GRANT AND GRABTAX GATHERING. —Purviance speaks a piece.—Balloon Ascension of Tom Marshall.—We will not adopt the lying style of the reporter of the Inquirer by saying that the Radical meeting in the court house, on last Saturday evening, was the "completest fizzle ever held in Bedford," but admit at once that, in point of numbers, the meeting was respectable. Taking away, however, the ladies, the boys, the "colored brethren" and the Democrats who came to hear what Tom Marshall had to say in answer to the irresistable logic of Gen. Miller and Mr. Speer, on the Saturday before, there would have been but few Radical voters left. The boys were there in full force, and were well drilled on applause, having practiced outside of the court house, just a week before, when the Democrats held their meeting. Their peculiar, shrill whistle, for which the junior Rads of this place alone are famous, always gave notice when Tom Marshall said something astonishingly brilliant, and was heartily responded to by the seniors. The "manhoods," being there by special invitation, no doubt, came in such force that objects around became almost indiscernable and were seen as through smoked glass, dimly. The first speaker was Purviance, of Pittsburg, who started out with what he knew to be a deliberate falsehood, namely, that if Seymour and Blair would be elected there would be another civil war! Having delivered himself of this "whopper" he, like another Rip Van Winkle, just arisen from a long sleep, commenced talking about slavery and slave drivers, secession and rebels, which furnished the theme for the rest of his speech. If he would read the Democratic platform he would there learn that these subjects are among the things of the dead past, and none but a dreaming old political fogy would make them a subject for an hour's talk to an intelligent Bedford audience. One of the most wonderful things that he said, was, that during the time of slavery, no new State was admitted into the Union, if she presented herself dressed in white. If he had followed history a little further he might have added that no State is now admitted unless she comes in as black as Erebus! His speech throughout was the tamest affair we have ever listened to. One thing he forgot to tell his audience about, and that was, why he left Curtin's cabinet in 1861.

While Purviance was speaking, Marshall was out inflating his balloon for the grand ascension the audience was to witness as soon as the former would be done speaking. Purviance finished; the Band played Silver Moon," or some other delightful production touching the great financial questions of the day; somebody said "Marshall," the boys whistled "Marshall," but the "bid of freedom" could not be marshalled, so the band played another piece of soul-inspiring music, which brought the tardy speaker to a sense of his duty. He stepped into the room with an air of "Make way for Liberty!" planted himself before his audience, struck an attitude, and the balloon was ready to go up. The ropes were cut and Marshall went up into the clouds, down he comes with lightning speed to terra firma, up he goes, 'round and 'round with such recklessness that we would'nt have taken much stock in his insurance for further existence. But he survived. He told us that at a certain period of his existence he was born in Ireland, and that he came across the "deep blue sea," in female garments. We felt a deep interest in the dear little infant, when we heard this statement, and wondered whether it was afflicted with sea-sickness. He told how he had grown up and learned to hate his own race, and cursed his very existence because the sun did not shine upon him and make him black! He raved at everybody in the room that wasn't black as jet. Snuff-color would not suit him, it must be as black a midnight, yea, blacker than the soot on the door-hinges of perdition! That was his style, and he did not care whether his Radical friends in Bedford liked it or not. He considered his nigger that blacks his boots, as good as any Democrat in the land, and a little better than the editor of the GAZETTE! He would come into this Congressional District and elect J. Cessna to Congress on that issue! This created a sensation, and frightened the clique, for Johnny was not yet quite prepared to swallow this unpalatable dose of "manhood;" but the great Mogul from Pittsburg gave him a look, the boys whistled, the old men cheered, and Johnny gulped down a full grown "manhood," "capillary vegetation" and all! All this little scene resulted from an attempt to answer some questions in last week's GAZETTE. He answered the first one, as well as he could, and the rest he either dodged or lied himself out of. He said Sawyer was no blockade-runner, or at least he did not believe he was; that Jeff Davis was President of the Confederacy, and therefore Joe Brown could not have been the founder and supporter of the Andersonville prison pen. Logical, very. On the great financial question his ideas were brief but clear. He said as soon as gold and greenbacks would be on a par, there would be no difference in their respective value! The five-twenties were to be paid off either in gold or greenbacks, according to the Chicago platform. This was about the gist of his speech. Not a word did he utter in favor of relieving the burdens of a tax-ridden people, not a word of hope for the disfranchised whites, or the oppressed of the land anywhere. He spoke for more taxes and more oppression; for more tyranny and less liberty. His speech was marked by the coarsest language, the most wanton sacrilege, and showed that he was better fitted to associate with his friend, the boot-black, than with gentlemen; better fitted to play the role of a clown than an enlightener of the public on national subjects. We hope that the Grant and Colfax Club will secure his services to stump this district. He has offered himself, and they cannot well refuse.

PERSONAL.—R. Biven Davis, Esq., of Galveston, Texas, is here on a visit to his friends and relatives. Mr. Davis looks well, and the Southwest seems to agree with him admirably. Long may he live to enjoy his present good health.

James H. Schell, Esq., of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and J. H. Schell, Esq., of Kansas City, Mo., are spending some time with their friends here and in Schellsburg. These gentlemen have permanently located in the West and doing well. Success attend them!

J. H. Rush, Esq., formerly of this place, who has been on a visit to his parents, has returned to his home in Indiana. John is a congenial gentleman and is bound to succeed no matter where his lot is cast.

WOODBURY.—At an election for officers in the newly incorporated borough of Woodbury, the following persons were elected:—

Burgess, J. H. Wilkinson, Council, F. Hartman, H. Roberts, D. R. P. Swaney, J. N. Bowser, J. T. Barclay, A. L. Beckhoefer; Assessor, Henry Fluke; High Constable, Solomon Barley; School Directors, C. F. Oellig, C. W. Allen, Sam'l R. Hair, D. R. P. Swaney, Samuel Beamer; Supervisor, W. F. Stock: Auditors, C. R. Stover, S. B. Fluck, W. R. Smith; Judge Jame Lee; Inspectors, Peter Morningstar, John C. Miller.

TERPSICHOREAN ENTERTAINMENT. —On Wednesday night last, Prof. S. M. Nott gave an exhibition of the proficiency of his pupils in the graceful art of dancing, at that finely kept hotel, the Arandale House. Prof. Nott is engaged in teaching a high school of manners, in connection with dancing, and we must say, a very successful teacher. The ease and grace with which he teaches children to go through the ceremony of a formal introduction, as well as the intricate mazes of the dance, and truly surprising. We hope he may be well patronized.

BEWARE OF INFRINGMENTS.—The Willoughby patent gum spring drill, like all good and approved agricultural implements, could not expect to be manufactured a great while, without an attempt being made to violate its patent by some imitation of infringment. Let farmers be on the lookout! We mean to protect our patent. And let it be remembered that the purchaser is equally liable with the manufacturer of an infringing machine. All our drills are plainly marked "Willoughby Gum Spring Drill, F. Gardner & Co., Carlisle, Pa."

ATLANTIC CITY must be a delightful bathing place. Only twenty-two persons bathing there have been drowned this season! As the bodies are generally recovered, the proprietors of this fine summer watering and drowning place don't lose much on bathing dresses. The bodies of three persons drowned there on Saturday afternoon were brought to Philadelphia the same evening. Pennsylvanians who don't want to be drowned when seeking health and recreation, had better go to Bedford, where they will find the best water, the purest air, the finest scenery and some of the most agreeable people in the world.—Franklin Repository.

A WOMAN BITTEN BY A SNAKE.—A few mornings ago as Mrs. Lawrence Donahoe residing near the village of Hopewell was driving the cows to pasture, she stepped on a large rattlesnake that was concealed from her view. His snakeship being thus so rudely interfered with, retaliated by biting the intruder near the ankle joint. The poison of the reptile soon developed itself in the person of the unfortunate lady. Dr. F. D. Earnest was called in to her assistance and she is now entirely out of danger.—Bedford Co. Press.

SALE OF TOWN LOTS.—On Monday last Hon. John Cessna, sold ten town lots, formerly belonging to the Lyons' estate. They were purchased by the following persons at the prices named. William Spidle, 1 lot, $425, J. L. Lessig, 2 lots, $902, W. M. Hall, 2 lots, $728, O. E. Shannon, 5 lots, $2,332.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—Mrs. Lincoln and her son "Tad" are stopping at Cramer's. She did not go to Europe as the Inquirer told its readers last week, but has come to Bedford instead. Sensible woman.

SOLD OUT.—John Keeffe has sold his book and stationery store to the Inquirer Book Store.

ABOUT TOMATOES.—This healthy vegetable is now used in almost every conceivable shape as food, and for a relish, and among the last, is to stew green tomatoes. This is done by paring half a dozen and slicing them down; then add a little salt and a tea spoonful of sugar, and stew them until they are completely cooked. The juice of the tomato is sufficient, without the use of any water for stewing. Season to the taste. We speak from the record, having used them during the last ten days, and find them as palatable to our taste as ripe ones.

RICE.—One of the best articles of diet, at this season of the year, and a good one at all seasons, is rice. If people would eat plenty of well-cooked rice they would have fewer disturbances of the digestive apparatus.—Rice is both a preventive and cure of "bowel complaints." The Southern crop of this excellent grain will this year reach 66,000 barrels against 45,000 last year.

MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle.)—Two weeks' trial, and you have the guarantee that you will not have a gray hair in your head.—The natural color and beauty are restored, and a new and luxuriant growth is the result. We have this spoken by those who have used it, and we predict hosts of friends for the inproved preparation, and we are happy to state the price is only One Dollar per bottle. Every Druggist sells it. jul31w4

DON'T FORGET—That the Inquirer Book Store is the place to get cheap books, stationery, papers, magazines, &c. It contains the largest stock of miscellaneous and school books in the county. Any book you see noticed in the newspapers or magazines and wish to obtain, you can get, at short notice and publisher's prices, by leaving your order at the Inquirer Book Store.

OPENED OUT.—Our enterprising young friend, D. W. Crouse, has opened out a Resort Cigar and Tobaco store on Pitt street, next door to Oster's. Dan is determined to please the public, and deserves their patronage.

If Samson's strength actually lay in the length and abundance of his hair a liberal use of the famous "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" ought to impart many times the strength of that doughty ancient warrior, for there is no limit it will not reach if properly applied.—N. H. Patriot.

COARSE people use coarse perfumery, and vice versa, it is safe to set down a lady who uses that spiritual perfume, PHALON'S "FLOR DE MAYO," as a person of taste and sensibilty—perhaps a poetess, or a fine musician. Sold by all druggists.

AGENT WANTED FOR BEDFORD COUNTY.—A good live man can receive remunerative employment as agent for the Hartford Live Stock Insurance Company. Address J. F. EATON, Harrisburg, Pa., for particulars. 2w.

STAR AGRICULTURAL WORKS. THE ALBANY COTTON GIN MANUFACTURING Co., Albany, N. Y., Manufacturers of General Agricultural Machinery, comprising the celebrated "Star" Threshing Machines; "Star" Railway (or Endless Chain) and Lever Horse Powers; "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers; Circular Cross-cut Sawmills; Vegetable Cutters; Horse Hay Forks; Corn and Feed Mills; Power Corn Shellers; Dog Powers, &c., &c.

We wish to call the particular attention of Farmers to our celebrated "STAR" THRESHER AND CLEANER, which, as lately improved, we claim it far superior to any other machine now in market. It is compact and easily portable, simple in its construction, and therefore easy to operate by the most inexperienced, and will do its work with marvellous rapidity and perfection, and with comparatively the least demand upon the strength of the animals driving it.

We have made recent improvements in this machine by which we are enabled to thoroughly clean the grain under almost any combination of difficulties, and we are now using an entirely new and effective device for relieving the feeder of dust, thus making the operation of threshing as comfortable and safe as with the ordinary machines it is annoying and frequently destructive of health.

These Machines are made of suitable sizes for our "Star" Railway 2 Horse Power and for our "Star" Lever Powers for 4 and 6 horses.

For sale by our agents and dealers generally. For full particulars, send for our Illustrated Descriptive Circular and Price List. Correspondents will please address The Albany Cotton Gin Manufacturing Co., P. O. Drawer 162, Albany, N. Y.

IF A HUMBUG,

What a wonder
That the doors
Are open wide;
Ever since the
First of August
Thousands have Pain Paint applied.
Those who lie,
Or call it humbug,
Are the doctors,
Not acquaint;
For they always
Have been jealous
When their patients
Use Pain Paint.
Pile up facts
As high as mountains,
Flash the truth
Before their eyes,
But the cry
Is always humbug,
Men of science
Full of lies.

People know that liniments composed of Cayenne pepper, turpentine, hartshorn, ether, &c., will produce inflammation and pain. To purchase such trash to stop Pain and Inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop heat; a dumb brute shuns the heat, and knows enough to wade in a pond of water, when wounded, to reduce, cool, and cure Inflammation and Fever.

Pimps and gamblers try to look honest, but folks can read the face too plainly. Some try to persuade the ignorant that pills, physic, &c., cleanse the blood, purge the system, and do a hundred other things equally absurd. Everybody knows that it is false, and that no medicine can purify or increase a drop of blood. Food makes blood, bone, and muscle, and is the Staff of Life. Every dose of medicine swallowed is rejected, and hurried out of the system as quick as possible. It is an enemy; yea, a deadly foe. Constipation, ill health, and weakness, are the result of dosing, dosing, dosing the stomach.—The living system has enough to do without working herself to death in expelling and kicking out the pernicious nostrums poured down the throat. Food she welcomes when she needs it; yea, asks for it. Let pill-makers and physic venders stop eating food, and see how long they can subsist on their blood-purifying, invigorating, health-giving medicines and cordials. What humbug is more transparent? A dog would feel so insulted if offered a dose, he would curl his tail downward in scorn, and run away in utter disgust. All physical pain arises from inflammation. Put out the fire and you stop pain absolutely. You can stop pain as easy as you can quench fire with water. WOLCOTT'S PAIN PAINT subdues inflammation, heat, and fever one hundred times faster than ice. Thousands have had a practical test of its merits at the very moment of most extreme pain and they can testify that it has not failed in doing its work. It is simple; it is harmless, it has no stain; it gives no smart; it is for sale by Druggists everywhere; and it is tested free of cost at 170 CHATHAM SQUARE, N. Y., and 622 Arch Street, Philadelphia

My wife had an ulcer on her leg for thirteen years, caused by varicose veins, ulceration extending from her ankle to her knee, some places eating away to the bone. I have employed over twenty physicians at vast expense during this period. But all attempts at cure proved utterly abortive until I tried Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint, which the doctors told me was a humbug. But humbug or not, it has done the work completely in less than one month, removing the pain at the first application. I kept her leg wet with Pain Paint constantly until healed. I wish we had more humbugs as useful as Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint. I am well known in this city, any person who wants to make further inquiry will call at 101 West Street, New York, at the Hanover House, of which I am the proprietor, and I think I can satisfy them as to the benefit derived by the use of Pain Paint.
