THE DAILY RECORD-UNION.

THE MISSOURI MASTODON.

Several years ago, a Dr. Koch placed on exhibition the bones of a large animal he found in Gasconade County, Missouri. He had arranged the bones with but little idea of their proper relationship, turned the head upside down, and represented it as having canine teeth adapted to a carnivore, —the tusks, in reality,—alleging that the animal fed himself with his fore feet. J. D. Dana, the geologist, and O. C. Marsh, the paleontologist, went into an examination of the relics, effectually scalping the Doctor, and, while crediting him with being an assiduous collector of bones, dubbed him an ass and a falsifier. The Doctor claimed that he had found arrow-heads with the bones, which would make it appear that man was contemporaneous with these mammals on this continent. However willing scientists might have been to accept any proofs of such a statement, Dr. Koch's unsupported claim of the arrow-head find was too much for them to swallow in the absence of indications in any other part of the country that man existed previous to the last end of the tertiary formation or just before the post-tertiary. Marsh says there is considerable evidence of man's existence on this continent during our pliocene, and Dr. Koch's arrows would have added to the evidence had not the falsehoods in which he was detected discredited all he might say beyond the mere undisputed bone-discovery. Koch described the several layers through which he dug to exhume the mammoth's remains, stopping only short of the old red sandstone; when the facts were proven that the mammoth was found in a peat-bog, the bones being pulled up from the muck by reaching down poles and arms. We thought these matters were settled long ago; but, to our surprise, here appears Bryant's History of the United States, with the capture of the Missouri mastodon depicted on page 11. Bryant does not tell us the names of the savages exactly, but he represents them surrounding the dying nondescript,—all of them, like the Cupids in Biddy's valentine, with more bows and arrows than breeches, striving to fill his hide with paleolithic memorials of their existence, evidently fully conscious that millions of years afterward Dr. Koch was to beguile Bryant into recording their arrow-heads along with Washington's hatchet and the nickel-plated spade with which Grant planted the tree in South Park, as among the utensils worthy of being embalmed in the American recollection. In literature pretending to exactness, no greater disservice can be rendered truth-seekers than committing just such blunders. Partisanship may be useful in these fields, by enabling the judge to discriminate between assertion and counter-assertion. Histories claiming to be exact should have such matter carefully sifted before introducing it to readers as fact.—[Chicago Tribune.

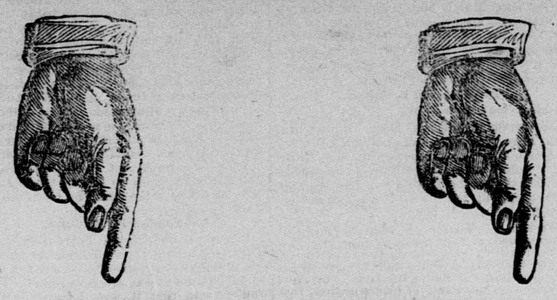
THE RED HOUSE TRADE UNION.



OUR MOTTO:

"Be Sure That You Are Right, Then Go Ahead!"

Having noticed from the quotations of WOOL, September last, and the quotations from the manufacturers of SHEETINGS and other Domestics, and that the voice of most of the Wholesale Merchants cried, "GOODS ARE ADVANCING, AND GOING TO CONTINUE FOR THE NEXT YEAR." Also, the LEATHER MERCHANTS were not backward in getting their prices well along, and the ADVANCE OF BOOTS AND SHOES LOOK MOST SURE; and then again Labor advances from 10 to 15 per cent., and as Goods at this time were as cheap, if not cheaper than what they had been for years.

To take the advantage of this raise, we at once placed our orders at different Boot and Shoe Factories for the kind of Boots and Shoes that we had been keeping in stock, in large quantities, enough to last us nearly through the year 1880. Our orders are placed ahead as far as June next.

FOR INSTANCE:

Our RED HOUSE KIP BOOT,

WE HAVE ORDERED SOME 300 CASES, AT THE OLD PRICES.

OUR MEN'S AND WOMEN'S SLIPPERS

Are ordered from Massachusetts, and are SEWED, which makes them far superior to China make on this coast.

OUR MEN'S AND BOYS' HATS

WE SHALL OPEN TO-MORROW from the manufactory, SOME FIVE HUNDRED DOZEN; and by placing our orders at the Factories, we get them just as cheap as any Wholesale House on the coast—so it is to the advantage of all to buy their Hats of us.

Our Clothing Department is Immense!

HAVE ADDED SOME TWENTY CASES.

AND OUR DRY GOODS AND FANCY GOODS, we can safely say, are Packed into our three-story building in larger quantities than any other house has!

Our Men's Furnishing Goods, White Shirts, Etc.,

Are manufactured expressly for us by the Manhattan Shirt Company, of Troy, N. Y., and considered the best in the world.

☞ To give you an idea of the quantity of Goods that we are receiving from week to week, we publish a STATEMENT signed by our drayman:

This is to certify that I hauled for the RED ROUSE, from February 27th to March 6th inclusive, One Hundred and Thirty-nine (139) Cases and Bales of Dry Goods and other merchandise.

W. SWARTZ, Drayman.

☞ Buyers should look well to their interest. Save your money, and patronize a live house. People at a distance should send for our PRICE LIST of 50 pages. All orders filled the same day. ONE PRICE to everybody. Often there are a hundred packages sent off through the Country Order Department in a day. Direct all letters:
