Women and Dancing.

The following humorous dialogue is taken, we believe, from one of the novels of Dr. Lever, the author of "Tom Burke of Ours:"—

"I believe a woman would do a great deal for a dance," said Dr. Growling; "they are immensely fond of salutatory motion. I remember once in my life I used to flirt with one who was a great favorite in a provincial town where I lived, and she was invited to a ball there, and confided to me she had no stockings to appear in, and without them her presence at the ball was out of the question."

"That was a hint for you to buy the stockings," said Dick.

"No; you're out," said Growling. "She knew that I was as poor as herself; but though she could not rely on my purse, she had every confidence in my taste and judgment, and consulted me on a plan she had for going to the ball in proper twig. Now what do you think it was?"

"To go in cotton, I suppose," returned Dick.

"Out a gain sir—you'd never guess it, and only a woman could have hit on the expedient. It was the fashion in those days for ladies in full dress to wear pink stockings, and she proposed painting her legs!"

"Painting her legs," they all exclaimed.

"Fact, sir," said the doctor, "and she relied on me for telling her if the cheat was successful—

"And was it?" asked Durfy.

"Don't be in a hurry Tom. I complied on one condition, namely—that that I should be the painter.'

"Oh, you old rascal!" said Dick.

"A capital bargain," said Tom Durfy.

"But not a safe covenant," answered the attorney.

"Don't interrupt me gentleman," said the doctor. I got some rose pink accordingly, and I defy all the hosiers in Nottingham to make a lighter hi than I did on Jenny; and a prettier pair of stockings I never saw."

"And she went to the ball?" said Dick.

"She did."

"And the trick succeeded?" asked Durfy.

"So completely, said the doctor, that several ladies asked her to recommend her dyer to them. So you see what a woman will do to go to a dance. Poor little Jenny! she was a merry mimx—by the by, she boxed my ears that night to a joke I made about the stockings.—'Jenny,' said I, 'to fear your stockings should fall down when you are dancing, hadn't you better let me paint a pair of garters on them?'"

CANAL LETTING.

TAILORING.

THE undersigned respectfully informs the citizens of Masonry and vicinity, that they have opened a new Tailoring Establishment on Meridian street, on door south of E. J. Peck's store and at door to Drs. Mears and Bullard's office, where they will be prepared to attend to all kinds of business in the above line, in the neatest and most fashionable manner, and at prices that cannot fail to please. ONEAL & CRACKSON.
Indianapolis, June 25, 1847. 5 6w

That most unpleasant and debilitating complaint—FEVER AND AGUE—with which so many of our citizens are at this time suffering, can now by proper and judicious treatment, be thoroughly cured. For this purpose, MORRILL'S FEVER AND AGUE PILLS are vastly superior to all other remedies; and we find not only the great body of the people appreciating their value, but eminent physicians adopting them in their practice. They not only eradicate the disease, but invigorate and restore the system to perfect order, thus enabling it to withstand disease for the future—precisely what is wanting.

For sale by J. J. Owsley & Co., Indianapolis, and at most other large towns and villages in the State.

When testimonials of the astonishing cures performed by Dr. ROGERS' SYRUP OF LIVERWORT AND TAR in cases of diseased lungs multiply upon us in such a manner, it would seem that no person would suffer with this disease, when the trifling expenditure of one dollar would effectually relieve them. By reference to the agents, we find not only eminent physicians coming boldly out in favor of it, adopting it in their practice, but the reverend clergy are coming out in its favor also. Among others that can be seen at the agents, we noticed letters from Drs. Cox and Richards of Cincinnati; Rev. Mr. Burke, Rev. Sir Wiseman, Rev. Geo. Maley, and others.

It is for sale at Owsley & Co's., and we believe at most other large towns in the State. 10 4w

THE BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

THOSE of our citizens who desire a good medicine, will find one in the justly celebrated pills of Doctor Brandreth, which have performed cures upon thousands of helpless and hopeless persons, after the usual scientific skill of physicians had consoled them with the assurance that they could do no more. The properties of these Pills, as an antibilious and a correct medicine, are unrivalled; all who use them recommend them; their virtues surpass all eulogy, and must be used to be appreciated. The weak and delicate will be strengthened by their use, not by brandy, but by removing the cause of weakness, the gross and corrupt humors of the body. They require no change in the diet, or use of any kind. Plain directions accompany each box, so that every one is his own competent physician.

These pills are for sale by one agent in every town in the State, and at Indianapolis, by C. B. DAVIS, Bookseller, and by SMITH HANNA & Co., these being the only authorized Agents. 4 1y

"Othello's Occupation Gone!"

HAVING lost my situation in the Clerk's office of the Marion Circuit Court, where I have been for nearly seven years engaged, and being consequently hard up for dimes, and having tried in vain to get other employment, I now tender my services to the citizens of Marion county, and particularly the Merchants and business men of Indianapolis. I will if any writing is offered, such as posting books, &c., do the same in a neat manner, and warrant satisfaction. I take pleasure in informing my old friends of the country, that his excellency, the Governor, has appointed me a Notary Public for this county, and that I will take acknowledgments of instruments, or do any other writing for them they may please to offer me. I will be found at my room—No. 56—at the Palmer House. CALVIN F. KOOKER.

Lots at the Depot.

EXPECTING to be absent a considerable portion of time, I have constituted by regular power of attorney, Mr. David Wilkins as my agent, to dispose of any or all of said lots, and give proper certificates of purchase which will be recognized as done by myself, and in every way complied with by me. Persons desirous of obtaining situations had better do so before they fall into second hands, or are unfairly advanced in price. There have been many sales, and good buildings are now being put up, and in from sixty to ninety days, a great deal of business must be done at and around the depot. Call at Mr. David Wilkinson's near the Branch Bank, where maps of the property can be seen, and every information given.
