Sherman Reforms.

The appointment of Senator John Sherman, of Ohio, to the Secretaryship of the Treasury, was about the most unpopular that his Excellency, Mr. Hayes, could have made. Sherman had shown but little ability and less statesmanship in the Senate, while his extreme partisan course during the infamous Presidential "count," disgusted not only his political enemies, but a good portion of his party friends. But Sherman as Keeper of the Treasury, has taken it into his head that "reform is necessary," and he has begun to correct a system of chronic abuses, which, if faithfully and persistently carried out will result in great savings to the nation. For instance, the building in Chicago used for custom house, courts, etc. for which a rental of $25,000 per annum was heretofore paid, is now leased at $12,000 per year; the rent of that used in New York city for appraisers' stores, has been reduced from $89,000 to $58,000 per annum; a ware house in New York has been cut down from $2,500 to 2000, and so with other buildings for which unreasonable rents have heretofore been paid.

In the Department proper, a large number of superfluous and idle clerks had been employed. Up to the 11th inst., over five hundred have been discharged making at least standing room for the balance, and the work is as well done as before the great reduction of force. The pay roll shows a saving of about $750 per day, or $263,750 per year. Think of it: over a quarter million saved on clerks, in one Department alone, and the work done as well as before. This sounds like an official confession that the Administration of Grant had sunk to a very deplorable depth of corruption, and that a Democratic House sought to serve the best interests of the country in materially reducing appropriations, which would have still been further reduced, but for the stubborn resistance of a Republican Senate, backed by the howlings of the Radical press.

Mr. Sherman has made a good beginning, let him go on in the good work. He has already brought about that kind of reform which an oppressed and suffering people are most ready to appreciate. Reforms that lighten the burdens of the masses, are welcome, even if achieved by a fraudulent administration.

The following letter was written to Hon. Samuel J. Tilden on the day on which Hayes was inaugurated President, and is now given to the public for the first time:

BOSTON, March. 5. Hon. S. J. Tilden, New York.—MY DEAR SIR: On this day when you ought to have been President of the United States. I seize the opportunity to bear my testimony to the calm and dignified manner in which you have passed through this great trial. It is many years since I ceased to be a party man, hence I have endeavored to judge of the public affairs and men, rather by their merit than the name they take. It is a source of gratification to me to think that I made the right choice in the late election. I could never have been reconciled to the elevation by the smallest aid of mine of a person however respectable in private life who must forever carry upon his brow the stamp of fraud first triumphant in American history. No subsequent action however meritorious can wash away letters of that record.

Very Respectfully Yours,
CHAS. FRANCIS ADAMS.

A ROUGH LEGISLATURE.—Republican papers are apt to cast reflections upon the Democratic House of 1875 and 1876, but it was no comparison to the Republican mob of last winter. We find in a recent number of the Beaver Argus and Radical, edited by senator Rutan, the following scathing rebuke of the Legislature. For a Republican paper it is something wonderful to admit even the small credit the Argus allows to the Democrats of the Senate:

"The Legislature which has just adjourned passed a few bad laws and perhaps a few good ones. Many bad acts were defeated in the Senate the last week of the session. It is evident that the people must look to the Senate for protection from iniquitous legislation of all kinds. The House is little better than a mob at best, and one shrewd, determined man can pass almost any bill through that body. Almost every proposition to take money out of the Treasury obtained the requisite number of votes to secure its passage through the House, and but for the Senate half a million of dollars would have been taken out of the Treasury for the benefit of private corporations having no claim whatever on the State for aid. It is only just to say that to Democratic Senators much of this credit is due, although the motive which actuated them was not a worthy one.—Lewisburg Journal.

Decoration Day is fast coming. Preparations are making all over the county to celebrate this day as becomes a people grateful for the heroic achievements of our patriot dead. Is anything being done here to keep up the beautiful and suggestive custom of decorating the soldiers' graves with flowers? The O. U. A. M. seem to have this matter in charge, and we hope they will not be delinquent.

The wheat crop of Sugar Valley is very promising.

The organ grinder came as far west as Lewisburg last week. Guess he will be along one of these days.

At the regular monthly meeting of the M. B. & L. Association on Monday evening, money sold at 39¾ per cent for permanent Loan.

A tramp, convicted of outraging a ten-year old girl, has just been sentenced to nine years imprisonment by Judge Harding, of Wilkesbarre.

Miss. L. Harter has just received a full line of Hats and Millinery Goods, which she offers to sell at very low prices. See advertisement.

According to the Lewisburg Journal, Apples are not going to be very plenty in that section this year. Just here they are plenty already.

Did you see Alexander's large stock of new and cheap goods? If not, you had better go at once before they are all sold.

Track laying is expected to progress up as far as Eisenhuth's, this week. Really, matters are getting serious.

Rev. W. E. Fisher and lady were very substantially remembered a few days ago by the good people of Centre Hall and vicinity. Eminently proper act.

The Penns Valley Banking Company are about erecting a three story brick building, at Centre Hall. Per centing must be good business up there.

The Democratic state convention will meet at Harrisburg, August 8th, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Supreme Judge, Auditor General and State Treasurer.

P. H. Stover has the proud distinction of being the first man who crossed the new iron County bridge at the Forks. The important event happened on Tuesday morning the 15th instant.

Potter township is getting to be so big that they can't all vote at one place any longer, and so our court kindly appoints two Ex-Sheriffs and one lawyer to divide the township into two election precincts.

Much dissatisfaction seems to prevail in Penn township, with the manner in which the triennial assessments were made, and our county dads may expect a lively time on the 29th, our day of appeals.

The Duncan lots are sold. H. G. Smith and G. W. Stover, Jr., are the buyers. We understand they will make preparations to build at once. That's business on the first floor. About a dozen others ought to do the same thing.

The Philadelphia Times says that Mr. Hayes owns several thousand acres of valuable mineral lands in Virginia. Hope he may have a better title to these than he has to the office of President, else his heirs may be most woefully disappointed some day.

The Millheim Marble Works, established thirty four years ago, has stood the best of all the panics and hard times since. Monuments, Couches, Headstones and other marble work, made of the best stock and at very reasonable prices. The continued favor of the public respectfully solicited.

The finest lot of evergreens ever brought to Millheim were sold out last week by A. O. Deininger. We understand that Gust is going into the tree business in earnest, and he certainly needs no better recommendation than just such trees as he sold last week.

In fifteen States there are Republican Governors and in twenty-three Democratic. In eighteen Legislatures the Republicans are in a majority, while of the remaining twenty the Democrats have nineteen and the Independents one.

Rev. W, H. Scott, the murdered South Carolina preacher, to whose memory the New England Methodist Conference paid a tribute of respect, has had an interesting interview with a Charleston News and Courier reporter. He brags about his pleasant relations with the white people, and is delighted over Hampton's triumph.

SUITS BEFORE JUSTICES. An act was passed at the last session of our Legislature, requiring Justices of the Peace and Aldermen to render judgment within ten days after a final hearing of any case. Failure an the part of a Justice to comply with this law is a misdemeanor, and subjects such officer to a penalty of $100. Heretofore Justices had twenty days in which to pass judgment.

The Murphy Temperance movement is sweeping the country like wild fire. Meetings are held and speeches made everywhere. Judges and lawyers, ministers and lawmen, unite in making common cause against the demon of intemperance, and thousands are signing pledges promising to abstain from all intoxicating drinks as a beverage. We hope that some substantial good may result from this work.

We see as yet but very few people clothed in new Spring suits. The general reason for this is that times are very hard and people must make their old clothing do a while longer. But the special reason that new suits are not more general is that folks wait until business calls them to Bellefonte, where J. Newman, Jr., the popular King Clothier, can suit them in all respects, and at prices that are very low even in these cheap times. Newman is your man for good and cheap clothing. Go and see for yourself.

In order to enjoy good sound sleep, several things are necessary, of which the following are of primary importance: First, a good conscience; secondly, regular and temperate habits, and lastly, Bartlett's Adjustable Spring Bed, manufactured by Daniel Derr, Bellefonte, Pa. Whether you enjoy and practice the first two requisites, we do not pretend to know. If you are thus lucky, better get the third one and have your repose complete. If you are without the first and second, you had better secure the third at once and have some sleep. See advertisement in another column.

The JOURNAL is growing so popular and beloved that fault is found with it but rarely. Lately however, a friend suggested that we might use the pronoun "we" a little less frequently, intimating that too much of it smacked a little of egoism. We plead guilty at once, to save costs. But the fact is we can not write at all, unless we are permitted to use the word we as often as we wish. It is a weakness we have. That's all.

Have you straightened up and white-washed your fences, cleaned up your yard, removed the stone, old boards and other rubbish around the the premises? If so you should next in order trim up the flower beds, clip your trees and ornamental bushes of awkward and useless branches and then look around to see whether there is not something else to do in the same line. Don't be satisfied with a few hours of work in the yard and garden, in the Spring. We would like to see you keep things in the best kind of trim all Summer, the fact that it is none of our business, how you do your work, "to the contrary notwithstanding."

One of the best Book Stores in Central Pennsylvania, is that of James Welch in Bellefonte. Full to repletion in its various departments, Mr. Welch sells at prices that defy competetion anywhere. Just now he makes a speciality of paper and envelopes selling the latter at five cents per pack, and note paper at 7—10 cents per quire. We advise our readers to visit and buy at Welch's store when they go to Bellefonte.

Tribute of Respect.

At a regular stated meeting of Millheim Council, No. 309, O. U. A. M. held in the Council Chamber, May 5th, 1877, the following tribute of respect to the memory of our late brother, A. Jackson Hosterman, was unanimously passed:

Whereas God, the Supreme Ruler of all mankind, has in his infinite wisdom taken from our midst by death, our late esteemed brother, A. Jackson Hosterman, therefore

Resolved, That we bow our heads in humble submission to His will and extend our heartfelt symphathy to the bereaved widow and orphan

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Hosterman, we feel the loss of a highly respected member of our order.

Resolved, That we drape in mourning for the space of sixty days, the Charter of our Council.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the MILLHEIM JOURNAL, and a copy sent to the widow of our late brother.

REBERSBURG ITEMS.

The sick are convalescing.

Henry Brungart and Marshall Hall are building in East Rebersburg; hope many more will follow.

The Cherry crop promises to be good.

The foundation of the German Reformed church is fast approaching completion.

Our Supervisors have commenced operation on the road, a good step in the right direction.

Some of our farmers revel in the hope of replanting some of their corn, having planted it the first time during the winter.

Rebersburg should not only be a moral but a religious village, judging it from its many weekly proceedings, two or three sermons, three Sabbath schools, three Bible classes, three singing associations and seven prayermeetings, (the Lutherans, United Brethren and the Evangelical Association having them biweekly,) besides other mettings of a religious nature. Who can beat us?

ANON.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for June opens with an exquisite steel engraving "Sybil's Swans." In addition it has a double-size colored fashion plate, about twenty other fashion illustrations, and dozens of patterns for embroidery, netting &c., &c. It has also a pattern for a tidy in Java canvas, large size, which is alone worth the price of the number. "Peterson," it must be remembered, is only two dollars a year, and in clubs can be had as low as $1.50. How so elegant a magazine can be published so cheaply, is only to be explained by its enormous edition, which the proprietor claims is the largest of any lady's book in the world. "Peterson" has long been celebrated for the superiority of its stories, and the present number fully sustains this reputation. Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Frank Lee Benedict, the author of "Josiah Allen's Wife," &c. &c., being among the contributors. A new volume begins with the next number, so that now is just the time to subscribe. Undoubtedly "Peterson" is the best and cheapest of its kind. Specimens are sent, gratis, to those wishing to get up clubs. Address CHAS. J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

MARRIED.

On the 30th ult., at the Reformed parsonage by Rev. W. M. Landis, Dr. D. J. Hillbish of Rebersburg, to Miss Emma K. Hillbish of Freeburg, Snyder Co., Pa.

DIED.

On the 12th inst., in Penn twp., an infant son of Jacob Dutweiler, aged 1 year, 2 months and 6 days.

On the 12th inst., near Penn Hall Mrs. Fayette, wife of John F. Heckman, aged 40 years, 6 months and 1 day.

Although Mrs. Heckman had suffered long and severely, the messenger of death came at a time and under circumstances least expected; up to a few days of her death she had been in her usual health, but death came suddenly and finished his work. The deceased was a consistent member of the Reformed Church, and when her last hour came, she was ready for it. The bereaved family have sustained a severe loss which nothing but divine grace can heal. We commend them to that comforter, who is able to heal every wounded and broken heart.

"Earth has no sorrow which heaven can not heal."

On the 5 th inst., Catharine E. Miller, of Rebersburg, aged 67 years 8 months and 4 days.

On the 6th inst., in Madisonburg, infant son of George W. and Annie Hasel.

On the 9th inst., Amelia, wife of John C. Smull, aged 49 years, 5 months and 8 days.

BEATTY'S Parlor Organ Est'd. in 1856
The best and most lasting parlor organ now in use. No other parlor organ has ever attained the same popularity.
It has been tested by thousands, many of them competent judges, and gives universal satisfaction to all.
The music is adapted to the human voice, ranging from the softest flute-like note to a volume of sound unsurpassed by any instrument.
This instrument has all the latest improvements, and every organ is fully warranted for six years. Beautiful oil polish, black walnut panelled cases, which will not CRACK or WARP, and forms, in addition to a splendid instrument of music, a beautiful piece of furniture.
This organ needs only to be seen to be appreciated, and is sold at extremely low figures for cash. Second-hand instruments taken in exchange.

Daniel F. Beatty's
PIANOS & ORGANS.
CAUTION.—The reputation I have gained and the celebrity of my Organs, have induced some unprincipled parties and agents to copy my circulars, and misrepresent my instruments; against this the public are hereby cautioned. All my Organs bear my trade-mark, Golden Tongue, and all my Pianos have the word PIANO underlined, and also have my name, [illegible] and residence, DANIEL F. BEATTY, Washinton, N. J., without which none is genuine.

Parlor Organs.
Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co., (N. Y.) Newspaper Reporter, says:
"Daniel F. Beatty, the organ builder, of Washington, N. J., presses forward with greatest vigor."
From Wm. Peol, Niagara Falls, N. Y.
"Several months use of the elegent Parlor Organ you sent me satisfies me that it is one of the best made. It has a rich tone; its various tones are most pleasant. I most heartily recommend your organs for parlor school, church or other use."
Best offer ever given. Money refunded upon return of organ and freight charges paid by me (Daniel F. Beatty) both ways if unsatisfactory, after a test trial of five days. Organ warranted for five years. Send for extended list of testimonials before buying a parlor Organ. Address.
