SUPPLEMENT.

WEDNESDAY, ... DEC. 11, 1878.

TRUE ALBERT, OUR SUCCESSFUL PHOTOGRAPHER, IS AT HIS GALLERY AGAIN, OPPOSITE THE COURT HOUSE —CALL ON HIM.

The herein published names of Taxpayers, whose State Taxes are due, are hereby notified to come forward at once and settle, this being the last Tuesday in December, 1878, as Act No. 95, of 1877, of the State Legislature, and will be published twice within ten days, in accordance with law.

A penalty of two per cent. per month, from the 9th day of December, 1878, will be added to the amount, and will be charged till final settlement.

H. P. LUCKETT,
State Tax Collector.

Dec. 9, 1878.

—Mrs Gayoso has opened, at the corner of Third and Beauregard streets, in Alexandria, a Millinery and Dress Goods store, and Ladies furnishing house, and having made these purchases in person, offers rare inducements to the Ladies of the Parish to call and examine her latest and fashionable goods. She will carry on Millinery and Dress making in all its branches, and will devote her special attention to suit and please her patrons.

—We are pleased to note the arrival home of our young friend and townsman, William Graham, and to see him looking and feeling as well as a blooded three years colt. He is just from a visit to the old world, has crossed the broad Atlantic to and fro, and we welcome the "young Magregor to his native heath."

—Deputy Sheriff John P. Grogan left on the Silver City for Baton Rouge, and had for compagnons de voyage Mr. Bowers and a young man, the first is billed for five years and the latter for two years, unless furloughed to Rapides to work on the Railroad.

—On the morning of Tuesday, the 2d inst, the fine steam Gin House and Grist Mill of William Harris, on his Willow Glen Plantation, was burned and totally destroyed. At least one hundred bales of cotton, belonging to the proprietor and other parties were lost; No insurance.
