FALL & WINTER DRY GOODS,

Hats, Caps, Bonnets, Boots, Shoes, &c., at Wholesale or Retail by

M. W. FOSTER,

(Corner of Main and First street, Evansville.)

THANKFUL for past favors, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that he is now opening one of the best selected stocks of Dry Goods ever offered in the city of Evansville; comprising nearly every thing required either by necessity, taste, or fashion. The undersigned has had twenty years experience as a merchant in Indiana selected the stock with the greatest care in the Eastern cities and of manufacturers, with a special view to the country trade, and as they sell exclusively for cash they flatter themselves that to cash buyers, either at wholesale or retail, they can offer inducements equal to any house in the West.—All we ask is to call and examine our Goods and prices and judge for yourselves.

State of Indiana, Spencer County.

In the Probate Court of said County, November Term, A. D. 1847.

In the matters and things in the estate of John Murphy, deceased.

NOW at this time come John W. Graham and Willis Snyder the Administrators of said estate, and file their memorial showing the condition of the said estate and complaining that the property both real and personal is unsufficient to pay the debts and the wands outstanding against it; and the court being fully advised in the premises, declares the said estate probably insolvent. It is therefore ordered that the filing and pendency of the said complaint be made known to the creditors of the said John Murphy, deceased, by a publication of this order for six weeks successfully in the Evansville Weekly Journal, a newspaper published in Evansville, Vanderburgh County, State of Indiana, and that they be informed that unless they notify the said administrators of the existence and extent of their respective claims by filing the same or a statement of the nature, date and description of the contract or assumpsit upon which the same may be founded in the office of the clerk of this court previous to the final distribution of the assets of the estate of the said decedent, such claims will be postponed in favor of the claims of more diligent creditors, and all further administering herein is continued. EVANSVILLE STOVE STORE

SOMETHING NEW AND Important to Housekeepers.

The Subscriber having secured the Patent Right for the counties of Vanderburgh, Posey, Warrick, Gibson and Knox, for

WAGER' AIR-TIGHT COOK STOVE,

Now offers them for sale, after having given them a thorough trial, with every confidence that they are THE BEST stove ever offered. I have sold a dozen or more to our citizens, no one of them could be purchased for the money paid for them.

This Stove is simple in its arrangement, avowing all liability to get out of repair. Its economy in fuel; its strengthened plates were exposed to fire; its enlarged flues, holding in suspense so much heated air. its perfected summer arrangement, where all small culinary operations, with broiling and boiling, heating irons and preserving may be performed without heating the stove; its perfect draught under any circumstances; its capacity for performance; the small space it occupies; the large size and complete control of heat in its oven; the smoothness of its castings; the elegance of its form, making it a rich and beautiful piece of furniture; all constitute an extraordinary combination of beauty, convenience, and durability, which leaves it without competition in the whole catalogue of Stoves.

This stove has taken the first premium both at the Country Agricultural Fairs and at the American Institute, New York, and we have numerous testimonials of its entire success in winning its way to public favor amid the tremendous competition of the East.

The following cirtificates from Gen. Joseph Lane and others, who have them in use will speak their worth.

EVANSVILLE JULY 10 1847.

Mr. Thomas Scantlin.—Sir: The Wagar's Troy Air-tight Cooking stove, that you put up for Mrs Lane is an excellent one and she thinks decidedly the best cooking stove that she has
