Battle of Languages.

Quite an amusing occurrence took place yesterday between a Chinaman and a Frenchman concerning a disputed matter of clothes washing. Gesticulation and vociferation were fast and furious, and, to listen to the wordy war, one would imagine that both of them, like Shakspear's character, had been to a "feast of languages, and stolen all the scraps," but were totally unable to digest the polyglott food thus surreptitiously obtained. There was a perfect jumble of English, Chinese, French, and, for aught we know, Arabic and some of the dead languages. The Chinaman had the Frenchman by the collar, and rattled away at the following rate:

"Me washee plenty times—two, tree weekey—no hab got cash—you no good—allee same berry bad—you lie fey!—hong wow! yum!" screamed John, falling back on his mother tongue for an expletive sufficiently weighty.

"Sacre! you be one fiare—one w you calls dam rascale!—one mechhat ● ien!"

"You wolly bad—Frenchee man no good. "Spose you no pay; me speakee Saudgee Coonee. Shabbee!"

"Non! I can no comprehende—no shabbee—no understand la language Chinoise. Diable! I give you plenty l'argent you—you—enquin!" rattled the Frenchman, gesticulating like mad.

Here both parties became so excited that they fell back on their mother tongues, and amid the roar of "hongs" and the rattle of French consonants, the Chinaman tore his antagonist's coat, the latter jerked off a piece of the Celestial's tailocular appendage, and the conference broke up in a general row of invectives, fierce no doubt, but unintelligible. Our ears still ring with the noise occasioned by the polyglott war, and the cause of the difficulty between France and China—the disputed wash account still remains "statu quo ante bellum."

Gen. Houston's Prescription to a "Bore."

Among the guests at the St. Nicholas Hotel, New York city, was General Sam Houston, of Texas. The General, as all his acquaintances well know, is fond of mirth and fun, and, in short, what Doesticks would call a P. B.—perfect brick. The General, however, entertains a intense hatred for that species of humanity called "bore."

One of these gentry, a good natured but soft headed animal—regular button-holder-cornered kind—one day at the hotel. He had managed to be introduced to him by a gentleman the day previous.

"General," said the bore after he had bothered the General out of all patience, "I wish you would do me one more favor. A man of your eminence is so competent."—

"Well, what is it?" inquired Houston rather curtly.

"Well, you see, Mr. Houston, you are such an eminent man—such a"—

"Never mind that; what do you want to know?"

"Excuse me but a person of your abilities and distinction must be aware"——

"I am somewhat in haste," interrupted the badgered senator, "pray come to the point at once."

"Well, then, tell me the secret of your success in life—how you rose in position as you have done."

"Ah! but that wouldn't benefit you any. I can tell you how you can rise in the world, if you wish."

"That's just it," was the reply—"just what I was trying to get at."

"Well, sir, I'll tell you. Undertake to approach a sore-headed bull with a red scarf on your neck. I'll guarantee your upward progress immediately on the completion of the experiment?"

The button-holder collapsed, shoved his hat on his head and walked sorrowfully away, while a cluster of gentlemen near by, who had overheard the conversation, fairly screamed with laughter.—Ex.

A GREAT IDEA.—A correspondent of the Eastern (Pa.) Daily Times, and who signs himself "Inventor," proposes to keep the Pacific Railroad out of the way of Indians, buffaloes, and other inconveniences, by suspending it from balloons, and holding it in its place by large magnets buried in the earth at regular intervals. A telegraphic wire could, he thinks, pass over the tops of the gas-bags, and the expense of the whole be less than the common plan by about $400,000,000. A sanguine inventor, this!

HIGH PRICE FOR RACERS.—The Virginia Dispatch says that Mr. Doswell has been offered $18,500 for his celebrated brood mare Nina and her three colts, and the filly Fannie Washington. The horses are thus valued by the wealthy gentleman who desires to purchase, Planet, $3,000; his brother, Exchequer, $3,000; Nina and her yearling colt, $4,500; and Fannie Washington, out of the renowned Sarah Washington, $3,000. All the young ones are by Revenue, and are looked upon by good judges as the finest strings of racers in the Union.

☞ Postmaster Jones, of the Washington City Postoffice, renders his accounts to the department for the quarter ending 31st December. Stamps sold amounts to $9,987; money collected $1,536. Free letters amounted to six hundred and ninety two thousand one hundred and thirty seven—all in a single quarter.

Some of the Georgia and Alabama journals call M. Stratosch, a "Kansas shrieker," insinuates that he gave concerts in aid of the Free Soilers in the Territory and desired that a license be denied him to perform with his opera troupe.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A cattle train on the Jeffersonville Railroad ran off the track south of Seymour on Saturday. Eight cattle were killed and several cars of the train considerably damaged.

That Great Remedy!

So Long Sought,
FOUND AT LAST.

This remedy, claimed by the medical profession and the multiplied thousands that have used it and extolled its wonderful curative properties, to be the greatest discovery in medical science, and nature's own remedy, is the result of years of toil and study, by one of Ohio's favorite physicians. In order to produce something that would meet the wishes of suffering humanity, and those afflicted in the remotest place and humble cottage can testify to the immediate relief found by its use. For want of space we only offer a few of the many evidences in its favor.

MOLINE, ILLS., Feb. 19, 1857.

MESSRS. S. K. MANN & CO.—Gents: We find your Ague Balsam superior to any remedy in our market for the permanent cure of all malarious diseases. We cheerfully recommend it as worthy that great name it has whenever sold and used.

Very Truly Yours,
RICHARDS & THOMAS.

To the sufferers of chills, fever and ague, I cheerfully submit the following: Having observed closely the effects of Dr. Mann's Ague Balsam in this vicinity for the past three years, I am well pleased with its remedial virtues as an antidote to malaria. I have frequently used it in my practice and with entire satisfaction. From my intimate knowledge of this compound, I recommend it as safe, prompt and efficient.

Galion, Ohio, April 1st, 1858.

BUTTON, Ind., May 16, 1858.

MESSRS. S. K. MANN & CO.—Gents: Having sold your Ague Balsam for the past three years to scores of persons in this vicinity, and closely observing its effects, we do not hesitate in saying, we believe it the best remedy ever sold in Indiana, and will effectually cure chills, fever and ague without fail.

Truly Yours,
PHILLIMAN & KEARNS, Druggists.

LOUANSPORT, Ind., Sept. 13, 1856.

DR. MANN: Please send me one half gross more of your Ague Balsam immediately. It is in great demand, and may be truly styled the King of Fever and Ague.

J. LYTLE, Physician and Druggist.

ST. LOUIS, March 1, 1858.

MESSRS. S. K. MANN & CO.—Gents: We have sold a large amount of your Ague Balsam the past three years, and find that where introduced and sold it has no equal in the history of ague remedies, and from all parts of the west we hear the same cheering news—it never fails to cure its patient—and is looked upon in this country as the best medicine for chills, fever and ague ever in our market.

THE EYE.

OF all the organs which benificent nature has endowed man with, the eye is the most important, most complex, and most delicate in organization. From its exposed situation it is constantly liable to disease which assumes varied forms and which when neglected, or unskilled, too frequently terminates in blindness. It becomes therefore—absolute necessary, that the practitioner shall be thoroughly conversant, not only with the eye ball and its appendages, but that he shall have most accurate and perfect knowledge of all diseases to which that organ is liable.

In presenting this card for public consideration, I would observe, that after an experience of over ten years in the principal ophthalmic hospitals of Europe, together with the advantage of a large private practice I am prepared to treat all diseases of the Eye with that certainty of success which can only be accomplished by years of experience.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION!

DR. WHITE, having removed his office from No. 72, Vine Street, to No. 7, Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., continues his consultations on all diseases of private or delicate nature. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. W., has the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never failed to cure the most stubborn cases of Gonorrhea and Syphilis!

Beneath his treatment all the horrors of Venereal and Impure Blood, Gleets, Gonorrhea, Chordapsus and distress in the regions of Procreation, Inflamation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Abscesses, Humors, Scaldings, Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

Seminal Weakness.

Dr. W., devotes a great portion of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate victim for the duties of life, or society.

Some of the sad and melancholly effects produced by these early habits of youth, are: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the Head, Dimness of Sight, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritation, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

The Fearful Effects on the Mind are much to be dreaded, viz: Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Timidity, &c., &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons before contemplating marriage, should consult a physician of skill and experience and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Pianos, Melodeons, and Music.

PRICES GREATLY REDUCED!!

HORACE WATERS,
332 BROADWAY, N. Y.

Agent for the Sale of the Best Boston and New York Pianos and Melodeons.

THE largest Assortment of Music Merchandise in the United States. Pianos from five different Manufactories, of every variety of style—from those in plain rosewood cases, for $200, to those of the most elegant finish, for $1,000. No House in the Union can come in competition for the number, variety and celebrity of its instruments nor the extremely low prices at which they are sold.

Horace Waters' modern improved Pianos, with or without iron frames, have, in their new scale and improved action, a power and compass of tone equalling the grand, with the beauty and durability of the square piano. The Piano and first Wade Medals have justly pronounced them equal if not superior to any other make. They are guaranteed to stand the action of every climate.

Horace Waters' Melodeons (tuned the equal temperament), superior in each desirable quality—with extra finished cases, and beautifully flute-like tone—can also furnish Melodeons of all other makers.—Prices from $45 to $125, for two sets of reeds, $150; two banks of keys, $200; Organ pedal bass melodeons, $275 and $300. Church Organs from $250 to $3,000, less a liberal discount for cash.

Music.—One of the largest and best catalogues of Music now published; sold at very low prices. Music sent to whoever ordered, post-paid. Personal attention paid to all orders received by mail. Second-hand Pianos taken in exchange for new. Catalogues sent by mail. Great inducements offered to agents to sell the above. A liberal discount to dealers, teachers, seminaries and clergymen.

Each instrument guaranteed to give satisfaction, or purchase money refunded. SECOND-HAND PIANOS AT GREAT BARGAINS constantly in store: prices from $30 to $140.

Testimonials from Professors, and Opinions of the Press.

"The Horace Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best. We are enabled to speak of these instruments with some degree of confidence, from personal knowledge of their excellent tone and durable quality."—New York Evangelist.

"Having inspected a large number of the Horace Waters' Pianos, we can speak of their merits, from personal knowledge, as being of the very best quality."—Christian Intelligencer.

"Nothing at the State Fair displayed greater excellence in any department than the Piano-Forte manufactured by Mr. Waters, of this city."—Churchman.

"The finest among the many pianos at the Crystal Palace are those placed there by Horace Waters, whose instruments are always popular."—Christian Inquirer.

"The Horace Waters' Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned materials. From all we can learn of this establishment—said to be the largest in the United States—we have no doubt that buyers can do as well, perhaps better, at this than at any other house in the Union."—Christian Advocate, Memphis, Tenn.

"Mr. Waters has been long established and is favorably known. We speak from experience when we assure our readers that his prices are below those usually charged for articles in his line."—Jacksonian, New Jersey.

"The treble is clear, pure, powerful, and very melodious, the base is deep, rolling, and sonorous; the middle part is rich, and sympathetic, and possessing the power of singing, i. e. of uniting the sound of each tone, in a degree but rarely achieved."—HENRY C. WATSON.

"For power of tone, depth of base, and brilliancy of treble, together with accuracy of touch, they are equal to any make I am acquainted with, and I cordially recommend them to those wishing to purchase.—V. C. TAYLOR.

"Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of music and of pianos to be found in the United States, and we urge our southern and western friends to give him a call whenever they go to New York."—Graham's Magazine.

We consider them worthy of special attention, from the resonant and exceedingly musical tone which Mr. Waters has succeeded in attaining."—N. Y. Musical World and Times.

"Waters' pianos and melodeons challenge comparison with the finest made anywhere in the country."—Home Journal.

"The Horace Waters Piano is pronounced by musical amateurs as a decidedly superior article in all the requisites of this instrument, and it is fast superseding those of other manufacturers."—N. Y. Express.

The New York Evening Post says: "The Horace Waters Pianos are excellent as well as cheap; but he has those of other makers, as well as second-hand ones, capitally adapted to limited means."

The Sunny South, touches on with the following: "
