EXAMINATION OF DRAFTED MEN IS NEXT BIG WORK

Draft work is full of big tasks and the next big task in line for those connected with the work in Hawaii is the examination of men drafted today at the selective drawing. This work will devolve upon the various local exemption boards and the central or district board.

That is, the boards will become active should the actual call for drafted men come, as explained in a statement on Page 2 today.

These boards are numbered according to the six representative districts of the territory. The men who will serve on them and ahead of whom the heavy work now lies are as follows:

Central Board—J. A. Balch, C. R. Hemenway, Dr. J. R. Judd, P. M. Pond and Clarence Crabbe.

District 1.—Dr. H. B. Elliot, W. H. Smith and Dr. L. L. Sexton.

District 2.—T. C. White, William McQuaid and Dr. O. A. Jeffreys.

District 3.—Clem Crowell, William F. Kaae and Dr. William Osmers.

District 4.—H. Gooding Field, Judge Antonio Perry, Dr. A. F. Jackson, Jno. Guild and John H. Drew.

District 5.—George F. Renton, F. J. Lowrey, Dr. H. B. Cooper, B. L. Marx and Alfred Eames.

District 6.—W. H. Rice, J. M. Kaneakua and Dr. J. M. Kuhns.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Forty-seven suits for divorce were filed in circuit court in October.

Circuit Judge Ashford's trial jurors who are not engaged in the Sam Goldino case have been excused until 9 o'clock next Monday morning.

The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. has filed in circuit court a bond of $500 to cover the removal of the case of the utilities commission against the steamship company to federal court.

Charged with keeping liquor for sale without a license, Raymond Ramos was convicted in Circuit Judge Ashford's court yesterday and sentenced to serve four months in Oahu prison.

The trial of Sam Goldino, charged with the malicious conversion of an automobile, was begun this morning in Circuit Judge Ashford's court. Further trial will be had tomorrow. Attorney Lorrin Andrews is representing the defendant.

Rupert Henwood, who was taken from a foreign vessel at this port and held pending an investigation of charges of embezzlement, has been returned to Australia by Marshal J. J. Smiddy at the instance of the Australian government.

Attorney General Gregory notified Secretary of War Baker that in his opinion the agreement entered into by the Wright-Martin and Curtiss Aeroplane companies for the interchange of patents is legal.

One thousand carloads of peaches, one-ninth of the entire crop of New York States are rotting in the orchards because the peach growers cannot get the cars to take their fruit to the market.
