Japanese Politeness.

Lady—The feet of the ladies of your country are compressed, I believe.

Japanese Attache—Oh, no, madam; that is a Chinese custom. We in Japan allow our ladies' feet to grow to their full size (politely)—not that they can ever hope to rival yours, madam.—Truth.

Trouble in the Museum.

"You'd better go and look after those freaks," said the assistant in the dime museum.

"What's the matter?" inquired the manager.

"The cross-eyed giant is courting the two-headed girl, and she's getting jealous of herself."—Chicago Tribune.

Indicative.

"What makes you think Jack Youngley is going to propose to you?"

"Why, we were dancing the other night and I complimented him upon the easy way in which he held me. 'Oh, yes,' he said, 'it's always easy for me to hold my own.'"—Brooklyn Life.

A Mitigating Circumstance.

Brown—Did you hear that young Benedict suddenly became deaf on the very day on which he was married?

Robinson—You don't say so. That shows that there is a silver lining to every cloud, no matter how dark it may be for a time.—Tammany Times.

A Few Years Hence.

"Ah, Maud Weatherwax," exclaimed the young man, weeping bitterly, "you never would have dared to talk to me in the manner you have if I had a sister to defend me! Coward!"—Indianapolis Journal.

Out of His Line.

Ada—Flo was just going down for the third time when Dr. Watson dived off a yacht and caught her.

Grace—And saved her life! Wasn't that wonderful!

Ada—Yes, for a doctor.—Life.

Musical Item.

A.—So your dog has gone away again, has he?

B.—Yes, since my daughter has been taking singing lessons there is no such thing as keeping him on the premises.—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

Classed Him.

"Men," said Sharpe, "may be divided into two classes—knaves and fools."

"That's a pretty bright remark," said Uncle Silas; "any man who takes you for a fool is mistaken."—N. Y. Press.

Human Nature.

She—George.

He—Yes.

She—Why is it that most weddings are sadder than funerals and most funerals jollier than weddings?

He—Well, in the first case every one knows what misfortune has happened to the contracting parties, and in the second they don't.—N. Y. World.

"WE INVITE INSPECTION."

Advertisements are sometimes misleading. Therefore we invite the citizens of Wichita to call on us, and let us show them through a first class laundry. It will certainly be a surprise to most of our citizens to see so complete a plant. After inspecting our manner of handling their linen, we would like for them to call on others engaged in same line of business. We are certain the comparison will benefit us.
