TO PLASTERS, BUILDERS, etc.
SOUTHERN FIRE-PROOF ROOFING.
The undersigned offers to the public a Fire-Proof Roofing material possessing the following advantages over everything of the kind which has heretofore been discovered:
It is cheaper than SLATE, will last as long, needs NO REPAIRING, and when finished has the appearance of STONE. It is incombustible; it is impervious to water, is affected by the atmosphere or by the sun, and is a non-conductor of heat.
It can be applied to any species of roofs, flat or inclined; may be applied to the sides of houses, taking the place of stucco or cement, and will give a building so covered the exterior appearance of being constructed of stone.
For the roofs of cars, omnibuses, and steamboats, it is invaluable, and would render railroad ties imperishable when coated with it, as they would no longer be exposed to the atmosphere or the water.
It is flexible when applied to silk or cloth, and will not crack, nor is it to renovate by any chemical process.

OFFICE LOUISIANA MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY, New Orleans, D. cember 19, 1857.
This is to certify, that after long experience of the character of the "SOUTHERN FIRE-PROOF ROOFING," I have had the galvanized iron roof of my residence covered with it; that I am perfectly convinced of its durability and great imperviousness to water, and from its durability and great tenacity, I am of opinion that it is admirably calculated for roofing on houses, as properly put on, no roof covered with it can possibly leak around the chimneys or elsewhere.
CHARLES BRIGGS.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 24, 1857.
We do hereby certify that we have used the "SOUTHERN FIRE-PROOF ROOFING," of Messrs. GLENNON, COLEMAN & CO., and find it satisfactory as a protection against both fire and water.
The skylight in our office has been for a number of years in a leaky condition, having defied all attempts heretofore made for the prevention of same, until we used this justly celebrated "Southern Fire-Proof Roofing." It is now entirely free from any annoyance, and we feel that we can safely recommend it to the public.
