SPECIAL NOTICES.

—New Orleans Canal and Banking Company, New Orleans, 20th November, 1868.—The annual election for Seven Directors of this Institution, to serve during the ensuing year, will be held at its Banking House, corner of Camp and Gravier streets, ON THE SECOND MONDAY IN DECEMBER NEXT, (the 14th) between the hours of 10 A. M. and 2 P. M. CH. JUMONVILLE, Cashier.

—Be It Resolved—That whereas the amount of means available to the Board of Public Works is not sufficient to pay for all the work on the Levees that is absolutely needed, to close crevassas, that will not only save the country from overflow, but also save the washing away of the existing Levees, it will be understood that whenever a planter or planters may agree in writing to furnish the means to build or repair any Levee, that the Board will have the same examined and located by their engineers and constructed if necessary, at the said planter's expense, and that the Board will join in a petition and recommendation to the Legislature at its next session to refund to said planter all such amount as may have been properly expended.

Resolution passed by Board of Public Works this day.

R. D. MITCHELL, Secretary.

New Orleans, Nov. 19, 1868.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers

—IN—

FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS.

Having now opened our new and extensive DAY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT, No. 106 and 108 Baronne street, we beg leave to inform the ladies of New Orleans and citizens generally that they will find our stock as tasty and varied in its Departments, as we have endeavored to render it select and complete. In obtaining our assortment we bore in mind the difficulty to be contended with in suiting the public, and feel confident that the most fastidious have only to examine the articles in our line to corroborate the assertion that we make.

Our stock is entirely new, having been but recently purchased by our Mr. Fellman, at present in New York City. And our salesmen will be happy to exhibit our goods to all who may favor us with a visit.

F. R. JUSTUS,

NO. 162 CANAL STREET,

Dealer in Fancy and Staple Dry Goods.

Having recently renovated and refitted my New Dry Goods Establishment, No. 162 Canal street, I take pleasure in informing the public that I am now prepared to offer every article appertaining to the line at such prices as will accord with the depressed condition of affairs, and as my stock is entirely new and has been purchased with regard to the taste and requirements of the trade, I invite the Ladies, who are competent judges, to call and inspect it.

My salesmen will be found both attentive and courteous, and Ladies need feel no apprehension that an inability to please themselves will entail any annoyance upon us.

I therefore solicit the favor of an examination of my Goods ere investing elsewhere, being satisfied that with my moderate prices I can successfully compete with my contemporaries.
