☞ Does not the following incarnate the very spirit of music?

[For the Wabash Express.

MUSIC.

Music, with its spirit tones
Wanders every where,
Floating on the ocean wave,
Sighing in the air.
The brook let of the green wood
Has its little song,
For nodding bells of flowers,
As it leaps along.

Music, from the lofty pines,
In deep under-tones,
Sweeps adown the long drawn aisles
Of temples, nature owns.
And music lifts the aspen's
Gleaming, quivering leaves;
The storm king comes in music,
And the tempest grieves.

All nature lives in music,
Cradled in the earth,
In lullabies of birdlings,
Songs of summer birth.
All steeped in varying music
Are the passing years,
And still above in music
Roll the solemn spheres.

And like the rainbow resting
From valley to the skies,
It bridges earth, and Heaven,
With pleasure, and with sighs.
Oh! gently let it lead us,
By its subtile spells,
To those realms so blissful
Where spirit-music dwells. STAR.

The Traveling Community.

A remedy such as BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS cannot be too highly recommended. To the traveling community, especially, it is certainly an invaluable remedy; having little or no exercise, constantly exposed and subject to the effects of a change of climate and and water, they require some pleasant medicine of this kind to regulate the bowels.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE LADIES' HOME MAGAZINE!

EDITED BY T. S. ARTHUR,

AND

MISS VIRGINIA F. TOWNSEND.

Volumes Thirteen and Fourteen.

In announcing the Volumes of the HOME MAGAZINE for 1859, the Publishers cannot but refer to the significant fact, that, while nearly every other literary periodical in the country lost ground during 1858, under the depressing influence of the times, THE HOME MAGAZINE INCREASED IN CIRCULATION BEYOND ANY PREVIOUS YEAR!—A fact like this needs no comment—it speaks for itself, and we only remark, on presenting it, that it has encouraged us in the work of preparing a Magazine for the HOMES OF THE PEOPLE, that shall come to both parents and children as a true and welcome friend, more than anything that has occurred since the initial number went forth.

Our Magazine will continue under the same editorial supervision as before, and its pages continue to be largely supplied from the editor's pen. Other writers of ability will aid in the task of producing a periodical which is designed to meet a want that no other work has attempted so broadly to supply. Besides the Literary Department, there will be, as heretofore, in each number—a Mother's Department; a Health Department; a Boys' and Girls' Treasury; the Toilette and Work-Table; Hints for Housekeepers; and an Editorial Department.

Valuable Colored Fashion Plates and fine Steel Engravings, besides an almost endless variety of Needle-work Patterns, will continue to be given. In a word, the Home Magazine shall be all that its name implies, while in all styles of embellishment and beauty of typography, it will not exceed by any magazine of its kind in the country.

The admirers of Miss Townsend will be pleased to learn that she will commence in the January number, a new story, entitled, "WAIT AND SEE" to be continued through six or seven numbers of the Magazine. Those who have read her "LOOK OUT," need not be reminded of the pleasure that is in store for them.

TERMS.—One copy, for one year, $2, two copies, for one year, $3; four copies for one year, $5. All additional subscribers above four at the same rate, that is, 1.25 per annum. Where twelve subscribers and $15 are sent the getter up of the club will be entitled to an additional copy of the Magazine. Specimens furnished to all who wish to subscribe or make up clubs.

CLUBBING WITH OTHER MAGAZINES. Home Magazine and Godey's Ladies Book, one year, $3,50. Home Magazine and Harper's Magazine, one year, $3.50 Home Magazine, Godey's Lady's Book, and Harper's Magazine, one year, $6. Address,

Dr. Hostetter's justly celebrated and never failing Stomach Bitters, will effectually cure all diseases of the body, of a morbid nature. The Doctor in calling the attention of the public to this valuable specific, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommended. It is no quack article, but one that has stood the test of the American press and people. The testimony given in its favor, by the most eminent and well known physicians and private individuals in all parts of the Union, is immense, and merely evinces that its virtues are many. The use of the Bitters can not fail satisfy the skeptical, that it is really deserving the celebrity it has obtained.

That Great Remedy!

So Long Sought,

FOUND AT LAST.

This remedy, claimed by the medical profession and the multiplied thousands that have used it and tested its wonderful curative properties, to be the greatest discovery in medical science, and nature's own remedy, is the result of years of toil and study, of one of Ohio's favorite physicians, in order to produce something that would meet the wishes of suffering humanity, and thousands from the princely palace and humble cottage can testify to the immediate relief bestowed by its use. For want of space we only offer a few of the many evidences in its favor.

GOOD BOOTS AND SHOES

Versus

CHEAP BOOTS AND SHOES!

It has always been our motto, to prefer GOOD, substantial articles, to what are erroneously termed "cheap.

Good Boots and Good Shoes!

Are the kinds for all persons to procure, especially at this season of the year. For this reason, the subscribers invite their old customers and new ones to come and examine their now very extensive stock, of all styles of the above articles, including a large proportion of

THEIR OWN MANUFACTURE!

All of which are warranted! Now is your time to buy Good Boots and Shoes, which are in reality the only cheap ones. We leave others to keep, and "gas" about "CHEAP SHOES"—we only profess to keep Good ones.

The New-York Tribune---1858--59.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, now more than seventeen years old, which was the first journal in the world that appeared regularly on an imperial eight-page sheet at as low a price as two cents, and which has attained the unparalleled aggregate of more than 200,000 subscriptions, respectfully solicits a share of the patronage which the Metropolitan Press is henceforth to receive.

With the present year THE TRIBUNE has provided Herself with a new and faster Press, at a cost of $30,000, thereby that some of our subscribers may receive their papers a mail earlier than they otherwise might do. With correspondents at the most important points throughout the civilized world, and a staff of writers chosen from among the best in the country, we believe that even those who dislike the politics of our sheet concede to it frankness in avowing its convictions and ability in maintaining them. We appeal then, to those who believe that an increased circulation of THE TRIBUNE would conduce to the political, intellectual and moral well-being of the Republic, to aid us in effecting such increase.

THE DAILY TRIBUNE is printed on a large Imperial sheet, and published every morning and evening, (Sunday excepted), and mailed to subscribers for six dollars per annum in advance; $3 for six months.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published every TUESDAY and FRIDAY, and contains all the Editorials of the Daily with the Cattle, Horse and General Markets reliably reported expressly for THE TRIBUNE; Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, and during the coming session of Congress it will contain a summary of Congressional doings with the more important speeches. It will also contain a first-class Novel, continued from number to number, thus affording a first-rate family newspaper to those who prefer not to take a Daily.
