OCEAN SPRINGS, Lynchburg, Miss.—The undersigned having leased for a term of years these newly discovered and highly valuable Mineral Springs, will open them for the reception of visitors on the 1st of June. They are located about five miles east of Biloxi, Miss., immediately on the sea shore, possessing great advantages for sea bathing, sea air, fishing, etc., etc. They are easy of access at all seasons of the year by fine low pressure boats, which ply daily during the summer, starting from the Lake end of the Pontchartrain Railroad.
The analysis of the water, as made by Dr. J. Lawrence Smith, Professor of Chemistry in the University of Louisiana, proves, beyond a doubt, that the Springs possess mineral qualities of the highest order.
The medicinal virtue of these waters is to be looked for particularly in the oxide of iron and sulphuretted hydrogen, both of which exist in suitable quantities; and it is therefore apparent that many chronic diseases might be cured, or receive important alleviation from the use of these waters, if they could be applied with much advantage."
Amusements of every description will be found on the place. A Hotel capable of accommodating about three hundred persons, has been erected, and the proprietor hopes his long experience in the hotel business in New Orleans will be a sufficient guarantee that his guests will be properly cared for. PRADAT, situated about one mile distant from the village of Biloxi, will be opened on the 1st of June for the reception of visitors.
The "GREEN OAKS" is too well known to need an extended notice. For many years the popularity of the establishment has been steadily increasing. The many natural advantages, commanding the finest view and prospect on the Lake, and receiving the pure salt water as it flows from the Gulf, have not failed to impress favorably the many visitors from New Orleans, Mobile and the surrounding country.
During the Winter the proprietors have made many improvements and additions. The BAR and BILLIARD ROOMS are thoroughly arranged and fitted up, and SAIL BOATS will be at all times at the service of the visitors, free of charge—also CLARET at Dinner.
