DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES and Measures.

A strict construction of the Constitution, and no assumption of doubtful powers.

A Diplomacy, asking for nothing but what is clearly right and submitting to nothing wrong.

No connexion between the government and banks.

An ad valorem revenue tariff.

No public debt, either by the General Government or by the States, except for objects of urgent necessity.

No assumption by the General Government of the debts of the States, either directly or indirectly, by a distribution of the proceeds of the public lands.

No extensive system of Internal Improvement by the General Government, or by the States.

A constitutional barrier against improvident State loans.

The honest payment of our debts and the sacred preservation of the public faith.

A gradual return from a paper credit system.

No grants of exclusive charters and privileges by special legislation, to banks.

No swindling corporations.

No connexion between Church and State.

A preference for democrats ever whigs for every office.

Acquiescence in the rule of the majority in all cases of party discipline.

No proscription for honest opinions.

Fostering aid to public education.

A "progressive" reformation of all abuses.

SALE OF MORTGAGED LANDS.

AUDITOR OF STATE'S OFFICE, Indianapolis, April 6, 1847.

The following tracts, parcels, or lots of land, or so much of them as will sell for the amount due from the respective mortgagors, will, on Saturday, the 22d of May next, between the hours of 8 o'clock, A. M., and six o'clock, P. M., at the Court House in the town of Indianapolis, be offered for sale to the highest bidder, in conformity with the provisions of the 13th chapter of the Revised Statutes of 1843, and an act amendatory thereof, approved January 19, 1846; the said tracts, parcels, or lots of land having been mortgaged to the State to secure the payment of loans made of the several trust funds as hereinafter specified, and the mortgagors thereof having failed to pay the interest due as required by law. No bid of a less sum than that due for principal, interest, damages and costs, will be received.

Should the premises specified, or any of them, not sell for so much cash in hand as will satisfy the amount chargeable upon them, they will, (if deemed advisable) be bid in for the benefit of the State, and be immediately offered to the highest bidder, (the bid being equal to the amount due,) on a credit of five years, the purchaser to pay interest annually in advance, and the premises to revert to the State immediately on the failure to pay principal or interest when due. Where lands are sold on credit the purchaser will be required to pay, at the time of sale, the amount due for interest, damages, and costs.
