SAM," has been connected with the business in this city for the last nine years, having commenced with Mr. Holbrook, when he established the first Oyster Saloon in the Second Municipality, remained with him till his death, and has continued at the business ever since. With such an experience, and an inflexible determination to serve the public faithfully with the best in his line, "Sam" solicits of his numerous friends a share of their patronage. A large sum has been expended in fitting up the SALOON and providing its BAR with the CHOICEST LIQUORS that can be procured. SERVANTS, well known for their excellent qualities, have been employed, including the very best Cooks. The LARDER will always be supplied with the CHOICEST FISH AND GAME; and the OYSTERS SERVED are obtained exclusively for this establishment. In short, no expense or trouble will be spared to render this Saloon worthy the patronage of this liberal and judicious community. mh18 tf

HOLLYWOOD HOUSE, Eastern Shore of Mobile Bay, FREEMAN & SMITH, Proprietors.—This establishment, so well and favorably known for its beautiful scenery, elevated and airy location, its fine walks, shady groves, splendid shower baths, salt-water bathing with its firm sandy bottom, excellent roads running in various directions, with the entire absence of mosquitoes, renders this one of the pleasantest places to spend the warm season to be found in the Southern country. The fact of its having been crowded from three to four months every season, from the beginning, is good evidence of its being the right sort of a place.

The past two seasons not one half the applicants from the city of New Orleans alone could be accommodated.

Many alterations and additions have been made during the past winter. The DINING ROOM is much larger, and can now seat two hundred and forty persons. A BILLIARD SALOON will be added to the other amusements. Several more SLEEPING APARTMENTS have been erected.

The proprietors will be untiring in their efforts to please. There is now a daily communication by steam with Mobile, and shortly a new low pressure boat will be on the route, and make several trips a day.

This establishment is now ready for visitors.

A WHISPER TO GENTLEMEN.

BY FANNY FERN.

Jupiter Ammon! don't I wish I was a man, just to show the masculines how to play their part in the world a little better! In the first place there ain't a mother's son of you that has got as far as A B C in the art of making love, (and I've seen a few specimens in that way myself, as well as the rest of the sisters.) What woman wants to be told that "her feet and eyes are pretty," or "her form and smile bewitching?" Just as if she didn't know all her fine points as she is tall enough to peep into a looking-glass!

No, you infernal donkey; if you must use the small coin of flattery to pay toll at the bridge of her affections, let me whisper a secret in your long ears. Compliment her upon some mental attraction she does not possess, (if you can find one,) and don't wear the knees of your pet pants thread bare at her feet, trying to make her believe that she is your first love. We all know that is among the things that were, after you were out of your jacket and trowsers.

What a splendiferous husband I (Fanny) should make to be sure! had Providence only ordained it! Do you suppose when the mother of my glorious boys wanted a sixpence to buy their shoe strings, I'd screw at her like a hyena, and pull my portemonnaie out of my pocket as if I were drawing a tooth? Do you suppose, when her blue eyes grew lustreless, and the rose paled on her fair cheek, trotting around the domestic tread-mill day after day, that I'd come home at night sulky and silent, and smoke my cigar in her face till her eyes were as red as a rabbit's? or take myself off to a club or a game, and leave her to the exhilarating relaxation of darning my stockings?

Do you suppose I would trot along like a loose pony at her side in the street, and leave her to keep up with me or not as her strength would permit? Do you suppose I'd fly into a passion, and utter words to crush the life from out her young heart, and then insult her by offering a healing plaster in the shape of a new bonnet? And don't you suppose, when the anniversary of our wedding day came round, I'd write a [illegible] little note, and leave it on her toilet table to let her know that I was still a married lover?

Pshaw! I'm sick [illegible] all! You [illegible] serve the love of a [illegible] high-souled [illegible] be done. If you want a housekeeper, hire one; [illegible] with it. If you want a wife, [illegible]. One woman will answer [illegible] and strings, and sew on your buttons, and [illegible] make your [illegible] we have cultivated our minds [illegible] the bright and glorious gift of [illegible], to the best of our capacity, to minister [illegible]
