INDIANA STATE SENTINEL

Indianapolis, May 2. 1849.] SEMI-WEEKLY. [Volume IV——Number 102.

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES AND MEASURES.

A strict construction of the Constitution, and no assumption of doubtful powers.

A Diplomacy asking for nothing but what is clearly right and submitting to nothing wrong.

No connexion between the government and banks.

An ad valorem revenue tariff.

No public debt, either by the General Government or by the States, except for objects of urgent necessity.

No assumption by the General Government of the debts of the States, either directly or indirectly, by a distribution of the proceeds of the public lands.

No extensive system of Internal Improvement by the General Government or by the States.

A constitutional barrier against improvident State loans.

The honest payment of our debts and the sacred preservation of the public faith.

A gradual return from a paper credit system.

No grants of exclusive charters and privileges by special legislation to banks.

No swindling corporations.

No connexion between Church and State.

A preference for Democrats over Whigs for every office.

Acquiescence in the rule of the majority in all cases of party discipline.

No proscription for honest opinions.

Fostering aid to public education.

A "progressive" reformation of all abuses.

PUBLIC LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

BY AUTHORITY.

Acts and Resolutions, passed at the Second Session of the Thirtieth Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 40.]

AN ACT to authorize the coinage of gold dollars and double eagles.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be, from time to time, struck and coined at the mint of the United States, and the branches thereof, conformably in all respects to law, (except that on the reverse of the gold dollar the figure of the eagle shall be omitted,) and conformably in all respects to the standard for gold coins now established by law, coins of gold of the following denominations and values, viz: double eagles, each to be of the value of twenty dollars, or units, and gold dollars, each to be of the value of one dollar, or unit.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That for all sums whatever the double eagle shall be a legal tender for twenty dollars, and the gold dollars shall be a legal tender for one dollar.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all laws now in force in relation to the coins of the United States, and the striking and coining the same, shall, so far as applicable, have full force and effect in relation to the coins herein authorized, whether the said laws are penal or otherwise; and whether they are for preventing counterfeiting or debasement, for protecting the currency, for regulating and guarding the process of striking and coining, and the preparations therefore, or for the security of the coin, or for any other purpose.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in adjusting the weights of gold coins henceforward, the following deviations from the standard weight shall not be exceeded in any of the single pieces—namely, in the double eagle, the eagle, and the half eagle, one half of a grain and in the quarter eagle, and gold dollar, one quarter of a grain; and that, in weighing a large number of pieces together, when delivered from the chief coiner to the treasurer, and from the treasurer to the depositors, the deviation from the standard weight shall not exceed three pennyweights in one thousand double eagles; two pennyweights in one thousand eagles; one and one-half pennyweights in one thousand half eagles; one pennyweigh in one thousand quarter eagles; and half a pennyweight in one thousand gold dollars.

ROBT. C. WINTHROP,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
G. M. DALLAS,
Vice President of the United States, and President of the Senate.

Approved March 3, 1849. JAMES K. POLK.

[PUBLIC—No. 41.]

AN ACT requiring all moneys receivable from customs and from all other sources, to be paid immediately into the treasury without abatement or reduction, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That from and after the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, the gross amount of all duties received from customs, from the sales of public lands, and from all miscellaneous sources, for the use of the United States, shall be paid by the officer or agent receiving the same into the treasury of the United States, at as early a day as practicable, without any abatement or deduction on account of salary, fees, costs, charges, expenses, or claims of any description whatever: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter the existing laws regulating the collection of the revenues of the Post Office Department.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That so much money as may be necessary for the payment of debentures or drawbacks, bounties and allowances, which are or may be authorized and payable after the day aforesaid, be and the same are hereby appropriated for that purpose out of any money in the treasury, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of that department, according to the laws authorizing said debentures or drawbacks, bounties and allowances: Provided, That the collectors of the customs shall be the disbursing agents to pay the aforesaid debentures, drawbacks, bounties, and allowances; and that all debenture certificates issued according to law shall be received in payment of duties at the custom-house where the same has been issued, the laws regulating the drawbacks having been complied with.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to submit to Congress, at the commencement of the next regular session, estimates of appropriations which may be required to provide for the expenses of collecting the revenue from customs, and also for the public lands, for the second half of the next fiscal year, and separate estimates for the said purpose for the year ending the thirtieth June, eighteen hundred and fifty, and similar estimates from year to year thereafter.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted, That so much money as may be necessary to pay the expenses of collections referred to in the next preceding section, including the first half of the next fiscal year, and until specific appropriations for the objects shall be made by Congress, be and the same are hereby appropriated, out of any money in the treasury, to be expended after the thirtieth June, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, under the direction of the Secretary thereof, conformable to law and regulation: Provided, That the expenses of collecting the revenue from customs shall not thereafter exceed the sum of one million five hundred and sixty thousand dollars per annum, together with such sums as under the law are paid into the treasury for drayage, cartage, labor, and storage, and in proportion for a less time.

SECTION 5. And be it further enacted, That from and after the thirtieth day of June next all imports subject to duty and whereon the duties are not paid when assessed, shall be deposited in the public warehouse, from whence they may be taken out for immediate exportation under the provisions of that act, at any time within two years, and on payment of the duties may be withdrawn for consumption within the United States at any time within one year; but no goods subject to duty shall be hereafter entered for drawback, or exported for drawback, after they are withdrawn from the custody of the officers of the customs: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained is intended to modify the laws relating to export of goods to Canada or Chihuahua, if the goods when entered for export are immediately taken out of the United States, nor is it intended hereby to modify the laws in relation to pickled fish or refined sugar.

SECTION 6. And be it further enacted, That the solicitor of the Treasury, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall require from all collectors, and surveyors acting as collectors, new bonds with sufficient sureties, for such sum and in such form as shall be prescribed by said Secretary. The said new bonds to be taken before the day fixed for this act to take effect. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury, at the commencement of each session of Congress, to report to each house a statement or statements, presenting the amount of money expended at each custom-house in the United States, during the fiscal year next preceding, and also the number of persons employed, and the occupation and salary of each person at each of the said custom-houses during the period aforesaid.

Approved March 3, 1849.

[PUBLIC—No. 42.]

AN ACT to extend the provisions of all laws now in force relating to the carriage of passengers in merchant vessels, and the regulation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all vessels bound from any port in the United States to any port or place in the Pacific ocean, or on its tributaries, or from any such port or place to any port in the United States on the Atlantic, or its tributaries, shall be subject to the provisions of all the laws now in force relating to the carriage of passengers in merchant vessels, sailing to and from foreign countries, and the regulation thereof, except the fourth section of the "Act to provide for the ventilation of passenger vessels, and for other purposes," approved May seventeenth, eighteen hundred and forty-eight, relating to provisions, water, and fuel, but the owners and masters of all such vessels shall in all cases furnish to each passenger the daily supply of water therein mentioned, and they shall furnish or cause the passengers to furnish for themselves, a supply of good and whole-some food; and in case they shall fail to so do, or shall provide unwholesome or unsuitable provisions, they shall be subject to the penalty provided in said fourth section in case the passengers are put on short allowances of water or provisions.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the act entitled "An act to regulate the carriage of passengers in merchant vessels," approved February twenty-second, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, shall be so amended as that a vessel passing into or through the tropics shall be allowed to carry the same number of passengers as vessels that do not enter the tropics.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect on and after the fifteenth day of March, eighteen hundred and forty-nine.

Approved March 3, 1849.

[PUBLIC—No 43.]

AN ACT to extend the revenue laws of the United States over the territory and waters of Upper California, and to create a collection district therein.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the revenue laws of the United States be and are hereby extended to and over the main land and waters of all that portion of territory ceded to the United States by the "treaty of peace, friendship, and limits, between the United States of America and the Mexican republic," concluded on the second day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-eight, heretofore designated and known as Upper California.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all the ports, harbors, bays, and waters of the main land of the territory of Upper California, shall constitute, a collection district by the name of Upper California; and a port of entry shall be, and is hereby, established for said district at San Francisco, on the bay of San Francisco, and a collector of customs shall be appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to reside at said port of entry.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That ports of delivery shall be, and are hereby, established in the collection district aforesaid at San Diego, Monterey, and at some convenient point within the territory of the United States, to be selected by the Secretary of the Treasury as near as may be to the junction of the rivers Gila and Colorado, at the head of the Gulf of California; and the collector of the said district of California is hereby authorized to appoint, with the appropriation of the Secretary of the Treasury, three deputy collectors, to be stationed at the ports of delivery aforesaid.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the collector of said district shall be allowed a compensation of fifteen hundred dollars per annum and the fees and commissions allowed by law; and the said deputy collectors shall each be allowed a compensation of one thousand per annum and the fees and commissions allowed by law.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That, until otherwise provided by law, all violations of the revenue laws of the United States committed within the district of Upper California shall be prosecuted in the district court of Louisiana or the supreme court of Oregon, which courts shall have original jurisdiction, and may take cognizance of all cases arising under the revenue laws in the said district of Upper California, and shall proceed therein in the same manner and with the like effect as if such cases had arisen within the district or territory where the prosecution shall be brought.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the tenth day of March next.

Approved March 3, 1849.

[PUBLIC No. 44.]

AN ACT to settle the title to certain tracts of land in the State of Arkansas.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That each and every owner of a Spanish or French land claim, or any part thereof, in the State of Arkansas, which was submitted for adjudication to the superior court of the late Territory of Arkansas, and by that court confirmed, being a bona fide subsequent purchaser for a valuable consideration, is hereby authorized to enter, within one year from the passage of this act, the land covered by said claim, or less quantity thereof, to be embraced in any legal subdivision, at the minimum price, under such regulations as the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall prescribe: Provided, however, That the owner aforesaid shall be an occupant or cultivator of said land.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That after the lapse of two years from the approval of this act, the sale of the lands embraced by the decree of the superior court of Arkansas, which were on bills of review reversed, and which the President was, by the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-two, required to reserve from sale, which may then remain the property of the United States, shall no longer be reserved from sale by the President of the United States, and that the same may be brought into market under the existing laws.

Approved March 3, 1849.

CHOLERA PREVENTIVE AND CURATIVE.

THIS valuable preparation has proved itself decidedly the most efficacious preventive and curative of cholera (and every other form or species of diarrhœa) that has yet been discovered. Dysentery cordial for weak stomachs, particularly adapted to the relief and comfort of children. Warm drops to allay irritation of the stomach and prevent vomiting. Bathing drops to give tone and vigor to the skin. All of which are confidently recommended as a preventive and cure of cholera, if taken reasonably and according to directions.

In addition to our former stock we have just received from the Phœnix Laboratory, an ample supply of fresh and genuine Botanic Medicines, all of which can be had at reduced prices at the Drug and Variety Store of A. POPE & SON.

TO MILLERS AND SPECULATORS!
Important Invention!
PATENT BRAN DUSTER!

THE Subscribers have invented a NEW MACHINE for Separating Flour from Bran, which exceeds anything of the kind now in use.

The Machine has been tested, and is now in use in the Albion Stone Mill, H. P. Holbrook's New Mill at Plymouth, Volney Chapin's Mill, Ann Arbor, H. H. Forsyth & Co's. Mill, Mamme City, Hoagland & Comstock, City Mills; Samuel Edsall, Empire Mills, at Fort Wayne; S. Fargues, Bristol; and Henrick & Sanger, South Bend, Indiana.

It has been demonstrated that a barrel of flour can be made out of four bushels and from two to four pounds of wheat, by using this Machine.

We are manufacturing the Machine, at Albion, Michigan.

This is to certify that we have in operation in the Empire Mills, at Fort Wayne City, each one of Frost & Monroe's Bran Dusters, now running to our entire satisfaction, and yields four barrels of good flour from each hundred manufactured, and we recommend it to all millers with confidence. SAML. EDSALL,
Fort Wayne, April 6, 1849. HOAGLAND & COMSTOCK.

☞The above machine is for sale in this city, by G. W. DRYER,
101-2w Agent for Frost & Monroe, Inventors.
