FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MONEY AND STOCKS.

New York Financial Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Money—1@1 per cent.; closed at 1½ per cent.

Prime Mercantile Paper—4@5 per cent.

Governments—Unchanged.

State Securities—Dull.

There was a further decline in the stock market to-day, and apparently there has been less effort on the part of those recently prominent in the upward movement to resist the downward course of prices. The opening quotations were ⅛ to ¾ per cent. lower than they closed yesterday, and in the early dealings prices were permitted to decline further from ⅛ to ⅝ per cent. The market quickly developed a vigorous attack upon Western Union, which sold down to 60¾ against 61¾ last evening. St. Paul was equally depressed, selling at 73¼, and Missouri Pacific sold at 95¼, a drop of ¾ per cent. The remainder of the market yielded from ¼ to ½ per cent. This was followed by a reaction which carried prices active stocks before noon at the above figures, at which they closed yesterday, except for Western Union and St. Paul, which responded only feebly to the advance. The advance continued during the next hour, when the highest prices of most stocks were reached. New York Central showed a gain of 1 per cent. over yesterday's closing prices at 93; Lake Shore and Union Pacific each ⅝ per cent. at 64⅝ and 50¼ respectively; Lackawanna, ⅝ per cent. at 97⅝. From 1 until 3 o'clock prices were weak, and the lowest prices of the day were made at or near the close of the board. Not a single stock on the active list shows an advance over yesterday's final quotations, and yet, with few exceptions, the declines amount to less than 1 per cent. The exceptions were Western Union, which is 7⅞ per cent. lower, at 59⅞, after touching 59¾, and St. Paul 1¼ per cent., at 72¾, the lowest price. This does not include Central New Jersey, which opened down 1 per cent., at 32¾, and on light transactions made further loss of 1 per cent., closing at 36¾. Dullness accompanied weakness in the market after the first hour, the latest sales being only 278,464 shares, of which trading in Western Union contributed 63,440 shares, or about 33 per cent. The other most active stocks were Lackawanna, sales of which were 50,193 shares; St. Paul, 38,400; Northwestern, 27,869; Lake Shore, 25,750, and Union Pacific, 22,760 shares. Some of the leading bull operators claim this afternoon that there has been a liberal buying of stocks on the downward scale, and that the market will receive strong support before it goes much lower. The street is again devoid of news having material effect upon values.

The bond market sympathized in a measure with the dealings in stocks, and there was less business.

From the Mail and Express: "Mining stocks were generally quiet. Consolidated California and Virginia sold at 23; Consolidated Pacific, 90; Hale and Norcross, 400; Horn Silver, 255; Lacrosse, 9; Navajo, 139; and Standard, 95."
