WASHINGTON CRITIC

WASHINGTON, APRIL 5, 1887.

THE AWAKING.

The silent great heart of the earth from the dream of deep death is awaking;
Her budding breast yields to the love of the life-giving spirit, undying,
Who bends to enfold her fair beauty, from slumber's white robes warmly breaking;
Her eyelids unclose, and her tresses are stirred by the breath of her sighing.

—[Robert Burns Wilson.

Mr. Gorham's "Life of Stanton."

George C. Gorham, esq. of this city, former Secretary of the United States Senate, has been commissioned by the family of the late Secretary Stanton to write his history and is now engaged in the collection of data for that purpose. Being in New York yesterday he said to a World reporter: "I shall endeavor to give a complete and impartial history of Edwin M. Stanton's life. It is surprising how little is known of the man by the public at large. Of all Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet he seems to be the least talked of to-day and the least appreciated. The papers and documents in my possession will throw much additional light on many disputed points in history, his trouble with McClellan and other matters of importance. So far as is possible it is my purpose to gather together all of Mr. Stanton's private correspondence during his public career."

A MEDICINE, NOT A DRINK.

High Authority.

Hop Bitters is not, in any sense, an alcoholic beverage or liquor, and could not be sold, for use, except to persons desirous of obtaining medicinal bitters.

GREEN B. RAUM,
U. S. Com'r Internal Rev.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24, 1884.

Dear Sir—Why don't you get a certificate from Colonel W. H. W. of Baltimore, showing how he cured himself of drunkenness by the help of Hop Bitters. His is a wonderful case. He is well known in Rochester, N. Y., by all the drinking people there. He is known in this city, Cincinnati, New Orleans, New York; in fact, all over the country, as he has spent thousands of dollars for rum. I honestly believe his card would be worth thousands of dollars to you in this city and Baltimore alone, and make thousands of sober men by inducing the use of your bitters.

J. A. W.

Prejudice Kills.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, and now she is restored to us in good health by Hop Bitters, that we had poohed at two years before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters."
—The Parents—Good Templars.

Milton, Del., Feb. 10, 1886.

Having used Hop Bitters, the noted remedy for debility, nervousness, indigestion, etc., I have no hesitation in saying that it is indeed an excellent medicine, and recommend it to any one as a truly tonic bitters.

Respectfully,
REV. MRS. J. H. ELLGOOD.

Selpio, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1884.

I am the pastor of the Baptist church here and an educated physician. I am not in practice, but am my sole family physician, and advise in chronic cases. Over a year ago I recommended your Hop Bitters to my invalid wife, who has been under medical treatment of Albany's best physicians several years. She has been greatly benefited and still uses the medicine. I believe she will become thoroughly cured of her various complicated diseases by their use. We both recommend them to our friends, many of whom have also been cured of their various ailments by them.

REV. E. R. WARREN.

Cured of Drinking.

"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thirst for liquor that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady; and he has remained a steady and sober man for more than two years, and has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it."—From a leading R. R. Official, Chicago, Ill.

To-morrow, should the weather be favorable, fifty-five lots in Garrett Park will be sold at auction. The terms are only two per cent. cash and the same monthly for forty-nine months thereafter, with interest, that is, if a party buys a lot for $200 he must pay $4 down and $4 a month for the next forty-nine months, with a few cents added for interest. This is a rare opportunity to save and to make money. To every purchaser who will, prior to July 1, 1888, build a house worth $1,000 or more, a liberal rebate from the purchase price will be allowed. Young men, young women, home seekers, investors, here is your opportunity. Seize it promptly. Remember to-morrow, and take the 9:30 a. m. train at the Baltimore and Ohio station for Garrett Park. For plats and information, call on or address Henry N. Copp, No. 822 Eighth street northwest.

As Sober as a Judge.

Randolph Gebner of 725 Seventh street was charged in the Police Court to day with keeping his bar open on Sunday. A Seventh street merchant was summoned as a witness, because he was seen coming out of the place. He swore that he got some oysters in the dining-room and the proprietor treated him to a glass of beer. George J. Gockeler was also called. Mr. John E. Clarke intimated that the witness was not in a condition to testify. "Have you been drinking?" said His Honor to the witness. "I am as sober as a judge," said the witness with a swagger. "Have you drank anything this morning?" "Yes, a glass of water," replied the witness. Case dismissed.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all throat, lung and chest affections. Trial bottles free at Stott, Cromwell & Co.'s drug store.

We Caution All Against Them.

The unprecedented success and merit of Ely's Cream Balm—a real cure for catarrh, hay fever and cold in head—has induced many adventurers to place catarrh medicines bearing some resemblance in appearance, style or name upon the market, in order to trade upon the reputation of Ely's Cream Balm. Don't be deceived. Buy only Ely's Cream Balm. Many in your immediate locality will testify in highest commendation of it. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use. Price 50 cents.

CLOTHING.

Took Notice!

We have moved our store from No. 1112 F street to No. 631 Penna. Ave., near 7th st., adjoining St. Marc Hotel, where we shall be pleased to see all our customers.

RETURN OF THE

PIONEER CLOTHIER!

OF SEVENTH ST. N. W.

After spending several years manufacturing clothing in Baltimore, I have returned to Washington and located at 924 7th st. n. w., where I shall be pleased to see all my old friends and customers, and as many new ones as desire to get the best made and trimmed clothing at lowest prices. Our motto is the best goods at lowest prices. Wear one good for a year; if they don't turn out as we recommend, you can have your money. We don't want your money without giving you an honest dollar's worth of goods for every dollar you pay us. We do want your custom, and we do want your influence in sending others to us. We desire to build up as large a trade as we had here when serving you with clothing. We did not leave Washington before because we had to, but our stores were located below F, on 7th st., and they graded the street and left our floors just seven feet above the pavement. The landlord was in Paris. Business had been forced off the streets for months owing to the deep cuts on F st., and on 7th st. we could get no store to suit us at that time in the city, and was forced to move out, leaving a splendid business. Still the march of improvements demanded the grading of the streets, and individual losses could not stand in the way of public improvements. it was a great loss to me; but the system of public improvements then inaugurated has made Washington a beautiful city, and I am here to stay now, and to sell the best clothing in the city. Who of the older residenters does not remember Smith, the clothier, of 7th st., the original Oak Hall clothier? Not a man, woman or child but knew the store. We were then among the four leading clothiers and tailors of the city—Wall, Stephens & Co., Noah Walker & Co., Odeon Hall and Smith's were the places then. We intend to make Smith the place again.

While we are a little farther up Seventh street than we desired, we could not secure a store lower down. Our rent is lower, and we can sell cheaper, better clothing, at lower prices, the result of low expenses. We are now opening the early or advanced style of best Tailor-Made Clothing for Men, Boys and Children. We have all grades and qualities, and we want your trade. Men's Suits from $6 to $30. Boys', $4.50 to $10, and Children's Suits from $2.50 up to $7. We have a special drive in a thousand pairs of Knee Pants; ages 4 to 13, at 25c. and 35, 37½ and 50c. pants for 50c. to close out. Come to SMITH'S, the Clothier to the people, for the people. Money saved and money made by coming to SMITH'S, 924 7th st. w. between I and K sts. two doors below Burdette's.

SMITH! SMITH! SMITH!

J. W. Selby,

1914-1916 PENN. AVE. N. W.,

Washington, D. C.

In the olden Greek days women only wore shoes. Such men as Socrates, Phocion and Cato generally went barefoot. In time, however, the women were and men came to wear shoes constantly. It may be forgotten by many that this debt is owed to the descendants of Eve. Let the Husbands, Fathers and Brothers of this generation pay the debt of appreciation and gratitude by supplying the ladies and children of their homes liberally and bountifully with this necessary article. There is no place where shoes can be bought and this debt be paid at less cost to the men folks than at my store.

I CURE FITS!

When I say cure I do not mean merely to stop them for a time and then have them return again, I mean a radical cure. I have made the disease of FITS, EPILEPSY or FALLING SICKNESS a life-long study. I warrant my remedy to cure the worst cases. Because others have failed is no reason for not now receiving a cure. Send at once for a treatise and a Free Bottle of my infallible remedy. Give Express and Post Office. It costs you nothing for a trial, and I will cure you. DR. H. G. ROOT, 183 Pearl St., N. Y.
