CITY NEWS PARAGRAPHS.

—Mrs. Simons, an aged colored woman, died suddenly in Goat Alley, about 5 o'clock yesterday morning, without medical attention.

—The contest for the various articles that are to be voted for at St. Joseph's Fair began last night and the indications point to a spirited rivalry among the competing candidates.

—The Oak Bluffs Club, of Martha's Vineyard, have presented the National Rifles with a handsome framed picture of their Club House. The Rifles were the guests of the Club during their summer vacation.

—At the celebration of the 4th anniversary of the Carriage Makers' Assembly of the District last night six new members were initiated. The initiation was followed by a banquet enlivened by several speeches.

—Yesterday afternoon John Wheland, a bricklayer employed on a house on Dunbarton avenue, fell from the wall where he was working and had three ribs broken. He was sent to the Providence Hospital.

—R. W. Barker, A. T. Whiting, and R. S. Scott were excused from service as jurors in the Criminal Court this morning, and P. W. Royce, G. C. Markwood and J. W. Waters were accepted in their stead.

—Wesley Corler and Vienna Pinket; E. Evevett Wagner and Lena Marshall; Jno. J. Gray, of Baltimore, Maryland, and Helen M. Weaver; Albert H. Fuller and Melvina McCayo, have been granted marriage licenses.

—Several members were initiated last night at the meeting of the Clerks' Assembly L. A. 6,451 Knights of Labor. The meeting was held at Elks' Hall, which hereafter will be the Assembly's permanent place of meeting.

—While on her way to the pump for a bucket of water Priscilla Evans, an old colored woman, employed at the corner of 4 1-2 and N streets, southwest, was siezed with hemorrhage of the lungs and before assistance could be given she died.

—The stockholders of the American Graphopone Company held their annual meeting yesterday at Harper's Ferry. The present board of directors were re-elected. J. H. Lippincott, the sole licensee, has called upon the company for one hundred instruments per day.

—The following officers have been elected by the Washington Butchers' Beneficial Association for the ensuing year: Fred Dietz, president; Frank Weigant, vice-president; John Braun, secretary; A. Loeffler, treasurer, and C. Wagner, George Carll and Carl Mueller, finance committee.

—For the benefit of his creditors, Henry Trine, jr., doing business at 1446 Seventh street, northwest, has made an assignment to Edward A. Newman. Preferences are given to E. Rasher, Henry Trine, sr., L. C. Koehler & Co., H. D. Cochran, McCadden & McElwee, H. A. Linger, and Bernard Bailey.

—The new freight depot of the Baltimore & Potomac Depot, now being constructed on the company's lot at the intersection of Sixth and Virginia avenue, is almost completed. The freight house is about sixty feet in width, and extends from Virginia avenue to C street southeast.

—Clayton King held a festival at his residence last night on Grant avenue near Boundary. James Willis objected to paying an admission fee to attend the reception and swore at the doorkeeper. He paid $2.50 for each of the words constituting his profanity in the Police Court this morning.

—James Frawley was charged by Agent Key, of the Humane Society, this morning in the Police Court with cruelty to animals by working an ale-foundered horse. Agent Key testified that the horse was lame and hardly able to walk. A veterinary surgeon swore that he had prescribed exercise as a mode of treatment for the disease. Personal bonds were given.

—John P. Hooke, a freight conductor on the B. & P. Railroad, was thrown from his train last night about 7:30 o'clock and fell under the wheels. The train passed over his legs, cutting them off just below the knees. He was taken to Providence Hospital where he died this morning. He was thirty-three years old and leaves a wife and four children, who reside in Baltimore.

—The railroad committee of the Georgetown Citizens' Association were to have met Superintendent Carter, of the B. & P. Road, at Passenger Agent Parke's office yesterday, but only Messrs. John Leitch and Robert Tonney appeared. It was decided that the committee should compile statistics of Georgetown's business, before any action was taken relative to extending the Alexandria & Fredericksburg Road to the New Bridge.

—Mr. Henry Ward Hicks, of Ann Arbor, Mich., who is at the National Hotel with his father, Col. Walter S. Hicks, was taken sick a few days ago from a contraction of the muscles of the left side of his throat, superinduced by a couple of ulcerated jaw teeth. The contraction became so strong that it was found necessary to pry his mouth open with an iron bar in order to extract the teeth. The young man is a law student at the university of Michigan.

AT THE THEATRES.

Albaugh's—"Judge Not."

There was not an overwhelming audience at Albaugh's last night to greet Miss Effie Elisler and her company in "Judge Not," but it was fair, and there was not a man, woman or child there who was not more than pleased with Miss Elisler, her play and her people. "Judge Not" is one of those really pretty plays, in which pathos and humor blend harmoniously, and on which heart, rather than art, sits in judgment. Miss Elisler, as the wronged wife, was a happy combination of gentleness and spirit, as she always is, and the dresses she wears in the last two acts are warranted to provoke envy in the most indifferent female heart. Mr. Frank Weston, from the start, had the audience and enlisted the sympathy and admiration of every woman in the house. A little less facial extravagance, and his play would be very nearly the thing sought.

Mr. McDowell is over-tragic in countenance as Phillip Vane and needs a lighter touch. Miss Hadley's Ethel was quite well done, and Miss Laurens' Lady Chaimers slightly overdone. Mr. Taylor's Lord Ferndale, Mr. Reynier's Rupert, and Miss Windram's Lady Chalmers fitted comfortably into their appointed places. The denouement was startling and pleasing, and if the kid be dressed hereafter as tastefully as its mamma, its success will be overwhelming. Again to-night and Wednesday matinee

"Lady Margaret."

Friday night Miss Effie Elisler will present at Albaugh's her new historical play, "Lady Margaret," for the first time on any stage. The play will be repeated at the matinee Saturday and Saturday night.

"The Private Secretary."

The audience which witnessed the performance of the "Private Secretary" at the New National Theatre last night was a large one and a merry one withal. The play is familiar to Washington theatre goers but has lost none of its mirth-provoking features since its last presentation here. Gillette's place in the title role was assayed by Mr. Raymond Holmes and filled in a highly satisfactory manner to the audience, judging by the continuous ripple of amusement in which he kept them. He has introduced some new business. Mr. Harry Allen as old Cottermole, the indulgent uncle to the profligate young nephew, presented some good work and his delineation of that character was strong and well sustained. Mr. Charles J. Bell was the ideal of a handsome and scampish young man about town and bore himself naturally. His boon companion, Harry, was well represented by Mr. John Archer, while Mr. H. G. Bradley as Gibson, the vulgar and obtrusive tailor, and Mr. T. H. Joyce as Mr. Marsland, the country squire, acquitted themselves with equal credit. Miss Sydney Cowell, an attractive actress who has won a high reputation by faithful work, gave a pleasing picture of the Squire's daughter, a romantic school girl, as was also her schoolmate, Miss Eleanor Lane, as Eva. Miss Rose Snyder's impersonation of the English landlady was capital, and the parts of Miss Ashford, a spinster, and Mrs. Spaulding, wife of the Secretary, were taken by Miss Rose Snyder and Miss Lizzie Morse.

"True Irish Hearts."

"True Irish Hearts" filled Harris' Bijou Theatre to the doors last night with a thoroughly sympathetic audience that alternated between laughter and applause the evening through. The play is exceptionally well put on, the scene representing Killarney by moonlight and the church-yard sets being especially artistic. The cave scene, too, in which the unfortunate hero, Lauty Lannigan, slides down a rope into the cave and rescues a young lady, is a strong situation well done. The piece is replete with songs and Irish wit and the play's author, Dan McCarthy, does some excellent Irish jig and wing dancing, at which Miss Coleman and Miss Polly Holmes are also very clever. Gus Reynolds makes an excellent Lauty Lannigan, sustaining the leading role with a fine stage presence and a good voice. Miss Kitty Coleman as Kitty Brady, Lauty's betrothed, is a handsome Irish lass and the rest of the parts, from the villain to the black bear and the bulldog and the baby, are all in competent hands. No one, Irish or not, can do better than enjoy this hearty, wholesome Irish play. All the week.

Tony Pastor's Company.

Tony Pastor's ever-deservedly popular aggregation holds the boards at Kernan's this week. The handsome new house was early packed to its fullest capacity, and every turn was encored. It was two hours and a-half of solid fun. The songs are new and catchy, and Tony Pastor himself has abated not a jot in popularity. The song and dance teams were unusually clever, and Bibb and Bobb, the grotesque musical eccentriques, captured the audience by storm. Little Tich's dancing is an entirely unique feature, and an excellent one. A better variety bill than Tony Pastor puts up this week is rare. He is at Kernan's the rest of this week, with matinees to-day, Thursday and Saturday.

Miss Brown's Lecture.

A comfortably-sized crowd heard Miss Marie Brown's lecture on Sweden, at the Congregational Church last night, for the benefit of the Woman's Industrial and Educational Union, and received therefrom much pleasure and profit. The lecture was abundant in fact and fancy, and the stereopticon illustrations were unusually fine. Miss Brown will lecture again Friday night, the subject being "From North Cape to Bergen."

THE TEMPERANCE CAUSE.

Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the District W. C. T. U.

The fourteenth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia began its session this morning at 9:30 o'clock, at the Congregational Church at the corner of Tenth and G streets. The meeting was opened with devotional exercises led by Mrs. M. E. Merrick. This was followed by the roll call of officers and superintendents, and the appointment of committees. The president's address, by Mrs. S. D. LaFetra, was attentively listened to.

The platform was tastefully decorated with flags and tropical plants. In the center of the platform was a life-sized crayon portrait of Miss Frances E. Willard. Appropriate mottoes were conspicuously displayed. About sixty ladies were present, most of whom had passed the meridian. Here and there, however, could be seen a pert young face. Only two gentlemen were present.

Mrs. Alexander Hunt was appointed superintendent of the Department of Narcotics. Mrs. Cohen, Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. Merrick were appointed committees on credentials. Mrs. Boyer was appointed chairman of the committee on resolutions with Mrs. Cattin, Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. Platt and Mrs. Keisler as umpires.

Mrs. C. Evelyn Gilbert reported on the progress of juvenile and Sunday school work and Mrs. Hannah Cresby on work among foreigners. After the noon recess Miss Jennie Smith, the National superintendent of railroad work, led in devotional exercises. Mrs Lizzie C. Keisler, the corresponding secretary, read her report; Mrs. M. A. Weaver discussed legislation and petitions; Mrs. Nellie H. Bradley, impure literature; Mrs. H. H. Hendrickson, prison and jail work; Mrs. L. E. Deane, unfermented wine; Mrs. Sallie Denham, the flower mission; Mrs. F. A. Williams, work among colored people. A mass meeting will be held to-night.

The Brightest Ornament.

Columbus Wilson, Charles Gray and Walter Moten attended a concert at the Salem Baptist Church last night on Champlain avenue, in the county. They made "confusion" in the church, as one of the witnesses expressed it, and when the door-keeper tried to eject them they objected and commenced to clean out the church people. Officers were sent for, and when they arrived the men cursed them and resisted arrest. The colored society of Champlain avenue will lose its brightest ornaments for a while, as Judge Miller fined Wilson and Moten $20 each and Gray $5 in the Police Court this morning.

Burial Permits Issued.

Burial permits have been issued the past 24 hours by the Health Officer as follows: John F. Bauer, 67 years; Margaret Ann Kipp, 75 years; Florence A. Means, 7 months; John Lyons, 58 years; John F. Hake, 23 years, Thomas Hanlgan, 3 years; Henry Kurz, 64 years; and the following colored: Gertrude Luckett, 17 years; Magdalon Duvall, 8 years; Hattie L. Addison, 14 years; Lilly Dean, 11 years; Kitty Simmons, 72 years; Susan Payne, 60 years; James Fontray, 1 year; Bettie J. Gilbert, 26 years.

The Reichstag will reassemble on November 20.

General Sporting Notes.

The members of the Chicago baseball team were among the President's callers yesterday afternoon. They were accompanied by Representative Lawler, who presented them to the President. Captain Anson had quite a chat with the President and endeavored to secure his interest in the contemplated trip to Australia.

The winners at Jerome Park yesterday were Banner Bearer, Firenzi, Fresno, Badge, Kaloolah and Huntress.

Winners yesterday at Latonia were Bolster, Stuart, Tenny, Leontine, Brother Ben and Adrienne.

Governor Hill has written a letter congratulating the New York Club upon winning the League championship. Congressman Amos J. Cummings will present the pennant.

At Fleetwood yesterday the winners were Ferdinand and St. Louis.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Recent Happenings of Interest Condensed for the Hasty Reader.

A Democratic move on a solid business-like plan is the canal-boat that started from Buffalo, N. Y., last evening to make the canvass of the Republican counties along the Erie canal. It is a plan originating with the League of Democratic Clubs, and is expected to prove of excellent service. The boat is named Thomas Jefferson and will carry several good speakers, led by Congressman C. R. Breckinridge, who will talk and debate on the Tariff and distribute 200,000 campaign documents.

The Czar and Czarina spent Saturday at Nowo-Kossijisk. They afterwards went on board the imperial yacht Moskwa, and escorted by nine men-of-war, steamed to Batoum, where they were accorded a hearty reception. The Emperor and Empress afterwards laid the foundation stone of a new orthodox cathedral.

The budget for the Dutch East Indies shows a deficit of $4,200,000. The finance minister proposed to increase by one florin the native license tax for the cultivation of coffee, and to appoint a royal commission to inquire as to means for developing the coffee industry.

The New York Labor Union has nominated James J. Crogan for mayor. The Republicans will nominate a straightout candidate, and will try to make capital for their national ticket out of Mr. Hewitt's nomination by the County Democracy.

Joseph W. McCann, the famous type-setter, won a wager of $25 yesterday in New York by setting 2,127 ems of type within an hour. It was solid nonpareil, and he had to correct his proof.

Mr. John Morely delivered a speech last evening in London. He said that government apathy had raised the Irish question, and was now raising a similar movement in Wales.

Rain and snow have been falling incessantly in Styria for three days, compelling the Emperors to remain much of the time indoors.

It is rumored that Chief Secretary Balfour has refused to allow military to assist at the evictions on the Clanricarde estate.

Premier Floquet, of France, has decided that foreigners wintering in the Riviera shall not be amenable to the new decree.

The Prince of Wales has joined the Crown Prince Rudolph in Transylvania, where the two will go bear-hunting.

The long strike of the Havana cigar-makers is considered at an end, although several of the factories are still closed.

Investigating the Collision.

The conductor and engineer of the freight train, which was run into by the express near Dickerson's on Saturday night, will be summoned before the B. and O. court of inquiry, which will meet Friday at Mount Clare. The board is composed of Superintendent J. J. Fairbank, Superintendent of Engines Joseph Fooney and Train-master M. W. Maguire. Both of the wrecked engines were taken to Mount Clare. The charge of overwork, causing loss of sleep, is hooted at by the B. and O. officials, who say their records show that the freight men were not on continuous duty more than thirteen hours.

Joseph T. Jeffries, the engineer who was hurt in the collision, was resting easy yesterday. The attending physician thinks the chances for his recovery are favorable. His right eye is entirely closed, and there is a severe bruise on the left side of his head, back of the ear. The other men who were injured are improving.

The funeral of John Casey, one of the postal clerks who was killed, took place at his residence, 318 C street northwest, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The services were conducted according to the rites of the Catholic Church, and the remains were temporarily placed in the vault at Glenwood Cemetery prior to removal to Richmond, where they will be interred.

Attention

Is called to the advertisement of desirable building lots in the Belair Heights subdivision offered for sale at investment rates by Fitch, Fox and Brown.

They Came to Blows.

Nancy Harris and Kate Lewis are two colored women who have not been on the best of terms for some time, and yesterday they met on Market street, in George town. A challenge to fight was at once accepted, but the bout had not proceeded far when an officer placed them under arrest. Judge Miller ordered a cessation of hostilities for the next month.

DRY GOODS NEWS

BY

Woodward & Lothrop.

The fall trade may be said to be fairly underway. The store is brim-full of the season's best productions, both foreign and domestic. Our preparations for the coming season's business have been on a greater scale than ever before, and we are in a position to cater to your wants to better advantage than was ever otherwise possible.

GREAT SILK BARGAINS.

A fortunate purchase of Guinet's Best Black Imported Silks enables us to offer our customers the greatest values in these world-renowned fabrics ever placed on sale. The forced stagnation of the trade in the far South is being felt in that commercial heart-centre, New York, and importers are compelled to find a sale for the goods that would otherwise have gone into that section.

We are always on the alert and have just secured, among other goods, five lots of Guinet's Black Silks, which we propose to unload at a small advance, thus retailing this most reliable brand at the lowest prices it has been known to reach.

Lot 1, Qual. E, only 87½c per yard.
Lot 2, Qual. D, only 94c per yard.
Lot 3, Qual C, only $1 per yard.
Lot 4, Qual. B, only $1.12½ per yard.
Lot 5, Qual. A, only $1.20 per yard.

We refrain from quoting the usual selling prices of these five qualities, confident that your discerning judgment will instantly recognize their great intrinsic value.

"OPENING" OF READY-MADE GARMENTS.

The entire third floor has on its best dress this week. Every line is full of the best-of-the-season's styles and qualities. Ladies' Suits, Jackets, Wraps, both long and short; Newmarkets, Raglans, Modjeskas, &c. Children's and Misses Suits, Jackets, Cloaks, Newmarkets, &c. Ladies' Flannel Wraps and Wrappers, Tea Gowns &c., of other materials. The entire floor is in "dress parade," and we beg you will give it an inspection. As we purchased only one, two and a few of some of the extreme styles, we suggest to those of our customers who wish something "exclusive" to call early in the week. Bargains will be offered, and especially in the lower grades.
