The Louisiana Democrat.

EDWARD A. BIOSSAT] THE WORLD IS GOVERNED TOO MUCH [PUBLISHER

VOLUME 25.] ALEXANDRIA, LA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1870. [NUMBER 34.

The Democrat.

TERMS:

"THE DEMOCRAT" is published Weekly, at FIVE DOLLARS per annum, THREE for six months, payable in advance. No Subscription taken for a less period than Six Months.

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the rate of $1 50 PER SQUARE for the first insertion and 75 CENTS for each subsequent one. Eight lines or less, constitute a square. The following are our rates to yearly Advertisers:

One Column	$300 00
Half Column	175 00
Third of Column	130 00
Fourth of Column	100 00
Cards, (occupying space of eight lines, or less)	20 00

Obituary Notices, Marriages, Public Meetings, Cards of Thanks, etc., to be paid for as advertisements.

☞ Personal cards, when admissible, charged double the usual advertisements.

NEW ORLEANS CARDS.

RICE BROS. & CO.,

89 and 91 Camp st., and 565 Magazine street,

IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN FOREIGN & DOMESTIC

HARDWARE,

Iron, Cutlery, Edge Tools, Tin Plate, Sheet Iron,

Iron Wire, Tinners' Stock and Tinners' Tools.

SOLE AGENTS for the Invincible Charter Oak Cooking Stove, the La Belle Nail Works, the Anchor Brand Hollow Ware and Castings, Sharp & Thomson Tinned and Enamelled Ware, the Hazleton Metallic Boiler Bottoms, the Seth Thomas Clocks, the Union Wash Machine, the Johnson Clothes Wringer.

Sept. 1, 1869-6m.

STUDY YOUR INTERESTS

AND

Save Your Money

Buck's Brilliant the most Durable in the World!!

CHEAP! CHEAPER!! CHEAPEST!!!

THE cheapest stove store in the South is at—

104.....CHARTRES ST.,.....104

5000....Brilliant Cooking Stoves....5000

10000.....Premium Stoves.....10000

FOLLOWING BRANDS:

Pelican, True Kentuckian, Star, Southern States, Maid of Orleans, Delta, etc., constantly on hand and for sale at the lowest prices.

Purchasers are respectfully requested to come and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

A. SIMON,

Sole Agent for the celebrated Brilliant Cooking Stoves.

RECOLLECT THE NUMBER:

104.....CHARTRES ST.,.....104

Between St. Louis and Conti,

NEW ORLEANS.

—Also—

BAR ROOM and HEATING STOVES

Importer and Dealer in

HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS.

☞ Country orders directed to P. O. Box 1656 will meet prompt attention. All goods marked and shipped free of charge.

nov. 3-6m mo

B. B. HART — B. B. HART

E. J. HART & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS, IMPORTERS

—AND—

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

GROCERIES AND DRUGS.

WE keep constantly on hand sugar, coffee, teas, spices, liquors, segars, tobacco, Provisions and all descriptions of Groceries, Drugs, Dye Stuffs, paints, oils, varnishes, window glass and Patent Medicines.

Nos. 73, 75, 77 and 79 Tchoupitoulas st., NEW ORLEANS.

oct27-1y cl

HENRY LECKIE,

COTTON AND SUGAR FACTOR

—and—

Commission and Forwarding Merchant,

196 Gravier Street,

Sept 22-1y. NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS CARDS.

DAVID ZABLE. WM. DALTON.

ZABLE & DALTON,

DEALERS IN

STOVES, GRATES, HOLLOW-WARE

—and—

HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS

Manufacturers of

ALL KINDS OF TIN AND JAPANED WARE.

Agents for the Great Philadelphia Cooking stove,

"THE TIMES."

115.....Poydras St.....115

Between Camp and Magazine sts,

NEW ORLEANS

☞ Agents for H. W. John's patent Asbestos Roofing, Roofing Felt, Roof Coating, Preservative Paint, Metallic Paint and Asbestos Cement.

Send for Circulars.

dec 1-6m cr

TO INSURE LARGE CROPS

—USE—

Stern's Raw Bone Super-phosphate

—and—

FINE GROUND BONE,

The GREAT FERTILIZERS

LOUIS STERN & BROS.,

Manufacturers,

OFFICE:

16.....Chartres Street.....16

New Orleans, La.

dec 1-1y md

LANDRETH'S GARDEN SEED

—GROWN BY—

DAVID LANDRETH & SON.

THE attention of Merchants, Planters and Gardeners is requested to one of the largest and most complete assortment of fresh and reliable seeds ever offered in the South, and for sale in quantities to suit purchasers. Garden Almanac and Catalogue mailed free on application.

E. F. VIRGIN,

Dealer in Seeds,

98 Gravier Street,

NEW ORLEANS

HENRY RENSHAW. ALBERT CAMMACK

RENSHAW & CAMMACK,

Successors to

West, Renshaw & Cammack and Geo. W. West,

COTTON and SUGAR FACTORS

—and—

General Commission Merchants,

No. 32 Perdido Street,

NEW ORLEANS

N. B.—Orders for the purchase of all descriptions of produce will receive our particular attention.

Sept. 22-6m.

C. DOYLE. J. M. RAUM

DOYLE & RAUM,

WHOLESALE GROCERS

AND IMPORTERS OF

TEAS, LIQUORS, WINES, ETC.,

No. 102 POYDRAS ST.,

Between Magazine and Camp Streets,

New Orleans, La.

ALBERT BAILLIO, SALESMAN.

Feb. 2d, 1870-1m.

LEATHER and FINDINGS STORE,

No. 36 OLD LEVEE ST.,

New Orleans, La.

THE INSPECTION OF THE TRADE and buyers generally is specially invited to my complete and comprehensive stock of everything pertaining to the SHOE MANUFACTURING LINE. I keep constantly on hand the best French and American calf-skins, morocco, bindings, toppings, etc. Hemlock and Oak sole leather, English Serges, Webs, Elastic Gore, Binding Ribbon, etc. My arrangements in Europe and in this country enable me to offer the greatest advantages to the trade. WM. J. SHELDON,

36 Old Levee st.,

Between Bienville and Customhouse strs.

Aug. 18, 1869-1y

NEWTON RICHARDS,

No. 102 CUSTOMHOUSE ST.,

Between Dauphine and Burgundy streets,

NEW ORLEANS.

Stone and Marble

FOR all building purposes, including—

TOMBS,

MONUMENTS, GRAVE STONES, MARBLE FLOOR TILE,

Curb and Flag Stones, etc. Hydraulic Cement. Depot for sale of Richards' Cape Lime—a superior quality for all the purposes of sugar planters, Masons, etc., manufactured at his MARBLE QUARIES, Mo.

nov. 10, '69-1y cl½

JOS. HOY. WM. J. PATTISON. JAS. M. JAMISON

JOSEPH HOY & CO.,

Successors to

CARROLL, HOY & CO.,

Cotton Factors

—and—

General Commission Merchants,

No. 36 Perdido Street,

NEW ORLEANS.

Sept. 1, 1869-1y.

PRIVATE BOARDING.—Pleasant and well ventilated Rooms, with or without Board, can be had at No. 234 Canal Street, Corner of Franklin, New Orleans, La. Best of references given. Terms moderate.

NEW ORLEANS CARDS.

THE CHAMPION.

BUCK'S BRILLIANT

MOST DURABLE!

MOST ECONOMICAL!

LEAST COMPLICATED!

MOST EASILY MANAGED!

THE BRILLIANT was awarded the FIRST PREMIUM, after actual trial, in the field, at every St. Louis Fair since 1865.

After two days actual trial at the Louisiana State Fair, the Brilliant was awarded the Gold Medal for baking the best bread with the least fuel in the shortest time.

Use no other! Buy no other!!

H. HALLER,

Sole Agent,

No. 49 CAMP STREET,

NEW ORLEANS

—DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF—

COOKING and Heating Stoves, Plain and Japaned Tinware, Stamped Ware and House Furnishing Goods of every description.

Sept. 22, 1869-1y.

SINGER'S

Celebrated New Family Sewing Machine.

IT IS the best Sewing Machine ever offered to the public. It hems and fells, braids, cords, tucks, marks and embroiders with such elegance and ease, that the finest needle work would look mean in comparison. It is the only Machine ever invented that embroiders with the Lock Stitch, and on account of its adjustable foot, has greater range of work than any other. It is used almost exclusively by all the Lady Milliners and in all the Convents of New Orleans and it has the greatest circulation of any Machine in the world. The sale of this Machine now equals that of all others put together, and I warrant every Machine I sell to give satisfaction, and after a fair trial to return the money if it does not do so.

JOHN McNULTY,

7 Camp street,

New Orleans

—WHOLESALE AND RETAIL AGENCY FOR—

LOUISIANA, Texas, Mississippi and Alabama, and agent for Geo. Clark's celebrated NEW THREAD. Sewing Machine Twist and Flax Thread of the best quality for Dress-makers, Tailors and Saddlers, consantly on hand.

Sept. 22, 1869-6m

FINE CLOTHING!

—AND—

Gent's Furnishing Goods!

NEW STORE and NEW GOODS!

We have just opened our New Store,

Nos. 40 and 42 St. Charles st.,

And can now guarantee to you the largest stock of

Fine Clothing

—and—

GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS,

To be found in the City.

CLOTHING FROM OUR OWN MANUFACTORY

Equal in cut and finish to custom made.

R. R. SPROULE & McCOWN,

40 and 42 St. Charles st

☞ Opposite St. Charles Hotel ☜

oct 27-6m ca

FRY & SMITH,

SUCCESSORS TO

WHEELER & FORSTALL,

MANUFACTURERS OF

COPPER, TIN AND SHEET-IRON WORK

Always on hand and manufacturing, Copper Stills and Worms.

Chimneys, Breechings, Fire Beds, etc., built at short notice.

Plantation and Steamboat work promptly attended to.

98 (Mechanics' Row,)

MAGAZINE ST., CORNER OF GIROD,

New Orleans.

oct 27-1y cc

S. L. JAMES. C. B. BUCKNER. TOM BYNUM

James, Buckner & Co.,

Cotton Factors

—and—

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

MANUFACTURERS OF

COTTON AND WOOLEN GOODS,

COTTON YARNS,

Boots, Shoes, Barrels, Hogheads and Bricks,

NO. 140 GRAVIER ST.,

Sept. 15-1y. NEW ORLEANS

C. SAMPSON. F. G. SAMPSON

Sampson Bros.

(Late C. C. Sampson)

Furniture and Chairs,

33 and 35 Royal st.,

Sep. 29-1y. (20) NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS CARDS.

JAS. REYNOLDS,

MARBLE WORKS,

160 and 162 Poydras st.,

Between St. Charles and Carondelet sts.,

NEW ORLEANS, LA.,

Manufacturer,

IMPORTER

AND WHOLESALE DEALER IN

Foreign and Domestic

MARBLE.

MONUMENTS, TOMBS, GRAVE stones, &c., of every design on hand and gotten up at the shortest notice. Also Marble and Slate Mantel-pieces, Grates, &c, and in fact EVERYTHING IN THE MARBLE LINE manufactured as cheap, if not cheaper, than in any city North or West.

Orders from the country solicited and promptly attended to. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Oct 6-6m ne

OSCAR R. McCLEAN,

SUCCESSOR TO

JOHN McCLEAN,

Boiler Maker, Sheet-Iron Worker,

COPPER SMITH,

IRON AND BRASS FOUNDER,

Pattern Maker,

Blacksmith and General Machinist,

489 and 491 Old Levee street, corner of Port, Third District,

NEW ORLEANS

☞ Repairs of Steamboats and Steamships and Ship-smithing promptly attended to.

ORNAMENTAL CASTINGS FOR VERANDAS AND RALINGS.

Address Glass Box 249, New Orleans Post Office.

Oct 6-1y nd

Wamala Guaco Bitters!!

THIS CELEBRATED BITTER is a preservative against chills and a cure for Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous Debility, Diarrhœa and all diseases proceeding from the LIVER, the STOMACH or BOWELS. It is very agreeable to the taste, may be taken pure or in sugar and water or anisette. A small glass of it taken before a meal sharpens the appetite and facilitates digestion. Depot at

JOSEPH LLADO,

Druggist,

Corner Dumaine and Chartres streets.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Oct 6-6m cc¼

Mrs. Washington's

EMPORIUM OF FASHION,

DRESSMAKING,

MILLINERY AND TRIMMING STORE,

No. 197 CANAL ST.,

Between Rampart and Burgundy,

NEW ORLEANS

A fine assortment of French Perfumery and Toilet articles for Ladies.

☞ Dresses made in a superior style at short notice. Every descripton of Paper Patters for sale. Dresses, Basques, Sacks, &c., cut and basted, and a perfect guaranteed. [oct 2-6m ce

GEO. SWARBRICK. J. D. KENTON

SWARBRICK & CO.,

GROCERS

—and—

Commission Merchants,

No. 59 Camp treet,

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

July 3 '67-tf.

B. WEIL & MATHIAS LEVY.

COTTON FACTORS

—and—

GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

No. 11 Union st.,

NEW ORLEANS.

☞ Solicit consignments of Cotton, Sugar, Molasses, Hides, Wool, &c.

Sept. 1, 1869-6m

CARPET WAREHOUSE.

AI BROUSSEAU & CO., IMPORTERS

19 CHARTRES ST.,

New Orleans, La.,

OFFER for sale at low prices—Carpeting, English and American, of all kinds. Floor Furniture and Enameled Oil Cloths, Matting, 500 rolls China, 100 pieces Cocoa. Window Shades, Table and Piano Covers, Crumb Cloths, Drugget Linen and Felt. Curtains, Lace, Reps, Worsted, Damask, etc. Furniture Covering, Linen and Cotton Stripes. Cornices, Beads, Pins, etc. ma6 1y.

NEW ORLEANS CARDS.

PHŒNIX

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

HARTFORD, CONN.

Assets.....$6,000,000

E. FESSENDEN,.....President

J. F. BURNS,.....Secretary

THIS old and reliable Company issues every desirable form of Policy. All Policies are non-forfeiting. It grants a loan of 50 per cent. of the premium on all tables, and pays 50 per cent. dividend annually on the same. "No deduction of notes from Policies." "It never litigated a claim." Pays its losses promptly. Cash rates, with dividends annually; also childrens' endowments.

SOUTHERN BRANCH,

No. 112 Canal street, corner St. Charles,

NEW ORLEANS.

GEO. S. DARLING,

JOHN H. CARTER, Manager

General Agent.

REFERENCES:

Glendy Burke, Banker, T. T. A. Lyons, Commission Merchant, N. O. Richard D. Sale, Shreveport. Wm. Beynon, Mansfield. Gen. Edward Sparrow, Lake Providence. Martin Rabalais, Avoyelles Parish.

WANTED.—Responsible Agents (to whom liberal commissions will be paid) in every Parish in Louisiana. Apply to the Manager, or address

P. O. BOX 2050, New Orleans.

Oct. 13, 1869-1y.

TRUSSES!

WITHOUT SPRINGS, BACK PADS, OR THE TERROR OF LEG STRAPS!

H. SPILLMAN,

INVENTOR AND PATENTEE

—OF A—

LEVER AND SUPPORTER TRUSS

PATENTED SEPTEMBER 7th, 1869.—This Truss defies all competition for comfort and general satisfaction, can be worn by all classes, as well as both sexes, in all periods of life. It stands without rival in this or any other country. It has, by its short existence, won the highest admiration of the wearers.

Also sole proprietor for the State of Louisiana for the highly recommended W. Johnson's Patent Pad Trusses. With these Trusses I can promise more rapid improvement and relief than any other applyer of Trusses. Also Trusses and attachments on hand or made to order.

H. SPILLMAN,

Manufacturer and Fitter,

93 Baronne street, New Orleans, La.

☞ Orders from abroad will receive prompt attention. State rights for sale.

Jan. 26-1y md

CHAS. G. HILLE. FRED. A. THOMAS.

HILLE & THOMAS,

AUCTIONEERS

FOR THE SALE OF

Furniture, Stocks, Bonds, Real Estate, Etc.,

OFFICE AND SALES ROOM,

167 Poydras street, near Carondelet st.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW and second hand furniture and house furnishing goods always on hand and offered at private sales.

oct 20-6m ce

R. L. M'NIGHT. LEE HOWELL

R. L. McKNIGHT & CO.,

Wholesale Dealers in Foreign and Domestic

Fruits, Nuts, Etc.

—and—

GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

41 Front and 42 Fulton sts.

New Orleans, La.

☞ Consignments of Produce solicited and orders promptly attended to.

dec 15-6m cc½

SLOCOMB, BALDWIN & CO.,

HARDWARE IMPORTERS.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS.

74 Canal and 91 to 95 Common sts.,

New Orleans,

ADJOINING CITY HOTEL.

☞ Our prices we guarantee as low as any market. [Jan 19-3m cc½

TO PLANTERS, MERCHANTS & GARDENERS!

MAUPHY'S SEED STORE,

No. 76 GRAVIER STREET,

NEW ORLEANS

PURE and Fresh Seeds of every description, suitable for planting the present season, at lowest prices, by the dozen, hundred or thousand papers, or bulk. Warranted Philadelphia grown seeds. Send for Almanac.

W. A. MAUPAY,

76 Gravier st. between Tchoupitoulas and Magazine sts. [Jan 26-6m E

J. ALDIGE,

BIENVILLE OIL WORKS,

Home Manufacture.

Office—No. 43 Carondelet street,

NEW ORLEANS

☞ Highest price paid for cotton seed. Sacks and twine furnished free of charge. ☞ Refers to all boats in the trade.

Oct 2-6m ce

E. HEATH,

—DEALER IN—

Upholsterers' Materials

WALL PAPER & CURTAIN GOODS,

No. 99 Camp street,

Oct 6-1y ce NEW ORLEANS

MY GODMOTHER'S WILL:

THE SUCCESSFUL STRATAGEM.

[From the N. Y. Metropolitan Record.]

[CONTINUED.]

"And what is her name, Mrs. Brown?"

"Mrs. Campbell, sir; which her husband was a Scotchman, I should think; for poor Brown once knew——"

But as what poor Mr. Brown knew was a matter of the greatest indifference to me, I cut my landlady short at once.

"Well, take up the papers now, Mrs. Brown," I said; "and I'm sure the ladies are very welcome to any of my magazines and things."

Mrs. Brown retired with a mutton bone and the Illustrated News, leaving my mind relieved of the hideous fancy which had beset it, that the graceful woman I had seen on the sands did not rejoice in the name of Tabitha, and I was left free to give her whatever name her appearance and my imagination suggested; and I, being I suppose in a spooney mood just then, did then and and there christen her Undine, whom, according to the most beautiful of all the beautiful German legends, she really resembled.

After the first overtures we got on wonderfully fast. Undine and I wandered about together all day, and played chess in the evening, while Miss Smith, the companion, dozed over her knitting; and though another week had passed without bringing me any news of the Lomaxes, I felt happier than I had ever been in my life, not even excepting those palmy days of Miss Bamford's last illness, during which I was received with open arms in Bryanstone Square; and Mrs. Lomax was so painfully affectionate, that had she not been Georgie's mother I'd have cut her acquaintance.

I confided all my history and troubles to Undine; all, excepting my engagement, which I did not see the use of doing, considering Georgie's shameful treatment of me; and she was very kind and sympathising, though she owned she could not imagine why I had refused to see Miss Elliston. "Who knows? Perhaps she was a very nice girl, whom you might have liked, and in time have loved," and Undine's voice, as she said this, was so soft and tender, that I was within an ace of forgetting Miss Lomax and every other consideration, and telling her that it was she I loved and none other.

And it was true. Now that a real deep attachment had sprung up in my heart, I realized in full the difference between the love born of nature, amidst the blue sky, the green earth, and the mighty waves, and such love as I had once imagined I felt for Georgiana Lomax; the offspring of the light and glitter and falsity of a London drawing-room; an exotic which must be carefully nursed in its native atmosphere, or it will shrink, and wither, and die.

But stop! I am actually getting sentimental. Well, if you had seen Mrs. Campbell, so young, so lonely, so desolate, you might have done the same. But I will return to the prose of everyday life.

I have not yet mentioned Frank Hardy, and yet he was the greatest friend I had in the world. We were at college together, and he knew the history of all my troubles, of my entanglement with Miss Lomax, of the disgust I had felt at the unladylike proposition of Miss Elliston, that I should come and see her, and of my firmly rooted determination never either to see, or in any way have anything to do with the young person. It is my private belief that he thought me rather a fool for my pains; for Frank is not the fellow to pass a handsome fortune by merely because of its being encumbered by so slight a hamper as a wife; no, not if she were as old as Methuselah and as ugly as Hecate. Indeed after the first acrimony of my disappointment had passed off, he had on various occasions tried to bring me round to his own way of thinking.

"If you think Georgie Lomax intends to reward your disinterestedness by the gift of her precious self, I can tell you, my boy, that you are wrong," said Frank. "Take my word for it, the same hour that the knowledge of the contents of Miss Bamford's will reached Bryanstone Square, the walls of Mrs. Lomax's dressing-room witnessed a conference between the young ladies and their worthy mother, as to what would be the most respectable and least scandalous way of throwing you over; of which conference the trip to Baden-Baden was the first result.—As they say on the stage, "She is not worthy of you," she'd turn you over any day if a richer fellow offered; and if I were you, I'd checkmate the whole scheming set of them by just running into Northumberland, and have a look at the little girl at Horney."

Of course I had, as in honor bound, been vastly indignant with Master Frank, but it would have taken more than this to sever our friendship; and though I had striven in vain to inspire my Orestes with better sentiments, our intimacy continued as great as ever, and our correspondence flourished exceedingly.

In the midst of my perplexity and endeavors to reconcile the duty I still owed Georgina Lomax, for she had tacitly allowed our engagement to continue, and the love I felt for the beautiful young widow, I received an epistle even more lengthy than usual from Frank Hardy.

"Imagine my surprise," he said, "at tumbling, suddenly, on old Mother Lomax again. But you needn't have been so sly as to keep secrets from me. I'm not the man to think the worse of you for knowing on which side your bread is buttered. Charlie Masters, whom I met yesterday, tells me Miss Elliston is charming. He met her abroad, somewhere, and says she is the daughter of an old love of Miss Bamford's; so that explains the will. No wonder you described Sandheat with such vivid enthusiasm. Nothing like the sea-side for love making. I tried it myself once, but came to grief. I hope the wedding is to come off immediately, for Georgie's, her mother tells me, is arranged to take place in October, and I should like you to be married first to spite her. I always told you what a good-for-nothing, worldly young woman, she was, and you see I have proved right; for old Trombones is sixty, if he is a day—a white-headed old sinner. If it were not that he was taking the fair Georgie off your hands, I should say he ought to be ashamed of himself, taking a young wife at this time of life. As it is, I wish him joy. Please say everything proper to Miss Elliston for me. I hope to make her acquaintance before long," &c.

Never since the memorable day on which my godmother's will was opened had I felt more puzzled than I did after perusing Frank's effusion. My first idea certainly was that he had taken leave of his senses; my second, that some one had made him the victim of a joke. I making love to Miss Elliston! Why, I had never seen her; and, what is more, never intended to do so. What could the fellow mean? Then I read the letter through again, and one point at least became clear. I was a free man again; free to offer my heart to Undine, for Miss Louisa had, on the unquestionable evidence of her own mother, decidedly jilted me. I must allow that I did feel a little piqued at her forgetting me so soon, and for an old greybeard, too; and perhaps this it was which caused me to betake myself in such hot haste to Undine. I found her sitting on the beach where I first saw her, prettier than ever in her silver grey dress and long blue veil; and, without waiting to collect myself, I went straight at my object, beginning by telling her that serious business demanded my immediate presence in town. She looked up at me then with such soft, tender eyes that made the rest very easy.

"Mrs. Campbell," I said, "you know my history, and I have told you my position, prospects, everything in fact, except what you have perhaps guessed already, of my love for you, and my dear hope one day to call you my wife."

She blushed, stammered—looked divine, in fact.

"But Miss Elliston," she said—"you should——"

"I hate the very name of Elliston!" I exclaimed passionately; "I love only you."

She held out her hand at this, and, while I pressed it to my lips, she murmured, "Oh, Claude, don't you know me? I am Mary Beatrice Elliston."

And so she was; and I, Claude Elliott Riversdale, the barrister, and the acute man of the world as I considered myself, was forced to admit that I had been outdone by the "young person from Northumberland."

To this day I cannot help fancying but that Mr. Frank Hardy had something to do with my mystification, though our friendship continues as flourishing as ever; and I have never yet had reason to regret my GODMOTHER'S WILL.

☞ A mysterious deaf girl has been agitating San Francisco. A reporter went to interview her, and while taking down the points indulged in remarks which would not have been complimentary if she could have heard them. She stood it for some time, but finally emptied the coal-scuttle over him and pitched him down stairs. He doesn't believe she is deaf.

☞ A poetically disposed country newspaper remarked that "it is comforting to know that one eye watches fondly for our coming and looks brighter when we come." The other local paper condoled in its next issue thus: "It grieves us to learn that our cotemporary's wife has lost an eye."