WASHINGTON SOCIETY IN 1830.

In former years, the wildest gentlemen used to spend their evenings in decorously playing whist, with frugal suppers of broiled oysters, bread and cheese, and a glass or two of madeira. The rollicking Jackson men substituted poker for whist, and indulged in frequent libations of whisky, while their supper tables were graced—according to the season—with a baked raccoon, garnished with fried sweet potatoes, or canvas-back ducks, or shad broiled before a hickory fire on an oak board. Plantation tobacco was freely smoked in pipes, but few, except the members of the diplomatic corps, indulged in cigars. Assemblies were held once a week between Christmas Day and Ash Wednesday, to which all of the respectable ladies in the city who danced were invited. It was also customary for those of the Cabinet officers and other high officials who kept house to give at least one evening party during each session of Congress, invitations for which were issued. The guests at these parties used to assemble at about 8 o'clock, and after taking off their wraps in an upper room they descended to the parlor, where the host and hostess received them. The older men then went to the punch-bowl to criticise the "brew" which it contained, while the young people found their way to the dining-room, almost invariably devoted to dancing. The music was a piano and two violins, and one of the musicians called the figures for the cotillon and contra-dances. Those who did not dance elbowed their way through the crowd, conversing with acquaintances, and the men frequently taking another glass of punch. At 10 the guests were invited to the supper table, which was often on the wide back porch which every Washington house had in those days. The table was always loaded with evidences of the culinary skill of the lady of the house. There was a roast ham at one end, a saddle of venison or mutton at the other end, and some roasted poultry or wild ducks midway; a great variety of home-baked cake was a source of pride, and there never was any lack of punch, with decanters of madeira. The diplomats gave champagne, but it was seldom seen except at the legations. At 11 there was a general exodus, and after the usual scramble for hats, cloaks and over-shoes, the guests entered their carriages. Sometimes a few intimate friends of the hostess lingered to enjoy a contra-dance, or to take a parting drink of punch, but by midnight the last guest departed, and the servants began to blow out the candles with which the house had been illuminated.—[Atlantic.

MARBLE WORKS.
WILLIAM BOYNE & CO.
(SUCCESSORS TO BOYNE & VEAPER),
No. 204 K street, Sacramento.

THE RED HOUSE TRADE UNION.

OUR MOTTO:

"Be Sure That You Are Right, Then Go Ahead!"

Having noticed from the quotations of WOOL, September last, and the quotations from the manufacturers of SHEETINGS and other Domestics, and that the voice of most of the Wholesale Merchants cried, "GOODS ARE ADVANCING, AND GOING TO CONTINUE FOR THE NEXT YEAR." Also, the LEATHER MERCHANTS were not backward in getting their prices well along, and the ADVANCE OF BOOTS AND SHOES LOOK MOST SURE; and then again Labor advances from 10 to 15 per cent., and as Goods at this time were as cheap, if not cheaper than what they had been for years.

To take the advantage of this raise, we at once placed our orders at different Boot and Shoe Factories for the kind of Boots and Shoes that we had been keeping in stock, in large quantities, enough to last us nearly through the year 1880. Our orders are placed ahead as far as June next.

FOR INSTANCE:

Our RED HOUSE KIP BOOT,

WE HAVE ORDERED SOME 300 CASES, AT THE OLD PRICES.

OUR MEN'S AND WOMEN'S SLIPPERS

Are ordered from Massachusetts, and are SEWED, which makes them far superior to China make on this coast.

OUR MEN'S AND BOYS' HATS

WE SHALL OPEN TO-MORROW from the manufactory, SOME FIVE HUNDRED DOZEN; and by placing our orders at the Factories, we get them just as cheap as any Wholesale House on the coast—so it is to the advantage of all to buy their Hats of us.

Our Clothing Department is Immense!

HAVE ADDED SOME TWENTY CASES.

AND OUR DRY GOODS AND FANCY GOODS, we can safely say, are Packed into our three-story building in larger quantities than any other house has!

Our Men's Furnishing Goods, White Shirts, Etc.,

Are manufactured expressly for us by the Manhattan Shirt Company, of Troy, N. Y., and considered the best in the world.

☞ To give you an idea of the quantity of Goods that we are receiving from week to week, we publish a STATEMENT signed by our drayman:

This is to certify that I hauled for the RED ROUSE, from February 27th to March 6th inclusive, One Hundred and Thirty-nine (139) Cases and Bales of Dry Goods and other merchandise.

W. SWARTZ, Drayman.

☞ Buyers should look well to their interest. Save your money, and patronize a live house. People at a distance should send for our PRICE LIST of 50 pages. All orders filled the same day.
